Year 5 Final Islamic:

Ibn Sab'in of the Ricote Valley; the First and Last Islamic Place in Spain Govert Westerveld, 2015-01-12 This book is the outcome of a close study of the Ricote Valley and its famous Sufi Ibn Sab'in. Its purpose is to disclose more of the historical and comparative data Arab Spaniards have created a glorious human story that lasted for centuries within the scope of the Mediterranean culture. However a lot of the history of the Ricote Valley is only written in Spanish and still not in English. Andalusian scientists moved from the region of Murcia to the heart of the Islamic world. Their move had quite a deep effect. Among these scientists was the great Sufi philosopher Muhammad Ibn Abdul Haq known as Ibn Sab'in d. 669 H 1270 AD who came from the Ricote Valley. He is the originator of the deep philosophical approach in dealing with highly humanistic Sufi thought and the author of the magnificent treatise Al Kalam ala Al Masa'il Al Siqqilliyya in which he answered the philosophical questions that Frederick II the Emperor of Sicily sent to Muslim scientists in the Mashreq and the Maghreb.

Studying the Qur'an in the Muslim Academy Majid Daneshgar, 2020-01-30 Studying the Qur'an in the Muslim Academy examines what it is like to study and teach the Qur'an at academic institutions in the Muslim world and how politics affect scholarly interpretations of the text. Guided by the author's own journey as a student, university lecturer and researcher in Iran, Malaysia and New Zealand, this book provides vivid accounts of the complex academic politics he encountered. Majid Daneshgar describes the selective translation and editing of Edward Said's classic work Orientalism into various Islamic languages and the way Said's work is weaponized to question the credibility of contemporary Western produced scholarship in Islamic studies. Daneshgar also examines networks of journals, research centers and universities in both Sunni and Shia contexts and looks at examples of Quranic interpretation there. Ultimately he offers a constructive program for enriching Islamic studies by fusing the best of Western theories with the best philological practices developed in Muslim academic contexts aimed at encouraging respectful but critical engagement with the Qur'an.

Russia's Islamic Threat Gordon M. Hahn, 2007-01-01 Why contemporary Russia is a dangerous seedbed for radicalized Islam and what we should be doing about it The notion that the Chechen led jihad in the North Caucasus is an indigenous affair far removed from the global Islamist jihad is perhaps comforting to Americans and other Westerners but it is a myth Moreover the North Caucasus jihad may be the harbinger of a much larger Muslim challenge to Russia's political stability and state integrity So concludes Gordon M Hahn in this meticulously researched analysis of Russia's emerging Islamic threat Hahn draws an explicit picture of an already sophisticated and effective Chechen jihadist network that is expanding the territorial scope of its operations with inspiration and some assistance from the global jihadist movement Given its proximity to large stockpiles of diverse weapons the expanding population of Russian based Islamist terrorists is particular cause for alarm the author warns The book lifts the veil on the Muslim challenge to Russia's political stability national security and state integrity as well as the potentially grave threat to international and U S security Hahn shows that many of the demographic historical socioeconomic political and religious factors sparking jihadi revolution in Muslim countries are extant in Russia and are driving revolutionary Islamist terrorism there In a penetrating conclusion to the book the author analyzes the policies that have fueled the rise of militant Islam and offers a series of important recommendations for policymakers
