4th Grade Testing Encouragement Quotes:

Young Language Learners' Motivation and Attitudes Sybille Heinzmann, 2013-08-22 Taking three different perspectives this book looks at primary school children's language learning motivation and language attitudes. In adopting a longitudinal perspective the book fills a research gap and provides a macro level analysis of motivational development over time. It reveals a surprising amount of stability in primary school children's motivational and attitudinal development. The comparative perspective looks at the learners' affective dispositions with regard to English theorized as a global language and French theorized as a national language. The comparisons between global language and national language are relevant across the world especially in situations where instruction in languages other than English struggles to get attention. The results reveal sizeable differences between the two languages with children being substantially more motivated to learn English than to learn French. Finally the explanatory section identifies key antecedents of the learners' motivational and attitudinal dispositions and thereby opens up paths for intervention relevant for those working in the field of language instruction.

John L. Rury,2023-10-13 An Age of Accountability highlights the role of test based accountability as a policy framework in American education from 1970 to 2020 For more than half a century the quest to hold schools and educators accountable for academic achievement has relied almost exclusively on standardized assessment The theory of change embedded in almost all test based accountability programs held that assessment with stipulated consequences could lead to major improvements in schools This was accomplished politically by proclaiming lofty goals of attaining universal proficiency and closing achievement gaps which repeatedly failed to materialize But even after very clear disappointments no other policy framework has emerged to challenge its hegemony The American public today has little confidence in institutions to improve the quality of goods and services they provide especially in the public sector As a consequence many Americans continue to believe that accountability remains a vital necessity even if educators and policy scholars disagree ESEA, Framework for Change United States.
