A Young Macedonian In The Army Of Alexander The Great New Edition:

A YOUNG MACEDONIAN in the Army of Alexander the Great Alfred J. Church, 2014-08-21 ABOUT six months have passed since the events recorded in my last chapter Charidemus had reported to Alexander so much of the young Theban's answer as it seemed to him expedient to communicate and the king had been pleased to receive it very graciously I am glad he said that you will have a friend in your campaigns I should like to have such friendships all through my army Two men watching over each other helping each other are worth more than double two who fight each for his own hand You shall be a captain in the Guards I can't give your friend the same rank It would give great offence My Macedonians would be terribly annoyed to see a young untried Greek put over them He must make his way I promise you that as soon as my men see that he is fit to lead they will be perfectly willing to be led by him Meanwhile let him join your company as a volunteer He can thus be with you And I will give orders that he shall draw the same pay and rations as you do And now that is settled the king went on I shall want you with me for a little time Your friend shall go to Pella and learn his drill and make himself useful This accordingly had been done Charondas had spent the winter in Pella In this place which Alexander's father had made the capital of his kingdom the army was gathering for the great expedition A gay or more bustling scene could not well be imagined or except the vast array which Xerxes had swept all Asia to bring against Greece a century and a half before a stranger collection of specimens of humanity Savage mountaineers from the Thracian Highlands and fishermen from the primitive lake villages of Paeonia jostled in the streets with representatives of almost every city of Greece the Lesser Greece which was the home of the race and the Greater Greece which had spread its borders over the shores of the Mediterranean and the Black Sea which had almost touched with its outposts the Caspian on the east and the Pillars of Hercules on the west The prospect of a booty such as passed all the dreams of avarice the hope of ransacking the treasures into which all Asia had poured its wealth for generations had drawn adventurers from all points of the compass The only difficulty that the recruiting officers had was in choosing The king was determined that the strength of his army should be his own Macedonians A sturdy race untouched by the luxury which had corrupted the vigor of more civilized Greece they supplied a material of the most solid value Nor was it now the rough untempered metal that it had been a generation before Philip had wrought it by years of patient care into a most serviceable weapon and it only remained for his son to give its final polish and to wield it So complete was the organization left behind him by the great king that such recruits as were needed to make up the necessary numbers of the army of Asia and none but tried soldiers were recruited easily fell into their proper places The preparation of siege trains of such machines as battering rams and the like of the artillery of the time catapults small and great some used for throwing darts and some for hurling stones was a more laborious business The equipment of the army was far from complete Every anvil in Macedonia was hard at work Of provisions no great store was prepared The king counted for supplying his needs in this direction in the country which he was about to overrun The military chest was empty or worse than empty for Philip who always preferred the spear of silver to the spear of steel had left little but debt behind him The personal baggage of the army was on the most moderate scale Never was there a force which gave a better promise of being able to march anywhere and more amply fulfilled it Charondas as it may easily be imagined did not find the time hang heavily on his hands

A Young Macedonian in the Army of Alexander the Great Alfred Church, 2018-11-16 This riveting historical fiction depicts a soldier in Alexander the Great's army and was written using the authentic Macedonian letters discussing Alexander's conquests across Asia We join the young Charidemus as he competes in a race around Olympia Athletic and determined by nature we find the young man ostracized by the Greek establishment owing to his origins in Macedonia a territory which in centuries past was considered an uncivilized and barbaric province north of the Hellenic League Such stigma though troublesome does not dent the courage of our hero who grows ever stronger and is recruited into the army of a young general named Alexander After completing an initial tour Charidemus is chosen as one of the 40 000 men to embark with Alexander on his epic conquest of Asia s uncharted lands With vivid battle scenes exotic descriptions of far flung ancient cities and landscapes flowing dialogue between the warriors and an attentiveness to historic accuracy A Young Macedonian is an underrated classic of ancient historical fiction Alfred John Church was a renowned scholar of classics who studied and taught in universities in London and wider England An able translator of Greek and Latin he produced several new editions of ancient works particularly letters and biographic material ALEXANDER THE GREAT IN BACTRIA AND INDIA NARRATIVE Dan-Tudor IONESCU,2025-01-01 This book is not only the attempt at the reconstruction of the military expedition of the army of Alexander the Great in Bactria and India and an analysis of the historical sources on which our modern image of Alexander s age is based but also aims at reconstructing the imago mundi that the ancient Greeks and Macedonians had on the world they conquered The birth and development of Alexander s myth are also treated in these pages Torch and Colonial Book Circular ,1891 The Liberation of Italy, 1815-1870 Evelyn Lilian Hazeldine Carrington Martinengo-Cesaresco (contessa),1895 Illustrated Catalogue of Books, Standard and Holiday McClurg, Firm, Booksellers, Chicago,1898 The Annual American Catalogue 1886-1900 ,1891 The Macedonian Army of Philip II and Alexander the Great, 359-323 BC Gabriele Esposito,2022-07-20 This book provides a complete and detailed analysis of the organization and equipment of the Macedonian army built by Philip II and later employed to world changing effect by his son Alexander III the Great This work explains how Philip took the traditional forces of Macedon and reformed them into the most modern and sophisticated combined arms force in the Mediterranean world Not only the formidable pike phalanx and the hard charging Companion cavalry but also the less famous components such as light and cavalry types are described in detail The tactics employed in the great battles that won the largest empire the world had seen are analyzed With numerous color photos showing replica weapons and equipment in use this is a vivid detailed and accessible study of the army that made Alexander great
