Over the Edge Rhonda Dass, Anthony Guest-Scott, J. Meryl Krieger, 2009-03-26 Through their search to achieve a sense of academic identity the authors in this volume have brought us new textures and ideas from their research to help us all in our creation and location of spaces we can claim as our own Working within the traditions of academic scholarship we are reformulating what we see and presenting it in a previously unexplored perspective of connections and possibilities Through our presentation of this view we are asserting a new location for the academic identity negotiation that will challenge and reinforce our positioning within scholarly endeavors The articles contained in these pages are themselves markers of identity produced within and created to define the academic culture From this base of academic tradition the essays contained in this volume share grounding in the exploration of culturally produced markers of identity pulling from various academic disciplines Through the examination of the performance of identity markers each scholar develops and reveals connections that we may utilize in our ever expanding perspective of scholarly subjects and approaches

William Stanley Jevons and the Cutting Edge of Economics Bert Mosselmans, 2013-03-07 The impressive young scholar Bert Mosselmans analyzing the theory and policy of Jevons a major figure in the field of the history of economics has put together a volume with broad international appeal particularly in Europe North America and Japan that offers a synthetic approach to Jevons economic theory applied economics and economic policy Adopting a relativist approach to his subject Mosselmans focuses on all aspects of Jevons theory tying the different strands together where appropriate and discriminating where necessary Examining the relation between theory and practise he situates Jevons within the history of economic thought and in relation to his logic ethics religion and aesthetics Ideal for scholars working in the fields of philosophy and history as well as economics this ambitious and insightful work offers a comprehensive analysis of one of the founding fathers of modern economic thought whose work marked a new chapter in its history bridging the gap between classical and neo classical economics More Letters from the Edge Margaret Randall,2025-09-09 A collection of letters exchanged between the author and four outriders artists writers and activists who risk everything to confront censorship injustice and the constraints of convention In More Letters from the Edge Margaret Randall continues her exploration of the power of correspondence revealing the intimate and unguarded exchanges that define lives lived at the margins of convention Through letters interviews and fragments of memory she invites us into conversations with four fearlessly radical writers artists and activists Arturo Arango Kathy Boudin Jane Norling and Robert Schweitzer Their voices translated remembered and preserved offer urgent reflections on risk resistance and the act of making meaning in a world that now more than ever seeks to silence dissent More than historical artifacts these conversations bridge past and present proving that the fight for creative and political integrity is never confined to a single era More Letters from the Edge is a testament to those who push against the edges opening doors for all who follow Art at the Edge Susan Krane,1989 Art and Identity at the Water's Edge Tricia Cusack,2017-07-05 The water's edge whether shore or riverbank is a marginal territory that becomes invested with layers of meaning The essays in this collection present intriguing perspectives on how the water's edge has been imagined and represented in different places at various times and how this process contributed to the formation of social identities Art and Identity at the Water's Edge focuses upon national coastlines and maritime heritage on rivers and seashore as regions of liminality and sites of conflicting identities and on the edge as a tourist setting Such themes are related to diverse forms of art including painting architecture maps photography and film Topics range from the South African seaside resort of Durban to the French Riviera The essays explore successive ideological mappings of the Jordan River and how Czech cubist architecture and painting shaped a new nationalist reading of the Vltava riverbanks They examine post Hurricane Katrina New Orleans as a filmic spectacle that questions assumptions about American identity and the coast depicted as a site of patriotism in nineteenth century British painting The collection demonstrates how waterside structures such as maritime museums and lighthouses and visual images of the water's edge have contributed to the construction of cultural and national identities More
