

APRIL'S RAIN

A dramatic night scene featuring a lightning storm over a house. A bright, jagged lightning bolt strikes down from a dark, stormy sky, illuminating the scene. In the foreground, a small, single-story house with a porch is visible, its lights glowing. The overall atmosphere is dark and intense, with a greenish tint to the sky and clouds.

Women and Capital Punishment in the United States David V. Baker,2015-12-07 The history of the execution of women in the United States has largely been ignored and scholars have given scant attention to gender issues in capital punishment This historical analysis examines the social political and economic contexts in which the justice system has put women to death revealing a pattern of patriarchal domination and female subordination The book includes a discussion of condemned women granted executive clemency and judicial commutations an inquiry into women falsely convicted in potentially capital cases and a profile of the current female death row population
