Jacobs, 2025-10-01 This book presents four case studies that interrogate how German fifteenth century painted triptychs engage with and ultimately blur various boundaries Some of the boundaries are internal to the triptych format for example transgressed frames between narrative scenes on triptych interiors or interconnections between imagery on triptych interiors and exteriors Other blurred boundaries are regional ones between the Netherlands and Cologne metaphysical ones between heaven and earth and artistic distinctions between the media of painting and sculpture The book's case studies which shed new light on Conrad von Soest Stefan Lochner and the Master of the St Bartholomew Altarpiece illuminate the importance of German fifteenth century painting while providing a fresh assessment of relations between German triptychs and their more famous Netherlandish counterparts The case studies also demonstrate the value of probing Media's impact that is the implications of format and medium for generating meaning A coda assesses the triptych in the age of D rer Caspar David Friedrich: The Soul of Nature Alison Hokanson ,Joanna Sheers Seidenstein ,2025-02-03 Caspar David Friedrich 1774 1840 reimagined European landscape painting by portraying nature as a setting for profound spiritual and emotional encounters Working in the vanguard of the German Romantic movement which championed a radical new understanding of the bond between nature and the inner self Friedrich developed pictorial subjects and strategies that emphasize the individuality intimacy open endedness and complexity of our responses to the natural world The vision of the landscape that unfolds in his art meditative mysterious and full of wonder is still vital today Presented in honor of the 250th anniversary of Friedrich s birth in 2024 Caspar David Friedrich The Soul of Nature is the first comprehensive exhibition dedicated to the artist held in the United States Organized in cooperation with the Alte Nationalgalerie of the Staatliche Museen zu Berlin Staatliche Kunstsammlungen Dresden and Hamburger Kunsthalle with unprecedented loans from more than 30 lenders in Europe and North America the exhibition will present approximately 75 works by Friedrich Oil paintings finished drawings and working sketches from every phase of the artist s career along with select examples by his contemporaries will illuminate how Friedrich developed a symbolic vocabulary of landscape motifs to convey the personal and existential meanings that he discovered in nature The exhibition will situate Friedrich s art within the tumultuous politics and vibrant culture of 19th century German society and by extension highlight the role of German Romanticism in shaping modern perceptions of the natural world Martin Kippenberger Chris Reitz,2023-06-06 An illuminating study of the work of artist Martin Kippenberger whose art expressed the enthusiasms and frustrations of the West German middle class Martin Kippenberger Everything Is Everywhere is the first scholarly monograph in English on West German artist Martin Kippenberger 1953 1997 one of the most prominent German artists of the 1980s In this book Chris Reitz shows that the condition of Kippenberger s art was an endless enthusiastic searching constrained by the impossibility of fulfillment A child during West Germany s Wirtschaftswunder the economic miracle of the 1950s and 1960s and a young adult during the economic recession and political tumult of the 1970s Kippenberger belonged to the first truly postwar generation But largely uninterested in the legacy of National Socialism that had occupied his predecessors Kippenberger instead pursued a hyperproductive artistic practice that reflected the dreams and fears of the ascendent 1980s West German middle class Kippenberger s ambitions took him everywhere he founded a museum in Greece invested in a fashion business and a restaurant and even bought a gas station in Brazil He made art in a dizzying range of genres from paintings to poetry from posters to stickers He made art out of his appetites too producing art on the theme of his own alcoholism Intensely entrepreneurial Kippenberger carried out an artistic practice in which his diverse endeavors and the people who joined him in them were all connected in a sprawling network Reitz deftly presents Kippenberger s career as an allegory of the neoliberal networks of capital technology and culture that spanned Europe and America in the 1980s Artists and Radicalism in Germany, 1890-1933 Nikos

Pegioudis, 2025-02-20 Tracing the evolution of the German applied arts movement from 1890 through the interwar period Artists and Radicalism in Germany 1890 1933 reveals how reforms in artistic and vocational education intersected with the professional politics of radical artists and the nature of intellectual labour Challenging conventional views Pegioudis reinterprets the conflict between modern art s advocates and opponents arguing that professional politics not merely political ideologies shaped the historical avant garde Developing a fresh perspective on the role of radicalism and avant garde labour in the history of modern art this book casts new light on German modern art and its interpreters Art History and Anthropology Peter Probst, Joseph Imorde, 2023-12-12 An in depth and nuanced look at the complex relationship between two dynamic fields of study While today we are experiencing a revival of world art and the so called global turn of art history encounters between art historians and anthropologists remain rare Even after a century and a half of interactions between these epistemologies a skeptical distance prevails with respect to the disciplinary other This volume is a timely exploration of the roots of this complex dialogue as it emerged worldwide in the colonial and early postcolonial periods between 1870 and 1970 Exploring case studies from Australia Austria Brazil France Germany and the United States this volume addresses connections and rejections between art historians and anthropologists often in the contested arena of primitive art It examines the roles of a range of figures including the art historian anthropologist Aby Warburg the modernist artist Tarsila do Amaral the curator impresario Leo Frobenius and museum directors such as Alfred Barr and Ren d Harnoncourt Entering the current debates on decolonizing the past this collection of essays prompts reflection on future relations between these two fields German Post-Socialist Memory Culture Amieke Bouma, 2025-10-01 After German unification former officers of the GDR state security service united with GDR professors and cultural managers to establish the East German Committee of Associations OKV On the basis of encompassing oral history into this complex web of interest organizations and memory clubs Bouma argues that these activists are driven by an epistemic nostalgia a longing for the time when their political understanding of the world was seemingly unchallenged Far from constituting a second life of the Stasi the main goal of OKV associations has been to validate the personal biographies of their activists against the now prevalent view that the GDR was a state of injustice While the OKV quickly adapted to the new legal procedures in post socialist Germany their staunch defence of the GDR heritage complicates their relation to SED successor party Die Linke and other radical left parties and associations even when they share practical goals Breaking new ground in the study of post socialist memory culture this book explains why former GDR cadres replicate GDR memory culture against their stigmatized status in unified Germany

Exhibiting Abstraction Christina Bartosch, 2025-05-20 The time around 1910 has entered art history as the moment when abstraction was invented However where and when works of non figurative art became present in the public eye has been afforded little attention to date Exhibiting Abstraction is the first publication to be devoted entirely to the presentation of abstract art between 1908 and 1915 It uncovers strategies for the dissemination of early abstract painting in exhibitions with the aid of a register of exhibited works by Giacomo Balla Umberto Boccioni Wassily Kandinsky Frantisek Kupka Kazimir Malevich Piet Mondrian and Francis Picabia shown to the public within this period and an analysis of the artists exhibition activities The key role played by art exhibitions in the works introduction and dissemination is highlighted Traces of a Jewish Artist Kerry Wallach, 2024-03-12 Graphic artist illustrator painter and cartoonist Rahel Szalit 1888 1942 was among the best known Jewish women artists in Weimar Berlin But after she was arrested by the French police and then murdered by the Nazis at Auschwitz she was all but lost to history and most of her paintings have been destroyed or gone missing Drawing on a range of primary and secondary sources this biography recovers Szalit s life and presents a stunning collection of her art Szalit was a sought after artist Highly regarded by art historians and critics of her day she made a name for herself with soulful sometimes humorous illustrations of Jewish and world literature by Sholem Aleichem Heinrich Heine Leo Tolstoy Charles Dickens and others She published her work in the mainstream German and Jewish press and she ran in artists and queer circles in Weimar Berlin and in 1930s Paris Szalit s fascinating life demonstrates how women artists gained access to Jewish and avant garde movements by experimenting with different media and genres This engaging and deeply moving biography explores the life work and cultural contexts of an exceptional Jewish woman artist Complementing studies such as Michael Brenner s The Renaissance of Jewish Culture in Weimar Germany this book brings Rahel Szalit into the larger conversation about Jewish artists Expressionism and modern art Japanese Art - Transcultural Perspectives Melanie Trede, Christine Guth, Mio Wakita, 2024-12-02 The transcultural approach to Japanese art history embraced by the contributors to this volume centers on the dynamic aesthetic artistic and conceptual negotiations across cultural temporal and spatial boundaries It not only acknowledges material objects people and technologies as agents but also intangible practices such as knowledge and concepts as vital agencies of interaction in transcultural processes With its premise on connectivity trans territoriality networks and their transformative potential this research destabilizes categorical configurations such as center vs periphery and high vs low calling into question the classical canon of Japanese art history
