Postcolonial Modernity and the Indian Novel
 Sourit Bhattacharya, 2020-05-27 This book argues that modernity in postcolonial India has been synonymous with catastrophe and crisis Focusing on the literary works of the 1943 Bengal Famine the 1967 72 Naxalbari Movement and the 1975 77 Indian Emergency it shows that there is a long term colonially engineered agrarian crisis enabling these catastrophic events Novelists such as Bhabani Bhattacharya Mahasweta Devi Salman Rushdie Rohinton Mistry Nabarun Bhattacharya and Nayantara Sahgal among others have captured the relationship between the long term crisis and the catastrophic aspects of the events through different aesthetic modalities within realism ranging from analytical affective critical realist quest modes to apparently non realist ones such as metafictional urban fantastic magical realist and others These realist modalities are together read here as postcolonial catastrophic realism

Supernatural Patterns Theo Rourke, 2025-05-05 Supernatural Patterns explores the often overlooked logic underpinning successful supernatural narratives in film television and literature It argues that the most compelling stories aren't just about fantastical elements but about establishing and adhering to consistent rules within their fictional worlds This approach provides both creators and fans with a framework for analyzing and appreciating the genre Discover how understanding narrative theory and genre analysis authors create believable worlds where societal anxieties and beliefs find expression The book progresses by first introducing the core concept of supernatural logic and its function within fictional worlds Subsequent sections then explore specific patterns and techniques employed by authors such as establishing rules for supernatural abilities and exploring the consequences of breaking them By examining the intersection of these rules with mundane aspects the book ultimately demonstrates how these principles can be applied to create more compelling and believable supernatural narratives
