The White Masai By Corinne Hofmann:

The White Masai Corinne Hofmann,2009-07-30 Corinne Hofmann falls in love with a Masai warrior while on holiday with her boyfriend in Kenya After overcoming all sorts of obstacles she moves into a tiny shack with him and his mother in his village and spends four years in Kenya Slowly but surely the dream starts to crumble until she flees back home with her baby daughter born out of the seemingly indestructible love between a white European woman and a Masai This is a major feature film to be released in the UK 2006

The White Masai Corinne Hofmann,2010 A former European entrepreneur recounts how she fell in love with Lketinga a Masai warrior while vacationing in Kenya and subsequently uprooted her life to move to the isolated bush country of Africa

Back from Africa Corinne Hofmann,2008-11-15 Corinne Hofmann describes her return to Switzerland and the difficulties that faced her there detailing how she built a new life for herself and her daughter and overcame all obstacles with the same courage and optimism with which she faced the demands of her life in the Kenyan outback

Reunion in Barsaloi Corinne Hofmann,2014-05-14 Fourteen years after fleeing Kenya with her baby daughter Corinne returned in the summer of 2004 to meet Lketinga and his family again in their village Barsaloi Nervous as she was and uncertain as to how he would react on seeing her again she found to her relief that she was welcomed unreservedly by all those who remembered her by Lketinga who still thought of her as his wife number one by his brother James now a schoolteacher and especially by Lketinga's mother who had looked after Corinne with such care all those years before Corinne Hofmann revisits an area of a country which she cares about passionately describing in her immensely readable style the changes she saw after her time away and once again bringing to life the atmosphere and characters in the Masai village

The White Masai Corinne Hofmann,2005 The White Masai is at once a hopelessly romantic love story a gripping adventure yarn and incidentally a fine piece of meticulously observed social anthropology It is also a compulsive read Corinne Hofmann falls in love with a Masai warrior while on holiday with her boyfriend in Kenya After overcoming all sorts of obstacles she moves into a tiny shack with him and his mother in his village and spends four years in Kenya Slowly but surely the dream starts to crumble until she flees back home with her baby daughter born out of the seemingly indestructible love between a white European woman and a Masai From close shaves with wild animals to the rigours of a subsistence existence in the bush disease malnutrition hunger ritual mutilation and overriding it all a consuming passion for another almost wholly alien human being this is a book steeped in humanity one which emphasises how much we all share and how much has come to separate us Simply unputdownable

My Bride: love, escapade and tragedy Herbert Amarasinghe,2013-12-11 It begins with love at first sight Since then their romance develops to an extreme when her parents interfere and bar their marriage for the fervently believed cultural differences Against the parents will they struggle so long seeking out various strategies to make their dream come true After battling along distressfully finally they end up marrying in a different part of the world Later realizing their happy existence away from them accepting as a great son in law her parents invite the new couple to live with them under the same roof The acceptance of her parents invitation becomes the beginning of shattering their happy marriage When he leaves the beloved wife in the care of her parents to attend his ailing family member overseas the parents interfere in the marriage forcing her to cohabit with a man of their choice at a distant location Ultimately marriage ends in a disaster taking the toll of one life The White Spaces of Kenyan Settler Writing Terrence L. Craig,2017-03-27

The White Spaces of Kenyan Settler Writing provides an overview of Kenyan literature by white writers in the half century before Independence in 1964 Such literature has been over shadowed by that of black writers to the point of critical ostracism It deserves attention for its own sake as the expression of a community that hoped for permanence but suffered both disappointment and dispossession It deserves attention for its articulation of an increasingly desperate colonial and Imperial situation at a time when both were being attacked and abandoned in Africa as in other colonies elsewhere and when a counter discourse was being constructed by writers in Britain as well as in Africa Kenya was likely the best known twentieth century colony for it attracted publicity for its iconic safaris and its Happy Valley scandals Yet behind such scenes were settlers who had taken over lands from the native peoples and who were trying to make a future for themselves based on the labour willing or forced of those people This situation can be seen as a microcosm of one colonial exercise and can illuminate the historical tensions of such times The bibliography is an attempt to collect the literary resources of white Kenya in this historically significant period Great Expectations Jonathan Skinner,Dimitrios Theodossopoulos,2011-10-01

The negotiation of expectations in tourism is a complex and dynamic process one that is central to the imagination of cultural difference Expectations not only affect the lives and experiences of tourists but also their hosts and play an important part in the success or failure of the overall tourism experience It is for this reason the authors argue that special attention should be given to how expectations constitute and sustain tourism The case studies presented here explore what fuels the desires to visit particular places to what degree expectations inform the experience of the place and the frequent disjunctions between tourist expectations and experiences Careful attention is paid to how the imagination of the visitor inspires the imagination of the host and vice versa how tourists and host communities actively imagine re imagine and shape each other s lives This realization has profound consequences not solely for academic analysis but for all those who participate in and work within the tourism industry The Rough Guide to Kenya: Travel Guide eBook Rough Guides,2024-05-01

The Idea of Development in Africa Corrie Decker, Elisabeth McMahon, 2020-10-29 An engaging history of how the idea of development has shaped Africa s past and present encounters with the West

Remembering Africa Dirk Göttsche, 2013 A groundbreaking treatment of the themes of colonialism and Africa in German literary fiction as presented in some fifty novels from the past three decades In the late 1990s in the wake of German unification multiculturalism and globalization a surge of historical novels about German colonialism in Africa and its previously neglected legacies hit the German literary scene This development accelerated by the centenary in 2004 of Germany s colonial war in South West Africa has continued to the present making colonialism an established theme of literary memorialization alongside Germany s dominant memory themes National Socialism and the Holocaust the former GDR and its demise in the Wende and more recently 1968 This is the first comprehensive study of contemporary German literature s intense engagement with German colonialism and with Germany s wider involvement in European colonialism Building on the author s decade of research and publication in the field the book discusses some fifty novels by German Swiss and Austrian writers among them Hans Christoph Buch Alex Capus Christof Hamann Lukas Hartmann Ilona Maria Hilliges Giselher W Hoffmann Dieter K hn Hermann Schulz Gerhard Seyfried Thomas von Steinaecker Uwe Timm Ilija Trojanow and Stephan Wackwitz Drawing on international postcolonial theory the German tradition of cross cultural literary studies and on memory studies the book brings the hitherto neglected German case to the international debate in postcolonial literary studies Dirk Göttsche is Professor of German at the University of Nottingham

Books and Travel Jennifer Laing, Warwick Frost, 2012-07-20 The books that we read whether travel focused or not may influence the way in which we understand the process or experience of travel This multidisciplinary work provides a critical analysis of the inspirational and transformational role that books play in travel imaginings Does reading a book encourage us to think of travel as exotic adventurous transformative dangerous or educative Do different genres of books influence a reader's view of travel in multifarious ways These questions are explored through a literary analysis of an eclectic selection of books spanning the period from the eighteenth century to the present day Genres covered include historical fiction children's books westerns science fiction and crime fiction

Home in Motion: The Shifting Grammars of Self and Stranger Pedro F. Marcelino, 2020-05-06 Home in Motion The Shifting Grammars of Self and Stranger is a collection of essays on contemporary identities and ethnoscapas from Australia to South Africa from Morocco to Nepal and everywhere in between

The Politics of Identity Michelle Harris, Martin Nakata, Bronwyn Carlson, 2013-01-01 The issue of Indigenous identity has gained more attention in recent years from social science scholars yet much of the discussions still centre on the politics of belonging or not belonging While these recent discussions in part speak to the complicated and contested nature of Indigeneity both those who claim Indigenous identity and those who write about it seem to fall into a paradox of acknowledging its complexity on the one hand while on the other hand reifying notions of tradition and authentic cultural expression as core features of an Indigenous identity Since identity theorists generally agree that who we understand ourselves to be is as much a function of the time and place in which we live as it is about who we and others say we are this scholarship does not progress our knowledge on the contemporary characteristics of Indigenous identity formations The range of international scholars in this volume have begun an approach to the contemporary identity issues from very different perspectives although collectively they all push the boundaries of the scholarship that relate to identities of Indigenous people in various contexts from around the world Their essays provide at times provocative insights as the authors write about their own experiences and as they seek to answer the hard questions Are emergent identities newly constructed identities that emerge as a function of historical moments places and social forces If so what is it that helps to forge these identities and what helps them to retain markers of Indigeneity And what are some of the challenges both from outside and within groups that Indigenous individuals face as they negotiate the line between authentic cultural expression and emergent identities Is there anything to be learned from the ways in which these identities are performed throughout the world among Indigenous groups Indeed why do we assume claims to multiple racial or ethnic identities limits one's Indigenous identity The question at the heart of our enquiry about the emerging Indigenous identities is when is it the right time to say me us we them

My Sad Song Herbert Amarasinghe, 2013-01-12 Its better to light a candle than to curse the darkness the wise old saying had been on my mind over the years So finally I lit the candle by writing my biography The book tells all about a boy born to a middle class rural family in the British colonial Ceylon Living in an era of strict cultural taboos and ancient practices his young life was utterly intricate Torn from the bosom of his family he departs from his cozy village home to a faraway school to suffer under sadistic teachers In a miserable boardinghouse he struggles with nasty bullyboys and battles along with constant homesickness The family tragedies worsen his misery drowning him in grief and hence confusion Later recovering and developing a great vision of life takes him out of misery to a successful university career To begin a new twist of fate he leaves his motherland to spend a quiet family life in New Zealand Then his family disappointments take him across the Tasman to Australia Living here for over a few decades he becomes a helpless victim of numerous adverse life events forcing him to a solitary single life Now he finds his way to survive the loneliness through his profound determination engaged in generosity Later when he expedites a romance overseas the surrounding enemies ruin it resulting in the tragic loss of his great lover leaving him in deep sorrow In dismay with a failed mission overseas and now aimless he returns to Australia Grieving silently and living a low profile suddenly his health deteriorates leaving a little ray of hope of life Eventually he recovers slowly and agonizingly bringing his life back to solitude again This is a vivid story written true to his memories in sequel and full of haunting childhood fomenting adolescence ghosts of numerous failures and finding ways to survive the great losses disappointments and loneliness through his determination Also interestingly the writer relates his times to important events took place in the outer world during these periods a kind of a historical account This is a dramatic life journey of a mans own purpose and meaning of battling along So those readers who seek a variety would find this book full of interesting episodes cultural background and differences in the light of the Westerners eyes Finally its a unique presentation and not the norm in traditional book stores

Africa, My Passion Corinne Hofmann,2014-01-15 In an exquisite personal pilgrimage Corinne Hofmann delves into the slums of Nairobi to uncover the heart warming and heart breaking stories of unforgettable people and places then treks 500 miles across the Namibian desert to discover the lives of the nomadic Himba people Joined by her half Kenyan daughter Napirai they travel to Nairobi together for the first time to discover Napirai s roots and finally meet her father and half siblings Africa My Passion is a poignant touching and exciting story about one woman s love affair with a unique man which led to a lifelong obsession with Africa Moving vividly recounted eye opening and above all filled with passionate hope and unparalleled detail this is an extraordinary sequel to a bestselling series of memoirs
