Beyond The Global Capitalist Crisis Globalization Crises And Change:

Beyond the Global Capitalist Crisis Berch Berberoglu, 2012 Sheds light on the inner workings of global capitalism and the capitalist globalization process that has led to the growth and development of capitalism from the national to the global level with all its fundamental internal dynamics and contradictions operating on a world scale from publisher Beyond the Global Capitalist Crisis Berch Berberoglu, 2016-04-15 The deep economic recession that has occurred in all major sectors of the U S and global economy is a manifestation of the underlying contradictions of the capitalist system that has resulted in the accumulation of vast fortunes on one side and impoverishment debt and destitution on the other In short the crisis of global capitalism is the result of the immense disparities in wealth and income and a consequent widening gap between capital and labor This ground breaking book brings together a team of experts on the contemporary global capitalist political economy who are able to shed light on the inner workings of global capitalism and the capitalist globalization process that has led to the growth and development of capitalism from the national to the global level with all its fundamental internal dynamics and contradictions operating on a world scale It will make an important contribution to understanding the underlying causes of the current global economic crisis and show the way out of this crisis by way of a powerful critique of the global capitalist system that will ultimately go through a major economic political and social transformation Analysis of the global capitalist crisis raises questions regarding the process of capitalist globalization especially now that neoliberal economic policies have failed Does this signal the end of capitalist globalization and the collapse of the global capitalist system This book will take up these questions and entertain the possibility of a new beginning in the global political economy through an analysis of the next period of post capitalist developments worldwide that may set the stage for the rise of socialism across the globe The Global Capitalist Crisis and Its Aftermath Professor Berch Berberoglu, 2014-10-28 Written by a team of experts on the contemporary global capitalist political economy this ground breaking volume provides critical analyses of the causes and consequences of the Great Recession of 2008 2009 Through a careful examination of the origin development and aftermath of the catastrophic economic crisis editor Berch Berberoglu and his colleagues demonstrate that those most responsible for the economic collapse are the ones least affected by its devastating impact The Global Capitalist Crisis and Its Aftermath Berch Berberoglu, 2016-12-05 Written by a team of experts on the contemporary global capitalist political economy who are able to shed light on the inner workings of global capitalism and the capitalist globalization process that has led to the growth and development of capitalism from the national to the global level this groundbreaking volume provides critical analyses of the causes and consequences of the Great Recession of 2008 2009 Through a careful examination of the origin development and aftermath of the catastrophic economic crisis from which the world is still trying to recover editor Berch Berberoglu and his colleagues demonstrate that those most responsible for the economic collapse are the ones least affected by its devastating impact felt most severely by working people around the world Ultimately this book argues that it is only through the systematic restructuring of the world economy by the working class that society will be able to prevent the boom and bust cycle of global capitalist crises and usher in a more egalitarian socialist economy and society      Beyond Neoliberalism James Petras, Henry Veltmeyer, 2016-04-15 The world is at the crossroads of social change in the vortex of forces that are bringing about a different world a post neoliberal state This groundbreaking book lays out an analysis of the dynamics and contradictions of capitalism in the twenty first century These dynamics of forces are traced out in developments across the world in the Arab Spring of North Africa and the Middle East in Cuba and elsewhere in Latin America in the United States and in Asia The forces released by a system in crisis can be mobilized in different ways and directions The focus of the book is on the strategic responses to the systemic crisis As the authors tell it these dynamics concern three worldviews and strategic responses The Davos Consensus focuses on the virtues of the free market and deregulated capitalism as it represents the interests of the global ruling class The post Washington Consensus concerns the need to give capital a human face and establish a more inclusive form of development and global governance In addition to these two visions of the future and projects the authors identify an emerging radical consensus on the need to move beyond capitalism as well as neoliberalism

Imperialism and Capitalism in the Twenty-First Century James Petras, Henry Veltmeyer, Humberto Márquez, 2016-05-13 We live in a time of dynamic but generally regressive regime change a period in which major political transformations and a rollback of a half century of legislation are accelerated under conditions of a prolonged and deepening economic crisis and a worldwide offensive against the citizenry and the working class Written by two of the world s leading left wing thinkers Imperialism and Capitalism in the Twenty First Century takes the form of a number of analytical probes into some of the dynamics of capitalist development and imperialism in contemporary conditions of a system in crisis It is too early to be definitive about the form that capitalism and imperialism and socialism might be or is taking as we are in but the early stages of a new developmental dynamic the conditions of which are too complex to anticipate or grasp in thought they require a closer look and much further study from a critical development and Marxist perspective The purpose of this book is to advance this process and give some form to this perspective      Economics and Climate Emergency Barry Gills, Jamie Morgan, 2022-08-22 This book explores a series of connected themes focused on the role economics and other influential forms of theory and thinking have played in creating the current predicament and the scope for alternatives and how they might be framed Thirty years have passed since the inception of the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change UNFCCC and the beginning of policy on climate change Thirty wasted years To most politicians long term collective interest has been denominated in meaningless units of time a never and forever that has continually delayed action From complacency has come potential disaster and we are now living in a time of climate emergency and ecological breakdown The next decade is a pivotal period requiring fundamental change But numerous impediments remain Continual material energy and economic growth on a planetary scale are manifestly impossible and yet economic theory takes these as a given and political leadership and policy seem unwilling to accept brute reality. Instead they offer a series of implausible commitments and pledges rooted in technofixes without addressing the fundamental drivers of the problems the world faces. The edited volume explores the issues and offers a variety of ways to think through the problems at hand from postgrowth degrowth and social ecological economics to policy assemblage and transversalism. The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Globalizations.

Political Economy and Globalization Richard Westra, 2009-09-30. Based upon distinguishing capitalism from other economic systems as well as analysis of capitalist change across its stages of development, Richard Westra argues that the economic tendencies we refer to as globalization constitute a world historic transition away from capitalism. Westra forcefully rejects claims from both Right and Left sides of economic debate that globalization embodies the ultimate world diffusion of capitalism. He concludes that the choice facing humanity is no longer between capitalism and socialism but between socialism and global barbarism. The argument is meticulously interwoven through four key foci of political economy: The role of Marx's Capital in producing knowledge of capitalism; The periodizing of capitalism and study of its historical models; The altering trajectories of production and finance under current globalization; The place of socialism in a progressive future. A central point of the book is that determinations over the capitalist substance of existing economies demand precise understanding of how in its basic operation capitalism manages to secure the economic reproducibility of human society in the first place. To make the case for the passing of capitalism from history, the volume draws upon the novel Japanese Uno approach to Marxian political economy. From the pages of Political Economy and Globalization emerges a grim picture of our human future should current economic trends persist. It also offers a positive vision for socio-material betterment in redistributive eco-sensitive socialist societies of tomorrow. This is a must-read book for scholars, students, progressive policy makers and activists.

Political Economy and Global Capitalism Robert Albritton, Bob Jessop, Richard Westra, 2010. This volume brings together original and timely writings by internationally renowned scholars that reflect on the current trajectories of global capitalism and in the light of these consider likely possible or desirable futures. It offers theory-informed writing that contextualizes empirical research on current world historic events and trends with an eye towards realizing a future of human social and economic betterment.

Globalization in Crisis Barry K. Gills, 2013-09-13. This book analyses the present global financial and economic crisis, the most severe in nearly a century and a wider set of multiple and converging crises with aspects and repercussions that go well beyond the current economic climate. Written by some of the world's leading international scholars in the field of Globalization studies and related disciplines, this important collection addresses numerous key aspects of the relationship between Globalization and global crises past, present and future. It sheds new light and understanding on the concept and theory of Globalization and of crisis. The authors explore such issues as global finance and financial regulation, neoliberal ideology and policy, the crisis of globalization the decline of Western hegemony world systemic crisis the moral crisis of Western capitalism environmental and climate change crises world order hyper violence and the international system a crisis of the global modern and a global civilisational and hostpric crisis the rise of the global South the historical dialectics of capital and social responses to crisis the future of capitalism and the prospects for transformative alternatives This book was published as a special issue of Globalizations Globalization Prof. Manfred B. Steger,2023-12-04 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Since the end of the Cold War globalization the process and the idea has been reshaping the world Global studies scholarship has emerged to make sense of the transnational manifestations of globalization economic social cultural ideological technological environmental and postcolonial But a series of crises in the first two decades of the twenty first century has put the neoliberal globalization system of the 1990s under severe strain Are we witnessing a turn toward deglobalization intensified by the COVID 19 pandemic and the war in Ukraine or a moment of reglobalization spearheaded by digital technology The contributors to this book employ transdisciplinary research to assess past developments the current state and future trajectories of globalization in light of today s dynamics of insecurity volatility and geopolitical tensions

Reducing Inequalities Rémi Genevey,R. K. Pachauri,Laurence Tubiana,2013-01-01 The reduction of inequalities within and between countries stands as a policy goal and deserves to take centre stage in the design of the Sustainable Development Goals agreed during the Rio 20 Summit in 2012 The 2013 edition of A Planet for Life represents a unique international initiative grounded on conceptual and strategic thinking and most importantly empirical experiments conducted on five continents and touching on multiple realities This unprecedented collection of works proposes a solid empirical approach rather than an ideological one to inform future debate The case studies collected in this volume demonstrate the complexity of the new systems required to accommodate each country s specific economic political and cultural realities These systems combine technical financial legal fiscal and organizational elements with a great deal of applied expertise and are articulated within a clear well understood growth and job generating development strategy Inequality reduction does not occur by decree neither does it automatically arise through economic growth nor through policies that equalize incomes downward via ill conceived fiscal policies Inequality reduction involves a collaborative effort that must motivate all concerned parties one that constitutes a genuine political and social innovation and one that often runs counter to prevailing political and economic forces

Time, Climate Change, Global Racial Capitalism and Decolonial Planetary Ecologies Anna M. Agathangelou,Kyle D. Killian,2022-06-23 This book probes the interconnections of time and ecology in order to spark our imagination and inspire us to re think the planetary ecology and otherwise It presents debates that interrogate and elucidate the anxieties of the known and the unknown of this world and the planetary beyond sifting through temporal accounts of the Anthropocene human beings and climate change The chapters in this edited volume spur conversations with different thought systems and their underlying assumptions about the composition of structures of time and contingent temporalities The authors engage rising temperatures in the oceans and air the consequences intended and unintended of investments in various forms of development and the potential catastrophe unfolding in real time Recent temporal strategies such as mitigation and adaptation to the climate crisis are challenged as they further compound and commodify the inquiry the understanding and responses to environmental degradations extractions and displacements Anti colonial and decolonial debates about the structures of time the planetary and ecology are crucial contributions of this volume Further privileging the vantage points of the colonized and enslaved the authors of this volume challenge dominant universal cyclical and retrospective structures of time and the planetary Through research poetry art and popular cultural analyses the authors attend to the ways that the struggles of the submerged indigenous and black communities for climate justice become coded as a global warming crisis This volume grapples with how racial climate struggles and unrest become mobilized both as a source of paralysis and as an opportunity for further expropriation and expansion of data accumulation markets for settler planetary projects all in the name of global warming Ultimately the authors in this volume argue that conventional attempts at exploiting the planetary all depend upon ideas of conquest and the mastery and control of ecologies global governance and individual behaviors In this sense fears about the unknown future of our planet miss what is at stake in the structures of time the question of creation and invention The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Globalizations

Time, Communication and Global Capitalism Wayne Hope, 2016-04-08 In this book Wayne Hope analyzes the double relation between time and global capitalism In order to do this he cross relates four epistemes of time epochality time reckoning temporality and coevalness with four materializations of time hegemony conflict crisis and rupture Using this framework allows Hope to argue that global capitalism is epochally distinctive riven by time conflicts prone to recurring crises and vulnerable to collective opposition These critical insights are not easily thematized in a mediated world of real time reflexivity detemporalized presentism and denials of coevalness associated with structural exclusions of the poor However the worldwide repercussions of the 2008 financial collapse and the resulting confluence of occupation movements riots protests strike activity and anti austerity activism raises the prospect of a rupture within and beyond global capitalism

The Rise of the Global Economy Michael Veseth, 2002 This volume is a comprehensive collection of critical essays on The Taming of the Shrew and includes extensive discussions of the play's various printed versions and its theatrical productions Aspinall has included only those essays that offer the most influential and controversial arguments surrounding the play The issues discussed include gender authority female autonomy and unruliness courtship and marriage language and speech and performance and theatricality

Routledge Encyclopedia of International Political Economy R. J. Barry Jones, 2002-09-11 This three volume Encyclopedia offers the first comprehensive and authoritative survey of the rapidly developing field of international political economy Its entries cover the major theoretical issues and analytical approaches within the field The set also provides detailed discussion of the contributions of key individuals and surveys a wide range of empirical conditions and developments within the global political economy including its major institutions The Encyclopedia has been designed to be eclectic in approach and wide ranging in coverage Theoretical entries range from discussions of the definition and scope of the field through core methodological questions such as rationalism and the structure agent problem to surveys of the major theories and approaches employed in the study of the international political economy

Japan's Secular Stagnation and Beyond Radhika Desai,Makoto Itoh,Nobuharu Yokokawa,2023-05-15 This book re visits the phenomenon of Japanese secular stagnation in light of the fate of the North Atlantic and developing economies and places it in a longer historical political and geopolitical economy of capitalism from a variety of political and disciplinary perspectives Japanese capitalism which was once an admired model of miraculous growth with a relatively egalitarian distribution of income fell into secular stagnation in the early 1990s The phenomenon has since fascinated observers provoked debates provided policy advocates with grist for the mills of a range of policy proposals some of them mutually contradictory and most importantly burdened an entire population and particularly its young Japan s secular stagnation has raised new questions about policy difficulties on a range of fronts dramatically lowered growth rate despite comparatively high investment deteriorating labor conditions rising class and gender inequality a profound and many faceted crisis of social reproduction and a deepening fiscal crisis of the state all of which have important international ramifications Moreover interest in and the importance of Japan s secular stagnation grew rapidly after 2008 as many have sought to understand the economic malaise of the North Atlantic by analogy and comparison with all or parts of the Japanese condition The introduction and chapters in this book attempt to understand the causes character and consequence of that original affliction They also reflect on the meaning of Japan s secular stagnation at this stage of development capitalism The result contains the key to understanding the more widespread economic malaise of our time This book will be a beneficial read for researchers and scholars of Economics and Politics interested in Japanese Studies as well as the Japanese political economy Most of the chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of The Japanese Political Economy The last chapter was originally published in the Journal of Contemporary Asia

Fifty Key Thinkers on Globalization William Coleman,Alina Sajed,2013-06-26 Fifty Key Thinkers on Globalization is an outstanding guide to often encountered thinkers whose ideas have shaped defined and influenced this new and rapidly growing field The authors clearly and lucidly survey the life work and impact of fifty of the most important theorists of globalization including Manuel Castells Joseph Stiglitz David Held Jan Aart Scholte Each thinker s contribution to the field is evaluated and assessed and each entry includes a helpful guide to further reading Fully cross referenced throughout this remarkable reference guide is essential reading for students of politics and international relations economics sociology history anthropology and literary studies

College for Sale Wesley Shumar,1997 This text analyses higher education in the US and other western countries since the 1970s whereby market place logic has influenced the education system It describes the transformation of US universities as they attempt to accommodate the changes on their own and their students academic lives     The Essential Guide to Critical Development Studies Henry Veltmeyer,Paul Bowles,2017-07-20 In recent years much mainstream development discourse has sought to co-opt and neutralize key concepts relating to empowerment participation gender sustainability and inclusivity in order to serve a market driven neoliberal agenda Critical development studies now play a crucial role in combatting this by analyzing the systemic changes needed to transform the current world to one where economic and social justice and environmental integrity prevail The Essential Guide to Critical Development Studies takes as its starting point the multiple crises economic political social and environmental of the dominant current global capitalist system The chapters collectively document and analyze these crises and the need to find alternatives to the system s that generate them To do so analyses of class gender and empire are placed at the centre of discussion in contrast to markets liberalization and convergence which characterize mainstream development discourse Each contributor supplements their overview with a guide to the critical development studies literature on the topic thereby providing scholars and students not only with a precis of the key issues but also a signpost to further readings This is an important resource for academics researchers policymakers and professionals in the areas of development studies political science sociology economics gender studies history anthropology agrarian studies international relations and international political economy
