America's Insular Possessions, Vol. 1 of 2 (Classic Reprint) Charles Harcourt Forbes-Lindsay, 2017-10-21 Excerpt from America's Insular Possessions Vol 1 of 2 The following pages treat of the American possessions abroad including the Philippine Islands to which a separate volume has been devoted The chapter on the Great Antilles is justified by our intimate relations to the alien islands of the group and their historical and commercial connection with Porto Rico Guam occupies what may seem to be an undue amount of space in the book because there is no popular description of that little island extant and its history is only to be gathered piecemeal from a number of works inaccessible to the general reader Moreover Guam is destined to become in the future a possession of no little importance to the United States The section on Panama and the Canal covers the story of the enterprise from its inception to the point at which the form of the waterway was finally decided upon and its construction definitely begun The section includes a description of the Canal as it will ultimately be built About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Greater America, 2015-07-13 Excerpt from Greater America The Latest Acquired Insular Possessions The first acquaintance that Porto Rico made with the authority of the United States was in May 1898 when the American fleet sailed along the shores of the island in a vain attempt to meet the Spanish squadron under Admiral Cervera At that time our navy threw a few shells into the grand old Castle Morro at the entrance of San Juan harbor like callers leaving cards as an indication of a future visit In July after the destruction of the Spanish fleet and the surrender of Santiago in Cuba a portion of the American army under General Miles invaded Porto Rico at Ponce without any serious resistance The Spanish forces on the island were so small that they were able to offer opposition only in skirmishes to the advance of the Americans through the country About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction

Bradford Perkins,Walter LaFeber,Warren I. Cohen,Akira Iriye,1993 Between the American Civil War and the outbreak of world War I global history was transformed by two events the United States s rise to the status of a great world power indeed the world s greatest economic power and the eruption of nineteenth and twentieth century revolutions in Mexico China Russia Cuba the Philippines Hawaii Panama Nicaragua and elsewhere The American Search for Opportunity traces the U S foreign policy between 1865 and 1913 linking these two historic trends by noting how the United States usually thought of as antirevolutionary and embarked on a search for order during this era actually was a determinative force in helping to trigger these revolutions Walter LaFeber argues that industrialization fuelled centralisation Post Civil War America remained a vast unwieldy country of isolated parochial communities but the federal government and a new corporate capitalism now had the power to invade these areas and integrate them into an industrialization railway linked nation state The furious pace of economic growth in America attracted refugees from all parts of the world Professor LaFeber describes and influx of immigration so enormous that it led to America s first exclusionary immigration act In 1882 the United States passed legislation preventing all Chinese immigrant labour skilled and unskilled from entering the country for the next 10 years
