Anthropomorphic Depictions of God Zulfiqar Ali Shah,2012-01-01 This monumental study examines issues of anthropomorphism in the three Abrahamic Faiths as viewed through the texts of the Hebrew Bible the New Testament and the Qur an Throughout history Christianity and Judaism have tried to make sense of God While juxtaposing the Islamic position against this the author addresses the Judeo-Christian worldview and how each has chosen to framework its encounter with God to what extent this has been the result of actual scripture and to what extent the product of theological debate or church decrees of later centuries and absorption of Hellenistic philosophy Shah also examines Islam s heavily anti anthropomorphic stance and Islamic theological discourse on Tawhid as well as the Ninety Nine Names of God and what these have meant in relation to Muslim understanding of God and His attributes Describing how these became the touchstone of Muslim discourse with Judaism and Christianity he critiques theological statements and perspectives that came to dilute if not counter strict monotheism As secularism debates whether God is dead the issue of anthropomorphism has become of immense importance The quest for God especially in this day and age is partly one of intellectual longing To Shah anthropomorphic concepts and corporeal depictions of the Divine are perhaps among the leading factors of modern atheism As such he ultimately draws the conclusion that the postmodern longing for God will not be quenched by pre modern anthropomorphic and corporeal concepts of the Divine which have simply brought God down to this cosmos with a precise historical function and a specified location reducing the intellectual and spiritual force of what God is and represents causing the soul to detract from a sense of the sacred and thereby belief in Him

Muslim Sectarianism versus the De-escalation of Sectarianism in Malaysia Mohd Faizal Musa,2022-06-06 In 1992 a group of academics at the National University of Malaysia UKM organized a seminar titled Seminar Ahli Sunnah dan Syiah Imamiyyah Seminar on Ahl al Sunnah and Imami Shi ism in Kuala Lumpur It aimed to demonize Shi a Muslims and ban Shi ism effectively escalating sectarianism in Muslim society A Deobandi presenter at the seminar by the name of Muhammad Asri Yusoff put forth arguments about Shi ism which later became the intellectual base for the discrimination and repression of Shi'a Muslims by Islamic authorities in Malaysia. This repression continues till the present day and other religious leaders particularly those with a Salafi orientation take part in this. While much attention has been given to those who have escalated sectarianism, there have also been efforts to de-escalate sectarianism. These efforts come from groups such as Persatuan Ulama Malaysia and individuals such as Abdul Hadi Awang of PAS, former Prime Minister Mahathir Mohamad, the leader of International Movement for a Just World Chandra Muzaffar, as well as Malaysian academic Syed Farid Alatas. Nevertheless, the roots of sectarianism have been deeply laid since the seminar in 1992. Unsurprisingly, the sectarian campaign against Shi'a is aligned with the agenda of extremist and terrorist organizations such as ISIS. The sectarian campaign thus arguably emboldens such groups and puts Malaysia and the entire Southeast Asia at risk.

Arab and Muslim Science Fiction Hosam A. Ibrahim Elzembely, Emad El-Din Aysha, 2022-05-06. How is science fiction from the Arab and Muslim world different than mainstream science fiction from the West? What distinctive and original contributions can it make? Why is it so often neglected in critical considerations of the genre? While other books have explored these questions, all have been from foreign academic voices. Instead, this book examines the nature, genesis and history of Arabic and Muslim science fiction, as well as the challenges faced by its authors in their own words. These authors share their stories and struggles with censors, recalcitrant publishers, critics, the book market and the literary establishment. Their uphill efforts with critical contributions from academics, translators and literary activists will enlighten the sci-fi enthusiast and fill a gap in the history of science fiction. Topics covered range from culture shock to conflicts between tradition and modernity, proactive roles for female heroines, blind imitation of storytelling techniques and language games.
