

نكهات سورية Praise for AROMAS of ALEPPO

"The Jews of Aleppo were famed for their refined and tasty cuisine, which was regarded as 'the pearl of the Arab kitchen.' It is great to see that it lives on in New York and that Poopa Dweck has put together such a wonderful collection of delicious recipes."

—Claudia Roden, author of The New Book of Middle Eastern Food,
The Book of Jewish Food, and Arabesque

"Although I know nothing of Syrian Jewish cooking, the magnificent food in this spectacular tome comes to life as if from a recurring dream. The intuitive cooking of Syria must be from a past life of mine. I love every single dish and photo in this book, and the natural simplicity of the recipes make it all so easy—so much so that I must have made these dishes before. . .Wow!!!"

—Mario Batnli, author of Malta Italiana

"The Syrian Jewish community of Aleppo had an illustrious past, and has continued to thrive and flourish since settling in America. Their wonderful kitchen redolent with spices and healthy exotic flavors holds an honored place in our Jewish culinary heritage. Poopa Dweck's collection of delicious recipes and holiday lore will help this legacy live on."

—Phyllis Glazer, author of The Essential Book of Jewish Festival Cooking

"The delicious food of Aleppo is no secret, but Poopa Dweck's heartfelt stories unveil a layer of Middle Eastern culture that is largely unknown. Her recipes are full of bright, rich, deep flavors, and her beautiful book goes right to the soul of Jewish Aleppo."

—Ann Sautun, author of Spice Flavors of the Eastern Mediterranean
