Future in 21st Century Fiction David Sergeant,2022-12-22 Explores contemporary fiction set in the near future to shed new light on our culture's relationship to the Anthropocene Flat-World Fiction Liliana M. Naydan,2021-12-15 Flat World Fiction analyzes representations of digital technology and the social and ethical concerns it creates in mainstream literary American fiction and fiction written about the United States in the first two decades of the twenty first century In this period authors such as Don DeLillo Jennifer Egan Dave Eggers Joshua Ferris Jonathan Safran Foer Mohsin Hamid Thomas Pynchon Kristen Roupenian Gary Shteyngart and Zadie Smith found themselves not only implicated in the developing digital world of flat screens but also threatened by it while simultaneously attempting to critique it As a result their texts explore how human relationships with digital devices and media transform human identity and human relationships with one another history divinity capitalism and nationality Liliana M Naydan walks us through these complex relationships revealing how authors show through their fiction that technology is political In the process these authors complement and expand on work by historians philosophers and social scientists creating accessible literary road maps to our digital future The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1877 Andrea Camilleri Lucia Rinaldi,2014-01-10 This is the first comprehensive reference work in English dedicated to the writing of world famous Italian mystery writer Andrea Camilleri It includes entries on plots characters dates literary motifs and themes from the bestselling author's detective stories and television crime dramas with special attention given to the serialized policeman Inspector Salvo Montalbano Camilleri's most famous character It also equips the reader with background information on Camilleri's life and career and provides a guide to the writings of reviewers and critics Consuming Books Stephen Brown,2006-04-18 The buying selling and writing of books is a colossal industry in which marketing looms large yet there are very few books which deal with book marketing how to texts excepted and fewer still on book consumption This innovative text not only rectifies this but also argues that far from being detached the book business in fact epitomises today's Entertainment Economy fast moving hit driven intense competition rapid technological change etc Written by an impressive roster of renowned marketing authorities many with experience of the book trade and all gifted writers in their own right Consuming Books steps back from the practicalities of book marketing and takes a look at the industry from a broader consumer research perspective Consisting of sixteen chapters divided into four loose sections this key text covers a historical overview the often acrimonious marketing literature interface the consumers of books from book groups to bookcrossing a consideration of the tensions that both literary types and marketers feel With something for everyone Consuming Books not only complements the how to genre but provides the depth that previous studies of book consumption conspicuously lack Encyclopedia of Contemporary Writers and Their Works Geoff Hamilton,Brian Jones,2010 Provides a comprehensive overview of the best writers and works of the current English speaking literary world New Approaches to Popular Romance Fiction Sarah S.G. Frantz,Eric Murphy Selinger,2014-01-10 Despite the prejudices of critics popular romance fiction remains a complex dynamic genre It consistently maintains the largest market share in the American publishing industry even as it welcomes new subgenres like queer and BDSM romance Digital publishing originated in erotic romance and savvy online communities have exploded myths about the genre's readership Romance scholarship now reflects this diversity transformed by interdisciplinary scrutiny new critical approaches and an unprecedented international dialogue between authors scholars and fans These eighteen essays investigate individual romance novels authors and websites rethink the genre's history and explore its interplay of convention and originality By offering new twists in enduring debates this collection inspires further inquiry into the emerging field of popular romance studies The Cambridge Companion to the American Short Story Michael J.

Collins,Gavin Jones,2023-05-25 Comprising new work by leading scholars this book traces the history of American short fiction and provides original avenues for research A Book Sale How-To Guide Pat Ditzler,JoAnn Dumas,2012-02-17 The authors provide a tested and successful formula for making money for local libraries in a practical and fun way a library book sale London, Queer Spaces and Historiography in the Works of Sarah Waters and Alan Hollinghurst Júlia Braga

Neves,2022-10-07 Queer spaces are crucial for the construction of LGBTQ communities as they constitute places where queer subjects can create political social and affective alliances J líia Braga Neves shows how these spaces are pivotal for the representation of queer history in the fictional works by the British authors Sarah Waters and Alan Hollinghurst whose characters and plots are articulated through and within London's sexual geographies Considering the intersection between gender sexuality and class this study engages with spatial queer feminist and Marxist theories as a means to reflect on London queer historiography and the relationship between subject and urban space Facing the East in the West Barbara Korte,Eva Ulrike Pirker,Sissy Helff,2010 Over the last decade migration flows from Central and Eastern Europe have become an issue in political debates about human rights social integration multiculturalism and citizenship in Great Britain The increasing number of Eastern Europeans living in Britain has provoked ambivalent and diverse responses including representations in film and literature that range from travel writing humorous fiction mockumentaries musicals drama and children's literature to the thriller The present volume discusses a wide range of representations of Eastern and Central Europe and its people as reflected in British literature film and culture The book offers new readings of authors who have influenced the cultural imagination since the nineteenth century such as Bram Stoker George Bernard Shaw Joseph Conrad and Arthur Koestler It also discusses the work of more contemporary writers and film directors including Sacha Baron Cohen David Cronenberg Vesna Goldsworthy Kapka Kassabova Marina Lewycka Ken Loach Mike Phillips Joanne K Rowling and Rose Tremain With its focus on post Wall Europe Facing the East in the West goes beyond discussions of migration to Britain from an established postcolonial perspective and contributes to the current exploration of new European identities The Age of Melodramatic Miniseries Scott Humphries,2023-03-17 Glamour power champagne breakfasts in satin sheets welcome to television's most dazzling and overlooked genre women centric melodrama miniseries of the 1980s and 1990s Decades before Real Housewives rags to riches fantasies depicting strong women overcoming tragedy to take charge of their destinies were a big hit with TV audiences Reflecting the greed is good ethos of the day and encoded with feminist messaging these glitzy often camp stories depicted statuesque superwomen facing off with square jawed men in boardrooms and bedrooms This book explores the shows that epitomized the prime time soap era and gave us such memorable scenes as Stefanie Powers trading lovers with her twin sister Joan Collins fighting Nazis in haute couture and Phoebe Cates demanding Which one of you bitches is my mother

Novel Style Ben Masters, 2017 Marrying lyrical close reading with critical awareness Novel Style argues for the ethical value of elaborate styles of writing and demonstrates that artistic excessiveness can provide dynamic responses to the moral complexities of our times

Orhan Pamuk and the Good of World Literature Gloria Fisk, 2018-02-13 When Orhan Pamuk won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 2006 he was honored as a builder of bridges across a dangerous chasm By rendering his Turkish characters and settings familiar where they would otherwise seem troublingly foreign and by speaking freely against his authoritarian state he demonstrated a variety of literary greatness that testified also to the good literature can do in the world Gloria Fisk challenges this standard for canonization as world literature by showing how poorly it applies to Pamuk Reading the Turkish novelist as a case study in the ways Western readers expand their reach Fisk traces the terms of his engagement with a literary market dominated by the tastes of its Anglophone publics who received him as a balm for their anxieties about Islamic terrorism and the stratifications of global capitalism Fisk reads Pamuk's post 9 11 novels as they circulated through this audience as rich in cultural capital as it is far flung in the American English that is global capital's lingua franca She launches a polemic against Anglophone readers instrumental use of literature as a source of crosscultural understanding contending that this pervasive way of reading across all manner of borders limits the globality it announces because it serves the interests of the Western cultural and educational institutions that produce it Orhan Pamuk and the Good of World Literature proposes a new way to think about the uneven processes of translation circulation and judgment that carry contemporary literature to its readers wherever they live
