Beyond Secularism And Jihad Beyond Secularism And Jihad:

Beyond Secularism and Jihad? Peter D. Beaulieu, 2012-07-13 Peter D Beaulieu examines the challenge posed by and to modernity and historic Islam as they encounter one another He compares the Western separation of Church and state with the unitary Islamic State and explores the proposed cultural and societal principles of the Second Vatican Council as potentially influencing long term events in both arenas Beaulieu s research is comprehensive and richly documented yet offers an accessible triangular inquiry into the mosque the manger and modernity By restoring a place at the table for Trinitarian Christianity alongside the engulfing monotheism of Islam and the alternative skepticism of Western rationalism this inquiry broadens the pallet of inter religious and intercultural contact points Beyond Secularism and Jihad provides balanced attention to the differences as well as the similarities between Christianity Islam and modernity An emerging theme is natural law which is universal and intrinsic to all mankind and not confined to competing theologies Neglected in the West that it helped create natural law might contribute to the needed grammar for dialogue between the citizens in the West and the followers of Islam

Beyond Secularism and Jihad? Peter D. Beaulieu, 2012-07-13 Peter D Beaulieu examines the challenges to secular modernity and Islam as they encounter one another By restoring a place at the table for Trinitarian Christianity alongside the monotheism of Islam and the skeptical indifference of Western rationalism Beaulieu broadens the

Exploring Islam beyond Orientalism and Occidentalism Christel Gärtner, Heidemarie Winkel, 2021-06-29 Islamic religion has become an object of political discourse in ways that also affects academic reflection against this background this volume aims to provide a theoretically and empirically founded assessment of where social sciences currently stand with regard to Islam For this purpose the volume continues to develop the sociological knowledge of Islam that began in the 1980s Given the Orientalism inherent in sociology the volume focuses on Muslim knowledge systems and institutions as well as the practice of Muslim religiosity in various social contexts stretching from Algeria and Morocco to Turkey

Beyond New Atheism and Theism Sal Restivo, 2023-09-01 This book addresses the flaws and fallacies in the grounds for atheism and theism flaws and fallacies that contaminate the arguments of non believers and believers alike Focusing on the highly visible debates between the New Atheists such as Christopher Hitchens Daniel Dennett Richard Dawkins and Sam Harris on the one hand and their main theist opponents including Frank Turek John Lennox and William Lane Craig on the other it approaches these debates from the perspective of the sociology of religion and science With entire worldviews at stake it explores various failings in the logic language and knowledge of the protagonists revealing mistaken and oversimplified understandings of both science itself and the sociocultural and symbolic roles of religion on both sides Advancing a secular and humanist worldview unburdened by the problems that beset both atheism and theism the author argues for a sociological perspective on religion God and science as a practice together with a critical realist approach to the nature of the real world as we experience it Beyond New Atheism and Theism will therefore appeal to scholars and students of sociology and cultural studies with interests in the conflicting worldviews of science and religion

Global Jihad in Muslim and non-Muslim Contexts Jonathan Matusitz, 2020-06-12 This book examines ten reasons for global jihad today. Specifically, the reasons are: 1 radicalization, 2 group dynamics and socialization, 3 social alienation, 4 religious motivations, 5 legal motivations, 6 political motivations, 7 a Clash of Civilizations, 8 economic conditions, 9 transformative learning, and 10 outbidding and internal rifts. To investigate these points, all chapters include the historical background, specific case studies, both past and current statistics, and theoretical approaches to the subject of global jihad. The main purpose of jihad is to achieve global domination through any means, including violence, and establish the Caliphate. The Caliphate is a Muslim system of world government that seeks to establish a new world order by overthrowing the current order, effectively creating an all-encompassing Islamic state.

Beyond the Secular West Akeel Bilgrami, 2016-03-22 What is the character of secularism in countries that were not pervaded by Christianity, such as China, India, and the nations of the Middle East? To what extent is the secular an imposition of colonial rule? How does secularism comport with local religious cultures in Africa, and how does it work with local forms of power and governance in Latin America? Has modern secularism evolved organically, or is it even necessary, and has it always meant progress? A vital extension of Charles Taylor's A Secular Age, in which he exhaustively chronicled the emergence of secularism in Latin Christendom, this anthology applies Taylor's findings to secularism's global migration.

Abdullahi Ahmed An-Na'im, Rajeev Bhargava, Akeel Bilgrami, Souleymane Bachir Diagne, Sudipta Kaviraj, Claudio Lomnitz, Alfred Stepan, Charles Taylor, and Peter van der Veer each explore the transformation of Western secularism beyond Europe, and the collection closes with Taylor's response to each essay. What began as a modern reaction to, as well as a stubborn extension of, Latin Christendom has become a complex export shaped by the world's religious and political systems. Brilliantly alternating between intellectual and methodological approaches, this volume fosters a greater engagement with the phenomenon across disciplines.

Rethinking Islamism beyond jihadi violence Elisa Orofino, 2023-05-23 For several years now, Islamism has been associated with jihadism and violent extremism, both in academia and in contemporary political debates. However, this association can be misleading. Islamism has much deeper roots than jihadi terrorism, and it stands as a powerful and complex ideology inspiring thoughts, actions, and groups all over the world. Emerging as a protest for justice ideology claiming freedom against Western colonisation of the Muslim world, Islamism has triggered both individuals and groups worldwide since the early 1900s. Almost as a sacred ideology based on the need to revive Islam as the only saving grace for Muslims around the world, Islamism started to be widely associated with jihadism after 9/11. Before then, Islamism was not automatically related to terrorism but to resistance. Given that terrorists are only a small and definite portion of Islamists, this volume aims to refocus research on Islamism beyond jihadism by collecting relevant contributions on Islamist but non-violent organisations. More precisely, this volume innovatively contributes to current academic debates by exploring the origins of Islamism and the differences between jihadism, the evolution of Islamism over time and places, and the role played by the most influential non jihadist Islamist organisations active today as powerful non state actors

Political Liberalization and Democratization in the Arab World Rex Brynen, Bahgat Korany, Paul Noble, 1995 The Arab world is experiencing a variety of factors internal and external that are leading to change This work examines such factors that are shaping political liberalisation and democratisation in the Arab context as well as the role played by particular social groups

Representing Jihad Jacqueline O'Rourke, 2012-08-09 The jihad has been at the centre of the West's securitization discourse for more than a decade Theorists constantly use the jihadist as a discursive tool to further their neoliberal military and market agendas perpetuating massive gaps of understanding between the West Muslims and jihadists themselves They are helped by Muslim interlocutors who all too often play the role of good Muslims explaining the motifs of the bad Muslims This timely book argues that Muslim theory and fiction has been significantly commodified to cater to the needs of western ideology It skillfully critiques the ideological contradictions of the debate around the jihadist by offering a comprehensive analysis of Muslim and non Muslim cultural critics Ranging from Edward Said to Slavoj Zizek from Don DeLillo to Orhan Pamuk and from Mohammed Siddique Khan to Osama bin Laden this vastly heterogeneous discourse produces a multi dimensional Muslim response O'Rourke examines some of its critical fault lines in postcolonial theory and literary analysis This groundbreaking book argues that the temptation to appropriate the figure of the jihadist offers a fertile area from which to launch a discussion about the limits of current theory

Beyond the Hijab Debates Tanja Dreher, Christina Ho, 2009-03-26 Headscarves in schools Ethnic gang

rapists Domestic violence in Indigenous communities Polygamy Sharia law It seems that in public debates around the world concerns about marginalised communities often revolve around issues of gender and women's rights Yet all too often discussions about complex matters are reduced to simplistic debates such as hijab to ban or not to ban or Muslim women oppressed or liberated This collection provides a space for in depth analyses on the politics of gender race and religion As well as critical reflections on images and experiences of Muslim women chapters also explore the relationships between gender violence and protection and offer innovative possibilities for intellectual and practical understandings at the intersection of gender race and religion Essential reading for scholars and students of gender and women's studies cultural studies racial and ethnic studies religious studies and an educated public interested in understanding the challenges and possibilities of tackling both racism and the oppression of women
