Happy Ending Kathryn Robson, 2025-02-04 Happiness and the question of how to define measure and facilitate it has become a key theme in political economic and social discourses in recent decades in France and elsewhere yet research on happiness in French culture and film has been limited Given that happiness is clearly gendered this book looks critically at the ways in which contemporary French women s writing and film give voice to and critique conceptions of happiness Analysing French and francophone women s writing including Nina Bouraoui H l ne Cixous Annie Ernaux Camille Laurens Le la Slimani Delphine de Vigan and film including Claire Denis C line Sciamma and Agn s Varda I focus on five main areas images of happiness in consumer and Internet culture happiness and intimacy in the family and the home queering happiness migrated happiness and happiness and ageing Whilst the happiness turn is problematic the desire for happiness however fraught matters and I show how representations of happiness in contemporary French women s writing and film offer alternative conceptions of happiness that enable us to rethink happiness in more critical diverse and inclusive terms

Beyond Virtue Liz Jackson, 2020-11-05 Based on psychological political and sociological research this book offers insights on how to educate young people about emotions The Wellbeing of Women in Entrepreneurship Maria-Teresa Lepeley, Katherina Kuschel, Nicholas Beutell, Nicky Pouw, Emiel L. Eijdenberg, 2019-07-01 Women accomplish nearly two thirds of total work around the world including household duties comprise one third of the formal labor force but women receive one tenth of the world s income and own only one hundredth of the world s property Entrepreneurship is a vehicle for advancing the lives of women around the world This book brings together 49 distinguished entrepreneurship scholars to provide a unique global vision of the wellbeing of women entrepreneurs necessary for fostering sustainable development and inclusive societies Although gender inequality is an important issue solutions leading to gender parity are far from reaching ideal levels in the formal workplace and globally. Meanwhile the number of women involved in entrepreneurship is growing exponentially because there are more opportunities for women to own a business and be their own boss. This offers women the most desirable and flexible working conditions that better align with women's lifestyles and multiple family responsibilities. However, entrepreneurial activities are demanding and complex compared to men; women face special challenges that deserve close attention. This book presents research and programs to effectively support women entrepreneurs in reaching levels of wellbeing required to ensure business sustainability and personal prosperity. Offering a diversity of perspectives from around the globe, The Wellbeing of Women in Entrepreneurship is of great interest to academics and practitioners working in teaching and research in disciplines including business management, entrepreneurship, organizational change, human-centered management, human resources, sustainable development, and women's studies.

Next-Level Negotiating (HBR Women at Work Series) Harvard Business Review, Amy Gallo, Deborah M. Kolb, Suzanne de Janasz, Deepa Purushothaman, 2022-12-13. Build trust and create more value. Whether you're negotiating a salary, a deal with a supplier, or your workload, thoughtful preparation increases your confidence, resilience, and results. But it's not just numbers and strategies. Advocating for yourself, your team, and your business can feel personal, so you also need to manage the emotions that arise during the process. Next Level Negotiating provides the research, advice, and practical tips you need to counter the harmful stereotypes about women and negotiation, to communicate clearly who you are and what you need. Establish trust with your counterpart and face negotiations of any size with curiosity, creativity, and a collaborative mindset. All the essentials to successfully seal a deal. This book will inspire you to set a clear target and imagine alternatives. Consider your counterpart's context and perspective. Manage the emotions in the room. Strike a deal that works for you. The HBR Women at Work Series spotlights the real challenges and opportunities women experience throughout their careers. With interviews from the popular podcast of the same name and related articles, stories, and research, these books provide inspiration and advice for taking on topics at work like inequity, advancement, and building community. Featuring detailed discussion guides, this series will help you spark important conversations about where we're at and how to move forward.

Well-being in Belgium

Bart Capéau, Laurens Cherchye, Koen Decancq, André Decoster, Bram De Rock, François Maniquet, Annemie Nys, Guillaume Périlleux, Eve Ramaekers, Zoé Rongé, Erik Schokkaert, Frederic Vermeulen, 2020-10-09 What constitutes a good life For most people well being involves more than a high income or material prosperity alone Many non material aspects such as health family life living environment job quality and the meaningful use of time are at least as important Together these factors also influence the degree to which people are satisfied with their lives and help to determine how happy they feel This book argues that happiness and life satisfaction do not form a good basis for measuring well being and proposes an alternative method that not only considers the various aspects of well being but also the fact that people have their own views on what is important in life Not limited just to theory the book also presents a large scale representative survey involving more than 3000 adults from over 2000 Belgian families which charted the various aspects of the individual well being of Belgians Focusing on the unequal distribution of these various aspects of well being within families the survey showed that some Belgians are more likely to suffer from cumulative deprivation in multiple dimensions Based on this innovative study the book describes which people in society are worst off and these are not necessarily only people on low incomes or those who feel unhappy and proposes that policymakers prioritise these individuals
