An Intellectual Biography of Africa Francis Kwarteng, 2022-07-13 Africa is the birthplace of humanity and civilization. And yet people generally don't want to accept the scientific impression of Africa as the birthplace of human civilization. The skeptics include Africans themselves, a direct result of the colonial educational systems still in place across Africa, and even those Africans who acquire Western education, particularly in the humanities, have been trapped in the symptomatology of epistemic peonage. These colonial educational systems have overstayed their welcome and should be dismantled. This is where African agency comes in. Agential autonomy deserves an authoritative voice in shaping the curricular direction of Africa. Agential autonomy implicitly sanctions an Afrocentric approach to curriculum development, pedagogy, historiography, literary theory, indigenous language development, and knowledge construction. Science, technology, engineering, mathematics, information and communications technology, STEM, ICT, and research and development (R D) both exercise foundational leverage in the scientific and cultural discourse of the kind of African Renaissance Cheikh Anta Diop envisaged. Mr Francis Kwarteng has written a book that looks at some of the major distortions of African history and Africa's major contributions to human civilization. In this context, Mr Kwarteng joins a long list of thinkers who roundly reject the foundational Eurocentric epistemology of Africa in favor of an Afrocentric paradigm of Africa's material, spiritual, scientific, and epistemic assertion. Mr Kwarteng places S T E M and a revision of the humanities at the center of the African Renaissance and critiques Eurocentric fantasies about Africa and its Diaspora, following the critical examples of Cheikh Anta Diop, Ama Mazama, Molefi Kete Asante, Abdul Karim Bangura, Theophile Obenga, Maulana Karenga, Mubabingo Bilolo Kwame Nkrumah, Ivan Van Sertima, W E B Du Bois, and several others. Readers of this book will be challenged to look at Africa through a critical lens. Ama Mazama, editor, author of Africa in the 21st Century: Toward a New Future. There are countless books about the evolution of European intellectual thought but scarcely any that captures the pioneering contributions of Africans since the beginning of recorded knowledge in Kemet aka Ancient Egypt Well that long drought has ended with the publication of Kwame Ninsin's An Intellectual Biography of Africa A Philosophical Anatomy of Advancing Africa the Diopian Way Prepare to be educated Milton Allimadi author of Manufacturing Hate How Africa Was Demonized in the Media Home and Nation in Anglophone Autobiographies of Africa Lena Englund, 2023-10-21 This book looks at contemporary autobiographical works by writers with African backgrounds in relation to the idea of place It examines eight authors works Helen Cooper's The House at Sugar Beach Sisonke Msimang's Always Another Country Leila Ahmed's A Border Passage Noo Saro Wiwa's Looking for Transwonderland Douglas Rogers's The Last Resort Elamin Abdelmahmoud's Son of Elsewhere Clemantine Wamariya and Elizabeth Weil's The Girl Who Smiled Beads and Aminatta Forna's autobiographical writing to argue that place is particularly central to personal narrative in texts whose authors have migrated multiple times Spanning Liberia Nigeria Sierra Leone Egypt Rwanda Zambia and Zimbabwe this book interrogates the label African writing which has been criticized for ignoring local contexts It demonstrates how in their works these writers seek to reconnect with a bygone Africa often after complex experiences of political upheavals and personal loss The chapters also provide in depth analyses of key concepts related to place and autobiography place and privilege place and trauma and the relationship between place and nation Some Called Him "Maverick" Memoirs of 33 years in Africa James R Sawatsky, 2017-11-21 As God captured the heart and imagination of young Jim Sawatsky the dream began to take form Together with his wife and three children they followed God's compelling call to the Congo DRC Over a period of thirty three years in the heart of Africa Jim saw this vision grow through the reach of media to influence a nation for God As word spread of what God was doing in the Congo seeds of hope were spread to other African nations as well and the dream kept spreading The stories and memories noted in these pages reveal the expansive heart of God and describes the amazing adventure that unfolds when one dares to follow Him Being Black in the Ivory Shardé M. Davis, 2024-02-12 When Shard M Davis turned to social media during the summer of racial reckoning in 2020 she meant only to share how racism against Black people affects her personally But her hashtag BlackintheIvory went viral fostering a flood of Black scholars sharing similar stories Soon the posts were being quoted during summer institutes and workshops on social justice equity diversity and inclusion And in fall 2020 faculty assigned the tweets as material for course curriculum This curated collection of original personal narratives from Black scholars across the country seeks to continue the conversation that started with BlackintheIvory Put together the stories reveal how racism eats its way through higher education how academia systemically ejects Black scholars in overt and covert ways and how academic institutions and their individual members might make lasting change While anti Black racism in academia is a behemoth with many entry points to the conversation this book marshals a diverse group of Black voices to bring to light what for too long has been hidden in the shadow of the ivory tower Memoirs of the History of France
