This World We Live In Last Survivors 3 By Susan Beth Pfeffer:

Contemporary Dystopian Fiction for Young Adults Balaka Basu, Katherine R. Broad, Carrie Hintz, 2013-05-02 Winner of the Children's Literature Association Edited Book Award From the jaded wired teenagers of M T Anderson's Feed to the spirited young rebels of Suzanne Collins' The Hunger Games trilogy the protagonists of Young Adult dystopias are introducing a new generation of readers to the pleasures and challenges of dystopian imaginings As the dark universes of YA dystopias continue to flood the market Contemporary Dystopian Fiction for Young Adults Brave New Teenagers offers a critical evaluation of the literary and political potentials of this widespread publishing phenomenon With its capacity to frighten and warn dystopian writing powerfully engages with our pressing global concerns liberty and self determination environmental destruction and looming catastrophe questions of identity and justice and the increasingly fragile boundaries between technology and the self When directed at young readers these dystopian warnings are distilled into exciting adventures with gripping plots and accessible messages that may have the potential to motivate a generation on the cusp of adulthood This collection enacts a lively debate about the goals and efficacy of YA dystopias with three major areas of contention do these texts reinscribe an old didacticism or offer an exciting new frontier in children's literature Do their political critiques represent conservative or radical ideologies And finally are these novels high minded attempts to educate the young or simply bids to cash in on a formula for commercial success This collection represents a prismatic and evolving understanding of the genre illuminating its relevance to children's literature and our wider culture Girls on Fire Sarah

Hentges, 2018-04-04 Under the threat of climate change corruption inequality and injustice Americans may feel they are living in a dystopian novel come to life Like many American narratives dystopian stories often focus on males as the agents of social change With a focus on the intersections of race gender class sexuality and power the author analyzes the themes issues and characters in young adult YA dystopian fiction featuring female protagonists the Girls on Fire who inspire progressive transformation for the future Postapocalyptic Fiction and the Social Contract Claire P. Curtis, 2010-07-17

Postapocalyptic Fiction and the Social Contract We'll Not Go Home Again provides a framework for our fascination with the apocalyptic events The popular appeal of the end of the world genre is clear in movies novels and television shows Even our political debates over global warming nuclear threats and pandemic disease reflect a concern about the possibility of such events This popular fascination is really a fascination with survival how can we come out alive And what would we do next The end of the world is not about species death but about beginning again This book uses postapocalyptic fiction as a terrain for thinking about the state of nature the hypothetical fiction that is the driving force behind the social contract The first half of the book examines novels that tell the story of the move from the state of nature to civil society through a Hobbesian a Lockean or a Rousseauian lens including Lucifer's Hammer by Larry Niven and Jerry Pournelle Alas Babylon by Pat Frank Malevil by Robert Merle and Into the Forest by Jean Hegland The latter half of the book examines Octavia Butler's postapocalyptic Parable series in which a new kind of social contract emerges one built on the fact of human dependence and vulnerability Teen Genreflecting Sarah Flowers, Samuel Stavole-Carter, 2020-09-08 Teen Genreflecting serves as a guide to contemporary teen fiction encompassing every genre and format including graphic novels scrapbook formatted books verse novels historical fiction speculative fiction contemporary realistic fiction and more Teen literature is one of the most popular and quickly growing segments of the publishing world Not only are teens continuing to read for pleasure but many adults have discovered the joys of teen literature As part of the Genreflecting Advisory Series Teen Genreflecting provides librarians with a road map to the vibrant and diverse body of literature focusing on recent fiction for teens organizing and describing some 1 300 titles most published within the past ten years along with perennial classics The authors indicate where each title fits in the genre scheme its subject matter format and general reading level and any pertinent awards They also provide advice on readers advisory services to teens descriptions of genres and subgenres and lists of favorites for each genre As with previous editions this guide will prove invaluable to librarians building their teen collections and will help them assist teens in finding the books they love no matter what genre Blast, Corrupt, Dismantle, Erase Brett Josef Grubisic, Gisèle M. Baxter, Tara Lee, 2014-06-16 What do literary dystopias reflect about the times In Blast Corrupt Dismantle Erase contributors address this amorphous but pervasive genre using diverse critical methodologies to examine how North America is conveyed or portrayed in a perceived age of crisis accelerated uncertainty and political volatility Drawing from contemporary novels such as Cormac McCarthy's The Road Neil Gaiman's American Gods and the work of Margaret Atwood and William Gibson to name a few this book examines dystopian literature produced by North American authors between the signing of NAFTA 1994 and the tenth anniversary of 9 11 2011 As the texts illustrate awareness of and deep concern about perceived vulnerabilities ends of water oil food capitalism empires stable climates ways of life non human species and entire human civilizations have become central to public discourse over the same period By asking questions such as What are the distinctive qualities of post NAFTA North American dystopian literature and What does this literature reflect about the tensions and contradictions of the inchoate continental community of North America Blast Corrupt Dismantle Erase serves to resituate dystopian writing within a particular geo social setting and introduce a productive means to understand both North American dystopian writing and its relevant engagements with a restricted mapped reality Citizenship, Law and Literature Caroline Koegler, Jesper Reddig, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2021-10-25 This edited volume is the first to focus on how concepts of citizenship diversify and stimulate the long standing field of law and literature and vice versa Building on existing research in law and literature as well as literature and citizenship studies the collection approaches the triangular relationship between citizenship law and literature from a variety of disciplinary conceptual and political perspectives with particular emphasis on the performative aspect inherent in any type of social expression and cultural artefact The sixteen chapters in this volume present literature as carrying multifarious at times opposing energies and impulses in relation to citizenship These range from providing discursive arenas for consolidating challenging and re negotiating citizenship to directly interfering with or inspiring processes of law making and governance The volume opens up new possibilities for the scholarly understanding of citizenship along two axes Citizenship as Literature Enacting Citizenship and Citizenship in Literature Conceptualising Citizenship
