Envy and Gratitude and Other Works 1946-1963 Melanie Klein, 1997 This text collects Melanie Klein's writings from 1946 until her death in 1960 including two papers published posthumously This was her last major work which introduces her theory of primary envy

Envy And Gratitude And Other Works 1946-1963 Melanie Klein, 2011-02-28 A perfect introduction to Melanie Klein's modern neuroscientific research Melanie Klein's writings particularly on infant development and psychosis have been crucial both to theoretical work and to clinical practice Envy and Gratitude collects her writings from 1946 until her death in 1960 including two papers published posthumously Klein's major paper Notes on Some Schizoid Mechanisms introduces the concept of the paranoid schizoid position in which the infant ego splits projects and introjects its objects most particularly the mother during the first few months of life Envy and Gratitude her last major work introduces her theory of primary envy

Regarding Sedgwick Stephen M. Barber, David L. Clark, 2013-08-21 Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick is one of the most important figures in the history of modern gender studies This book which features an interview with Sedgwick is a collection of new essays by established scholars

The Gendered Unconscious Louise Gylter, 2010-04-23 Feminist interventions in psychoanalysis have often attempted either to subvert or re frame the masculinist and phallogocentric biases of Freud's psychoanalysis This book investigates the nature of these interventions by comparing the status and treatment of women in two different psychoanalytic models the Kleinian and the feminist models It argues that in fact these interventions have historically tended to reinforce such biases by collapsing the distinction between the gendered minds of individuals and theories of gender This investigation is framed by two steps First in assessing the position of women and the feminine in psychoanalysis The Gendered Unconscious explores not only the ways they are represented in theory but also how these representations function in practice Secondly this book uses a framework of a comparative dialogue to highlight the assumptions and values that underpin the theory and clinical practice in the two psychoanalytic models This comparative critique concludes with the counter intuitive claim that contemporary Kleinian theory may in practice hold more radical possibilities for the interests of women than the practices derived from contemporary psychoanalytic gender theory This book is of significant interest to those studying the psychology of women psychoanalytic studies health psychology sociology gender studies and cultural studies It will also be of interest to clinicians and candidates of professional psychotherapy and psychoanalytic training programmes

Marxism and Human Nature Sean Sayers, Ordinary People and Extra-ordinary Protections Judith L. Mitrani, 2009-03-04 Many people come to analysis appearing quite ordinary on the surface However once below that surface we often come into contact with something quite unexpected extra ordinary protections created to keep at bay any awareness of deeply traumatic happenings occurring at some point in life Judith Mitrani investigates the development and the function of these protections allowing the reader to witness the evolution of the process of transformation wherein defensiveness steadily mutates into communication She lucidly and artfully weaves detailed clinical with a variety of analytic concepts and her original notions including unmentalized experience and its expression in enactments adhesive pseudo object relations and the way in which this contracts and compares with normal and narcissistic object relations provide valuable tools for understanding the infantile transference countertransference and for the refinement of our technique with primitive mental states Ordinary People and Extra Ordinary Protections will prove stimulating and accessible in its style and substance to a broad analytic readership from the serious student of psychoanalysis to the most seasoned professional Echoes of the Tambaran Paul Roscoe, David Lipset, 2011-10-01 In the Sepik Basin of Papua New Guinea ritual culture was dominated by the Tambaran a male tutelary spirit that acted as a social and intellectual guardian or patron to those under its aegis as they made their way through life To Melanesian scholarship the cultural and psychological anthropologist Donald F Tuzin was something of a Tambaran a figure whose brilliant and fine grained ethnographic project in the Arapesh village of Ilahita was immensely influential within and beyond New Guinea anthropology Tuzin died in 2007 at the age of 61 In his memory the editors of this collection commissioned a set of original and thought provoking essays from eminent and accomplished anthropologists who knew and were influenced by his work They are echoes of the Tambaran The anthology begins with a biographical sketch of Tuzin s life and scholarship It is divided into four sections each of which focuses loosely around one of his preoccupations The first concerns warfare history the male cult and changing masculinity all in Melanesia The second addresses the relationship between actor and structure Here the ethnographic focus momentarily shifts to the Caribbean before turning back to Papua new Guinea in essays that examine uncanny phenomena narratives about childhood and messianic promises The third part goes on to offer comparative and psychoanalytic perspectives on the subject in Fiji Bali the Amazon as well as Melanesia Appropriately the last section concludes with essays on Tuzin s fieldwork style and his distinctive authorial voice Immaterial Facts Robert Caper, 2014-03-18 First published in 1999 Shows how Melanie Klein s studies of sexuality aggression unconscious phantasy and identification in children extended and corrected Freud s theories of the development of the superego and early stages of the Oedipus complex Real People, Real Problems, Real Solutions Robert Waska, 2013-02-01 Real People Real Problems Real Solutions offers a clear introduction to psychoanalytic practice from a Kleinian perspective and shows how the modern Kleinian works with the most taxing and least conforming of their patients Illustrated by extensive case material this book reviews Freud s original theoretical concepts and examines Klein s contributions to the field of psychoanalysis clarifying and comparing the two approaches in the clinical setting identifies and explores who makes up the psychoanalyst s most challenging case load and demonstrates how the Kleinian psychoanalytic approach is helpful to these individuals discusses the current state of traditional methods of training at psychoanalytic institutes which are shown to be in need of renewal and critical restructuring Real People Real Problems Real Solutions shows how the average psychoanalyst and psychotherapist face many difficult patients in a typical days work Together with its questioning of what really constitutes psychoanalytic therapy this is a refreshing read for all practising and training psychoanalysts and psychotherapists Race, Colour and the Processes of Racialization Farhad Dalal, 2013-05-13 Is racial conflict determined by biology or society So many conflicts appear to be caused by racial and ethnic differences for example the cities of Britain and America are regularly affected by race riots It is argued by socio biologists and some schools of psychoanalysis that our instincts are programmed to hate those different to us by evolutionary and developmental mechanisms This book argues against this line proposing an alternative drawing on insights from diverse disciplines including anthropology social psychology and linguistics to give power relations a critical explanatory role in the generation of hatreds Farhad Dalal argues that people differentiate between races in order to make a distinction between the haves and must not haves and that this process is cognitive emotional and political rather than biological Examining the subject over the past thousand years Race Colour and the Processes of Racialisation covers psychoanalytic and other theories of racism a new theorisation of racism based on group analytic theory a general theory of difference based on the works of Fanon Elias Matte Blanco and Foulkes application of this theory to race and racism Farhad Dalal concludes that the structures of society are reflected in the structures of the psyche and both of these are colour coded This book will be invaluable to students academics and practitioners in the areas of psychoanalysis group analysis psychotherapy and counselling Transpersonal Psychology in Psychoanalytic Perspective Michael Washburn, 1994-07-01 In this book Michael Washburn provides a psychoanalytic foundation for transpersonal psychology Using psychoanalytic theory Washburn explains how ego development both prepares for and creates obstacles to ego transcendence Spiritual development he proposes can be properly understood only in terms of the ego development that precedes it For example many difficulties encountered in spiritual development can be traced to repressive underpinnings of ego development and significant gender differences in spiritual development can be traced to corresponding gender differences that emerge during ego development Washburn draws on a wide range of psychoanalytic perspectives in discussing ego development and uses both Eastern and Western sources in discussing spiritual development In rethinking transpersonal psychology in psychoanalytic terms he explains how essential elements of Jungian thought can be grounded in psychoanalytic theory

The Collapse of the Self and Its Therapeutic Restoration Rochelle G. K. Kainer, 2013-06-17 The Collapse of the Self and Its Therapeutic Restoration is a rich and clinically detailed account of the therapeutic restoration of the self and speaks to the healing process for analysts themselves that follows from Rochelle Kainer's sensitive integration of heretofore dissociated realms of psychoanalytic theory In describing how the reworking of pathological internal object relationships occurs in conjunction with the transformation of selfobject failures Kainer brings new insight to bear on the healing of the self at the same time as she contributes to healing the historic split in psychoanalysis between Kleinian theory and self psychology Extensive case illustrations refracted through the lens of her uniquely integrative perspective bring refreshing clarity to elusive theoretical concepts Of special note is Kainer's distinction between normal and pathological identifications Equally valuable is her introduction of the term imaginative empathy to characterize the kind of attunement that is integral to analytic healing her nuanced description of the relation between imaginative empathy and projective identification bridges the worlds of Kleinian theory and self psychology in an original and compelling way She ends by spelling out how her theoretical viewpoint leads to a more comprehensive understanding of various clinical phenomena The Collapse of the Self and Its Therapeutic Restoration is a sophisticated yet accessible work gracefully written that elaborates a relational theory of thinking of creativity of identification and of the formation and healing of psychic structure Kainer s ability to bring the often dissonant voices of different psychoanalytic schools into theoretical harmony as she develops her viewpoint conveys both the breadth of intellectual engagement with colleagues and the depth of clinical engagement with patients that inform her project from beginning to end

Bion in Film Theory and Analysis Carla Ambrósio Garcia,2016-12-01 In Bion in Film Theory and Analysis The Retreat in Film Carla Ambrósio Garcia introduces the rich potential of the thinking of British psychoanalyst Wilfred Bion for film theory By so doing she rethinks the space of the cinema as a space of retreat and brings new insights into the representation of retreat in film Presented in two parts the book seeks to deepen our understanding of the film experience and psychical growth Part I places Bion s view on the importance of the epistemophilic instinct at the heart of a critique of the pleasure centred theories of the cinematic apparatus of Jean Louis Baudry Christian Metz and Gaylyn Studlar proposing an idea of cinema as thoughts in search of a thinker Garcia then moves from Bion s epistemological period to his later work which draws on mysticism in order to posit an emotional experience in the cinema through which the subject can be or become real or at one with O Part II examines representations of retreat in four European films directed by Ingmar Bergman Pier Paolo Pasolini Georges Perec and Bernard Queysanne and Manoel de Oliveira showing them to articulate a gesture of retreat as an emotionally turbulent transitional stage in the development of the psyche what Bion conceptualizes as caesura Through its investigation of the retreat in cinema the book challenges common understandings of retreat as a regressive movement by presenting it as a gesture and space that can also be future oriented Bion in Film Theory and Analysis will be of significant interest to academics and students of psychoanalysis psychotherapy and film and media studies as well as psychoanalysts and psychotherapists

Death and Delusion Jerry S. Piven,2006-09-01 This book argues that conventional interpretation of Freudian psychology has not accounted for the death anxiety and its relation to illusions and delusions It contends that there is evidence to support the view that death anxiety is a very normal and central emotional threat human beings deal with by impeding awareness of the threat

Trauma and the Supernatural in Psychotherapy Alex Monk, 2023-06-16 Trauma and the Supernatural in Psychotherapy explores how traumatic experience interacts with unconscious phantasy based in folklore the supernatural and the occult Drawing upon psychoanalysis anthropology the arts and esoteric philosophy Alex Monk presents examples from folklore and literature to enrich his case illustrations which offer therapists important clinical perspectives on ways of working with clients who feel cursed and repeatedly manifest self sabotaging states The book examines the challenges that can arise when working with this client population and illustrates how to work through them while navigating potent transferences and projective identifications Monk illustrates the way in which clients with developmental trauma may experience the supernatural and its psychic representatives as persecutory and or a source of empowerment and healing Trauma and the Supernatural in Psychotherapy also considers the historically conflicted relationship between psychoanalysis and the supernatural and proposes treatment perspectives which are not implicitly dependent upon a materialist paradigm This book will be of great interest to psychotherapists and counsellors who have an interest in clinical work concerning the connection of relational trauma to unconscious forms of communication and uncanny phenomena arising between therapist and client

Object Relations, The Self and the Group Charles Ashbach, Victor L. Schermer, 2005-08-18 Presents a framework for integrating group psychology with psychoanalytic theories of object relations ego and self Key constructs defined discussed and illustrated with practical examples

The Claustro-Agoraphobic Dilemma in Psychoanalysis Susan Finkelstein, Heinz Weiss, 2022-11-08 This collection addresses the theory of claustro agoraphobic anxieties and schizoid phenomena It provides psychoanalytic case studies of the transference and counter transference dynamic inherent in these agonizing disorders In The Claustro Agoraphobic Dilemma in Psychoanalysis Fear of Madness Susan Finkelstein and Heinz Weiss gather both classic papers and new essays presenting a timely assessment of claustro agoraphobia as first developed by Henri Rey This volume includes papers by Helene Deutsch Bertram Lewin Edoardo Weiss Esther Bick Donald Meltzer Albert Mason John Steiner and Claudia Frank as well as a chapter by Kristin White on working remotely with psychoanalytic patients during the Covid 19 pandemic Applying a Freudian Kleinian and Bionian methodology this collection argues for a long term approach to psychoanalytic treatment in order to help claustro agoraphobic patients work through the unconscious conflicts that interfere with their capacity to engage in a committed relationship This book is essential reading for psychoanalysts in practice and training and will appeal to academics and historians interested in the universality of spiritual and mythic motifs

The Cambridge Companion to Literature and Psychoanalysis Vera J. Camden, 2021-12-16 Combining literature and psychoanalysis this collection foregrounds the work of literary creators as foundational to psychoanalysis

Trauma and Forgiveness C. Fred Alford, 2014-01-09 Contrary to the view of trauma popularized by literary theorists Trauma and Forgiveness argues that the traumatized are capable of representing their experience and that we should therefore listen more and theorize less Using stories and case studies including testimonies from Holocaust survivors as well as the victims of ordinary trauma C Fred Alford shows that while the traumatized are generally capable of representing their experience this does little to heal them He draws on the British Object Relations tradition in psychoanalysis to argue that forgiveness which might be expected to help heal the traumatized is generally an attempt to avoid the hard work of mourning losses that can never be made whole Forgiveness is better seen as a virtue in the classical sense a recognition of human vulnerability The book concludes with an extended case study of the essayist Jean Amry and his refusal to forgive
