Multicultural Comics Frederick Luis Aldama, 2010-09-15 Multicultural Comics From Zap to Blue Beetle is the first comprehensive look at comic books by and about race and ethnicity The thirteen essays tease out for the general reader the nuances of how such multicultural comics skillfully combine visual and verbal elements to tell richly compelling stories that gravitate around issues of race ethnicity gender and sexuality within and outside the U.S. comic book industry Among the explorations of mainstream and independent comic books are discussions of the work of Adrian Tomine Grant Morrison and Jessica Abel as well as Marv Wolfman and Gene Colan's The Tomb of Dracula Native American Anishinaabe related comics mixed media forms such as Kerry James Marshall's comic book community performance DJ Spooky's visual remix of classic film the role of comics in India and race in the early Underground Comix movement The collection includes a one-stop shop for multicultural comic book resources such as archives websites and scholarly books Each of the essays shows in a systematic clear and precise way how multicultural comic books work in and of themselves and also how they are interconnected with a worldwide tradition of comic book storytelling

Twain's Brand Judith Yaross Lee, 2013-02-26 Samuel L. Clemens lost the 1882 lawsuit declaring his exclusive right to use Mark Twain as a commercial trademark but he succeeded in the marketplace where synergy among his comic journalism live performances authorship and entrepreneurship made Mark Twain the premier national and international brand of American humor in his day And so it remains in ours because Mark Twain s humor not only expressed views of self and society well ahead of its time but also anticipated ways in which humor and culture coalesce in today s postindustrial information economy the global trade in media performances and other forms of intellectual property that began after the Civil War In Twain s Brand Humor in Contemporary American Culture Judith Yaross Lee traces four hallmarks of Twain s humor that are especially significant today Mark Twain s invention of a stage persona comically conflated with his biographical self lives on in contemporary performances by Garrison Keillor Margaret Cho Jerry Seinfeld and Jon Stewart The postcolonial critique of Britain that underlies America s nationalist tall tale tradition not only self destructs in A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur s Court but also drives the critique of American Exceptionalism in Philip Roth s literary satires The semi literate writing that gives Adventures of Huckleberry Finn its vernacular vision wrapping cultural critique in ostensibly innocent transgressions and misunderstandings has a counterpart in the apparently untutored drawing style and social critique seen in The Simpsons Lynda Barry s comics and The Boondocks And the humor business of recent decades depends on the same brand name promotion cross media synergy and copyright practices that Clemens pioneered and fought for a century ago Twain s Brand highlights the modern relationship among humor commerce and culture that were first exploited by Mark Twain

Diffraction New Materialisms Annouchka Bayley,JJ Chan,2023-08-05 This edited book considers the vital position of artistic research in the landscapes and ecosystems of new materialism s and post humanism s in and for higher education The book aims to satisfy an urgent desire for change in the ways we link artistic and critical research practices asking what new ways of thinking and creating for twenty first century artistic and educational contexts we need in order to address the kinds of global complexities we face Organised around five key themes including fictioning reading embodying inhabiting and folding the book acts as an entry point for academics artists and scholar practitioners to participate in the shaping of new forms of artistic research and practice that are relevant participatory and that urgently address the kinds of complex issues emergent in our twenty first century context In doing so the book makes a key contribution to the development of emerging inter and transdisciplinary artistic research practices across a range of fields responding to the question what kinds of research and practice worlds do we wish to create in times of urgency crisis and complexity Seeking Passage Rebecca A. Martusewicz,2001 In this eloquent collection of essays Rebecca Martusewicz positions a philosophy of education that relies on what transpires between teachers and learners in various contexts She thoughtfully analyzes how in the relationship between teachers and learners all kinds of ideas beliefs interpretations and meanings are generated as a result of potent generative forces that depend as she demonstrates using post structuralist theories on difference as their fuel Ultimately she argues that to become educated requires an attention to the welfare of self and others and a willingness to confront and shift one s own habits practices and beliefs for that purpose This work contains clear translations of post structuralist theories such as those of Deleuze Serres and Derrida well written essays that blend good storytelling theory and ethical analysis to reconceptualize education as the means toward social justice and a clear argument for the drawing together of analyses of difference introduced by post structuralism with attention to ethics and social justice as they apply to education
