Beyond Regionalism? Matteo Legrenzi, 2016-04-15 Regional cooperation regionalism and regionalization in the Middle East are usually considered to be weak and rather ceremonial However since September 11 2001 a new regional order is emerging and the impact of geostrategic changes in the international environment has yet to be satisfactorily studied With older regional organizations suffering from weaknesses new forms appear to be developing and flourishing due either to European support or growing sub regional identities This volume offers refined theoretical models and approaches which are attuned to the new dynamics and contradictions of a wide range of regionalist projects in the contemporary Middle East Case studies of the most important regional organizations in different policy fields offer comprehensive overviews of the main actors institutions historical development and current issues The EU and World Regionalism Dr Michael Schulz, Dr Philippe De Lombaerde, 2013-03-28 Much has been said about the driving forces of region building processes or regionalization worldwide yet few systematic and comparative studies have been conducted on how regions can contribute to the building of other regions and more concretely how the European Union has pushed for regionalization worldwide This comparative book investigates the impact that the EU has on regionalization elsewhere through its inter regional relations Covering agriculture trade ASEAN NAFTA MERCOSUR and Commonwealth amongst other topics it investigates whether the EU contributes directly as well as indirectly to increased regional integration in different parts of the world Clash or Cooperation of Civilizations? Dr Wolfgang Zank, 2013-03-28 For decades North Africa and the Middle East have experienced overlapping identities and integration processes With the exception of Morocco the countries of North Africa have supported the re launch of pan Africanism in the form of the African Union and its growing institutionalization but they also share an Arab identity and are members of the Arab League Islamism commands wide support among the regions of North Africa and the Middle East and the impact of European integration can increasingly be seen in varying forms This comprehensive volume focuses on overlapping identities and integration processes in the Mediterranean basin and queries to what extent these various identities and integration processes are compatible or in conflict Incorporating both theoretical and empirical material it unites contributions from a variety of countries thus exploring these issues from different perspectives Our North America Julián Castro-Rea, 2016-05-23 What we call North America today is a human space that has been constructed over the centuries perceived from time immemorial by its original inhabitants as a unified whole and named Turtle Island What is North America today Is it more than the sum of its parts Does it qualify as a distinct global region Is it just a market or also something else This book explores several neglected aspects of the key relationships between Canada Mexico and the United States Studies of societal relations in North America have typically been limited to trade investment and intergovernmental relations In contrast the authors in this book address other vital issues which bind this global region together including Indigenous peoples security migration civil societies democracy identities and culture Via a thorough examination of these issues the historical sociological economic and political aspects of regional linkages are highlighted Rather than dealing with each country in isolation each chapter in this collection considers North America as a single unit of analysis therefore systematically addressing the regional dynamic as a whole and engaging the country specific differences in a truly comparative way By providing the analytical tools needed this important book makes sense of the different aspects of the complex societies of contemporary North America
