The Oxford Handbook of Indigenous American Literature James Howard Cox, Daniel Heath Justice, 2014

Over the course of the last twenty years Native American and Indigenous American literary studies has experienced a dramatic shift from a critical focus on identity and authenticity to the intellectual cultural political historical and tribal nation contexts from which these Indigenous literatures emerge The Oxford Handbook of Indigenous American Literature reflects on these changes and provides a complete overview of the current state of the field The Handbook's forty three essays organized into four sections cover oral traditions poetry drama non fiction fiction and other forms of Indigenous American writing from the seventeenth through the twenty first century Part I attends to literary histories across a range of communities providing for example analyses of Inuit Chicana o Anishinaabe and M tis literary practices Part II draws on earlier disciplinary and historical contexts to focus on specific genres as authors discuss Indigenous non fiction emergent trans Indigenous autobiography Mexicanoh and Spanish poetry Native drama in the U S and Canada and even a new Indigenous children's literature canon The third section delves into contemporary modes of critical inquiry to expound on politics of place comparative Indigenism trans Indigenism Native rhetoric and the power of Indigenous writing to communities of readers A final section thoroughly explores the geographical breadth and expanded definition of Indigenous American through detailed accounts of literature from Indian Territory the Red Atlantic the far North Yucat n Amerika Samoa and Francophone Quebec Together the volume is the most comprehensive and expansive critical handbook of Indigenous American literatures published to date It is the first to fully take into account the last twenty years of recovery and scholarship and the first to most significantly address the diverse range of texts secondary archives writing traditions literary histories geographic and political contexts and critical discourses in the field

Engaging Affects, Thinking Feelings Susan Driver, Melanie Patenaude, Kara Stone, 2016-06-22

The thought provoking essays brought together in Engaging Affects Thinking Feelings Social Political and Artistic Practices balance critical thinking with creative opportunities to imagine new possibilities With an international breadth that crosses continents and an interdisciplinary orientation that connects diverse scholarly fields this collection is ambitious in its scope At the same time the essays focus on the small details embodied traces and intimate spaces of experience often overlooked or devalued within dominant discourses Exploring diverse issues and methodologies the contributions here share a willingness to pay close attention to vulnerable subjects that challenge readers to think beyond the rational and binary limits of academic knowledge As such the authors simultaneously engage readers intellects and emotions as they write passionately about subjects ranging from war food sexuality geography social media poetry photography and philosophy The result is a text that offers diverse ways of mobilizing an array of affect theories in relation to specific sites of interpretation activism and creativity

Mujeres de Maiz en Movimiento Amber Rose González, Felicia 'Fe' Montes, Nadia Zepeda, 2024-03-26 A multidisciplinary intergenerational critical creative herstory of Mujeres de Maiz a Los Angeles based Indigenous Xicana led spiritual activist organization and movement by and for women and feminists of color

(Re)mapping the Latina/o Literary Landscape Cristina Herrera, Larissa M. Mercado-López, 2016-08-10 This book broadens the scope of Latina o criticism to include both widely read and understudied nineteenth through twenty first century fictional works that engage in critical discussions of gender race sexuality and identity The essays in this collection do not simply seek inclusion for the texts they critically discuss but suggest that we more thoughtfully consider the utility of mapping whether we are mapping land borders time migration or connections and disconnections across time and space Using new and rigorous methodological approaches to reading Latina o literature contributors reveal a varied and textured landscape challenging us to reconsider the process and influence of literary production across borders

Negotiating Feminisms Eilidh AB Hall, 2021-03-04 Negotiating Feminisms examines intergenerational feminism in Chicanx family life It analyses literary representations of the ways that Chicanas negotiate feminisms in the family across generations through the maintenance contestation and adaptation of traditional gender roles Using an original theoretical lens of negotiation to read the works of Ana Castillo and Sandra Cisneros this book unpacks intergenerational resistance to patriarchal oppression This book shows how the works of Cisneros and Castillo articulate a politics of negotiation that critiques the gendered ideologies and roles of the family In doing so the book's discussion not only engages with literary representations but also connects these representations to the contextual experience of Chicana family life This book calls for a rethinking of women characters beyond limited and limiting familial roles and uses the framework of feminist negotiation as a means to explore the empowering possibilities of intergenerational female relationships Queer Relajo David

Tenorio, 2025-08-28 In 2015 Mexico City declared itself a gay friendly city and followed up with a gay tourist guide and new laws permitting changes to gender markers on legal documents sanctioning same sex marriage and allowing joint adoption of children At the same time patterns of violence and discrimination against women trans and queer people have continued throughout the country In Queer Relajo David Tenorio argues that while Mexico City aims to bring visibility to queer sociality the benefits of legitimizing queer space remain unclear Combining readings of film digital media and performance with drag autoethnography Queer Relajo quite literally plays with how relajo or playfulness structures the spaces of queer nightlife in urban contexts by revealing how nighttime intimacy can minimize the paralyzing effects of violence and precarity in a neoliberal Mexico Considering the political implications of when a queer trans person is present at night Tenorio argues that queer feelings of play are not only essential to sexual liberation but also resist neoliberal commodification and heteronormative extraction Translocas Lawrence La Fountain-Stokes, 2021-04-05 Argues for the political potential of drag and trans performance in Puerto Rico and its diaspora Food Pedagogies Rick Flowers, Elaine Swan, 2016-04-22 In recent years everyone from politicians to celebrity chefs has been proselytizing about how we should grow buy prepare present cook taste eat and dispose of food In light of this contributors to this book argue that food has become the target of intensified pedagogical activity across a range of domains including schools supermarkets families advertising and TV media Illustrated with a range of empirical studies this edited and interdisciplinary volume the first book on food pedagogies develops innovative and theoretical perspectives to problematize the practices of teaching and learning about food While many different pedagogues policy makers churches activists health educators schools tourist agencies chefs think we do not know enough about food and what to do with it the aims effects and politics of these pedagogies has been much less studied Drawing on a range of international studies diverse contexts genres and different methods this book provides new sites of investigation and lines of inquiry As a result of its broad ranging critical evaluation of food as classroom and food as teacher it provides theoretical resources for opening up the concept of pedagogy and assessing the moralities and politics of teaching and learning about food in the classroom and beyond Empowering Latina Narratives Margaret

Cantú-Sánchez, 2025-04-08 In this groundbreaking book author Margaret Cantú-Sánchez takes on the U S educational system Cantú-Sánchez introduces the concept of the education/educación conflict where Latinas navigate the clash between home and school epistemologies under Anglocentric assimilationist pedagogies By analyzing literature such as Barbara Renaud Gonzalez's Golondrina Why Did You Leave Me and education testimonios from seminal works like This Bridge Called My Back and Telling to Live Cant Sanchez reveals how Latina Chicana protagonists and students negotiate this conflict through a mestizaje of epistemologies blending elements of both home and school cultures within the third space of education Cant Sanchez utilizes an interdisciplinary approach deploying critical race theory Chicana third space feminism and other pedagogical theories like sentipensante a sensing thinking pedagogy employed by education scholar Laura Rendon among others By providing pivotal insights and strategies she demonstrates how educators can implement culturally relevant pedagogies in their classrooms from K 12 through higher education fostering environments where Latina Chicana students can thrive without forsaking their cultural identities Empowering Latina Narratives not only identifies the challenges Latina Chicana students face but also offers a roadmap for overcoming them making this book an essential resource for scholars educators and students committed to culturally inclusive education
