Jihadism in the Russian-Speaking World Danis Garaev, 2022-08-29 This book contends that the discourses of jihadism in Russia s North Caucasus and their offshoots in other parts of the Russian Federation are not just reflections of jihadi ideologies that came from abroad rather that post Soviet jihadism is a phenomenon best understood when placed in the broader cultural environment in which it emerged an environment which comprises the North Caucasus the whole of Russia and beyond It examines how post Soviet jihadism is also part of global processes in this case global jihadism explores how post Soviet jihadism bears the imprint of the preceding Soviet context especially in terms of symbols discursive tools interpretational frameworks and dissemination strategies and discusses how ironically Russian speaking jihadism is an expansionist idea for uniting all Russian regions on a supra ethnic principle but an idea that was not born in Moscow or St Petersburg Overall the book demonstrates that Russian speaking jihadism is a completely new ideology which nevertheless has its origins in the intellectual and cultural heritage of the Soviet era and in the broader trends of post Soviet society and culture Bichaq Combat.
