A Woman's Worst Enemy:

Women's Worst Enemies Are Women Motoo Miyuki, If one of you were to get ahead she would be seen as a traitor That person was right all along Can love and friendship never coexist Woman's Worst Enemy Beatrice Hastings,1996

A Woman's Decision Karen Berger,John Bostwick,2025-10-16 A Woman's Decision is an extraordinarily sensitive and authoritative book that will help women assess their options familiarize themselves with the techniques used in treating breast cancer and prepare themselves for what to expect medically and emotionally from reconstructive surgery It combines complete and fully updated medical information with a detailed look at the emotional issues a woman must face when confronting breast cancer Especially reassuring are the interviews conducted with women and their loved ones discussion feelings and reactions at every stage including the decision to seek reconstructive surgery In easy to understand language this new edition features the newest therapies available for breast cancer treatment including Genetic and hormonal therapy Endoscopic minimally invasive surgery Image guided biopsy and sentinel node biopsy Lumpectomy versus mastectomy Skin sparing mastectomy and immediate reconstruction Partial reconstruction after lumpectomy Passion's slave Richard Ashe King,1889

The World Split Open Ruth Rosen,2013-02-05 In this enthralling narrative the first of its kind historian and journalist Ruth Rosen chronicles the history of the American women's movement from its beginnings in the 1960s to the present Interweaving the personal with the political she vividly evokes the events and people who participated in our era's most far reaching social revolution The SAGE Handbook of Gender and Communication Bonnie J. Dow,Julia T.

Wood,2006-07-19 Publisher Description The Wooden Pear Gillian Plowman,1992-03 Beatrice Hastings - A Literary Life Stephen Gray,2012-10-01 Born in London in 1879 and raised in the Cape of Good Hope Beatrice Hastings was one of those talented marginal figures who are major witnesses to their times but whose testimony has been sadly neglected After an early marriage and almost immediate widowhood she had a false start as a showgirl in New York before taking London by storm as the literary editor of and leading contributor to the progressive The New Age With HG Wells Bernard Shaw GK Chesterton and Arnold Bennett she kept up well publicised differences of opinion She also launched the careers of Ezra Pound and Katherine Mansfield During the First World War she became the journal's Paris correspondent gaining acclaim for her unique weekly insider reports In her French years she lived with Amedeo Modigliani who painted several famous portraits of her setting a style in looks for the modern woman Her friends included Pablo Picasso Guillaume Apollinaire and Max Jacob and with Jean Cocteau she shared the love of Raymond Radiguet the boy genius less than half her age She claimed that by the age of forty she had had forty male lovers among them The New Age editor AR Orage and leading modernist Wyndham Lewis Forthright and controversial Hastings made many enemies but throughout her life she wrote prolifically and eloquently leaving a fascinating record of the world she lived in She died by her own hand in 1943 In this absorbing biography Stephen Gray traces her entire career separating the legend of Beatrice Hastings the notoriously free woman portrayed in several works from the bare facts The SAGE Handbook of Organizational Communication Linda L. Putnam, Dennis K. Mumby, 2013-11-04 Organizational communication as a field of study has grown tremendously over the past thirty years This growth is characterized by the development and application of communication perspectives to research on complex organizations in rapidly changing environments Completely re conceptualized The SAGE Handbook of Organizational Communication Third Edition is a landmark volume that weaves together the various threads of this interdisciplinary area of scholarship This edition captures both the changing nature of the field with its explosion of theoretical perspectives and research agendas and the transformations that have occurred in organizational life with the emergence of new forms of work globalization processes and changing organizational forms Exploring organizations as complex and dynamic the Handbook brings a communication lens to bear on multiple organizing processes 'Bad' Women of Bombay Films Saswati Sengupta, Shampa Roy, Sharmila Purkayastha, 2019-12-06 This book presents a feminist mapping of the articulation and suppression of female desire in Hindi films which comprise one of modern India's most popular cultural narratives It explores the lineament of evil and the corresponding closure of chastisement or domesticity that appear as necessary conditions for the representation of subversive female desire The term bad is used heuristically and not as a moral or essential category to examine some of the iconic disruptive women of Hindi cinema and to uncover the nexus between patriarchy and other hierarchies such as class caste and religion in these representations The twenty one essays examine the politics of female desire's from the 1930s to the present day both through in depth analyses of single films and by tracing the typologies in multiple films The essays are divided into five sections indicating the various gendered desires and rebellions that patriarchal society seeks to police silence and domesticate Women in Public Relations Larissa A. Grunig, Linda Childers Hon, Elizabeth L. Toth, 2013-09-13 The past 20 years have seen an influx of women into the practice of public relations yet gender based disparities in pay and advancement remain a troubling reality As the field becomes feminized moreover female and male practitioners alike confront the prospect of dwindling salaries and prestige This landmark book presents a comprehensive examination of the status of women in public relations and proposes concrete ways to achieve greater parity in education and practice The authors integrate the theoretical literature of public relations and gender with results of a major longitudinal study of women in the field along with illuminating focus group and interview data Topics covered include factors contributing to sex discrimination how public relations stacks up against other professions on gender related issues the challenges facing female managers and entrepreneurs the experiences of ethnic minority professionals the salary gap the glass ceiling and how to foster solutions on individual organizational and societal levels This volume is an essential read for both educators and practitioners in public relations It can be used as a course text in graduate research seminars and also as a supplemental text in courses addressing gender issues in PR It serves as a useful guide for young practitioners entering the profession and provides critical insights for public relations managers Woman, Her History and
