

Approaches and Methodologies in the Social Sciences

A revolutionary new textbook introducing masters and doctoral students to the major research approaches and methodologies in the social sciences. Written by an outstanding set of scholars, and derived from successful course teaching, this volume will empower students to choose their own approach to research, to justify this approach and to situate it within the discipline. It addresses questions of ontology, epistemology and philosophy of social science, and proceeds to issues of methodology and research design essential for producing a good research proposal. It also introduces researchers to the main issues of debate and contention in the methodology of social sciences, identifying commonalities, historic continuities and genuine differences.

Donatella della Porta is Professor of Sociology in the Department of Political and Social Sciences at the European University Institute, Florence, and Professor of Political Science at the University of Florence.

Michael Keating is Professor of Political and Social Sciences in the Department of Political and Social Sciences at the European University Institute, Florence, and Professor of Politics in the Department of Politics and International Relations at the University of Aberdeen.

Peters,Guillaume Fontaine,2020-04-24 Public policy research has become increasingly comparative over the past several decades but the methodological issues involved in this research have not been discussed adequately This Handbook provides a discussion of the fundamental methodological issues in comparative policy research as well as descriptions and analyses of major techniques used for that research The techniques discussed are both quantitative and qualitative and all are embedded in the broader discussion of comparative research design Handbook on Research Assessment in the Social Sciences

Engels, Tim C.E.,Kulczycki, Emanuel,2022-04-19 This Handbook provides a comprehensive overview of current developments issues and good practices regarding assessment in social science research It pays particular attention to the challenges in evaluation policies in the social sciences as well as to the specificities of publishing in the area Methods and Legal

Comparison Roberto Scarciglia,2023-08-14 This comprehensive book explores different methods and approaches to legal comparison considering how they are perceived and understood by the reader It examines how comparative discussion can be used effectively in both the classroom and courtroom The author builds on both analytical and methodological perspectives to provide an insight into the phenomenon of legal pluralism across global legal systems Does Transnational Mobilization Work for Language Minorities? André Michael Hein,2014 This study scrutinizes the significance of transnational mobilization for language minorities both with regard to their ability and their motivation to undertake such action It is designed as interpretative case study on Romanian minorities in the post communist countries of Serbia Bulgaria Ukraine and Hungary The book concentrates on immobile and marginal groups outside the focus of international politics and research It contributes to recent research on cosmopolitanism only an in depth study of actors everyday reality can produce qualified claims on the tense relationship between local rootedness on the one hand and possibilities for international mobility on the other This in turn is vital to assess the vigor of international processes such as globalization and European integration Series Region Nation Europa Vol 75 Subject Sociology European Studies Minority Studies Queer Conflict Research Jamie J.

Hagen,Samuel Ritholtz,Andrew Delatolla,2025-06-10 Bringing together a team of international scholars this volume provides a foundational guide to queer methodologies in the study of political violence and conflict Contributors provide illuminating discussions on why queer approaches are important what they entail and how to utilise a queer approach to political violence and conflict The chapters explore a variety of methodological approaches including fieldwork interviews cultural analysis and archival research They also engage with broader academic debates such as how to work with research partners in an ethical manner Including valuable case studies from around the world the book demonstrates how these methods can be used in practice It is the first critical in depth discussion on queer methods and methodologies for research on political violence and conflict Thinking as Researchers Innovative Research Methodology Content and Methods Nagwa Babiker Abdulla

Yousif, Shadia Abdelrahim Mohammed Daoud, 2023-02-12 This book is appropriate for undergraduate and graduate research methods courses as well as for instructors academicians social researchers social workers and community development planners The book aims to give a brief summary about the critical thinking and innovative research methods which are crucial in academic s promotion and knowledge building Social Research Methods is one of the most important courses in the educational curriculum that adequately support students and researchers acquire the competencies they need to deal with complex data and new analytical tools World is changing and accordingly there are changing in the nature of data for instance big data analytics etc and the complexity of the environment University instructors have to incorporate research in the undergraduate curriculum to allow the students to gain the knowledge and skills to learn the research process not to conduct it per se but rather to use the research to bridge the gap between knowledge and critical decision making

Political Research Sandra Halperin, Oliver Heath, 2020 The most accessible and practical guide to research methods written especially for politics and international relations students Political Violence and Oil in Africa Zainab Ladan Mai-Bornu, 2020-06-08 The book argues that in order to better understand the undercurrents of the Niger Delta conflict it is imperative to analyse the dynamics of choice in terms of the distinct courses of action taken by the Ogoni and Ijaw Given the similar structural constraints the author considers why the Ogoni adopted nonviolent resistance and the Ijaw violent resistance This book is divided into seven chapters starting with an introduction to oil and political violence in African conflicts and includes a synoptic overview of four other resource rich countries in Africa Theoretical and conceptual underpinnings of conflict are then presented with the aim of situating the Niger Delta conflicts within the wider conflict literature Chapter Three concentrates the discussion on the Nigerian Niger Delta outlining the core issues at the centre of the contestations The following three chapters offer an in depth empirical analysis on the interaction between the narratives on nonviolence versus violence the nature of leadership styles and the organisation of the Ogoni and Ijaw movements along with a concluding chapter

Causality in Policy Studies Alessia Damonte, Fedra Negri, 2023-02-13 This volume provides a methodological toolbox for conducting policy research Recognizing that policy research spans various academic disciplines each of which takes a different view on causality the volume introduces a methodologically pluralistic approach to policy studies Each chapter clarifies the research question that each technique can answer the research design and data treatment that each technique requires for its results to be sound the validity domain of its results and the actual deployment of the technique through a replicable example Techniques covered include quasi experimental designs approaches to account for selection bias and observed imbalances directed acyclic graphs and structural equation models Qualitative Comparative Analysis Bayesian case study and process tracing and Agent Based Modelling By working through the volume readers will understand how to learn from different techniques apply them consciously and triangulate them to make better sense of findings This volume is intended for advanced academic courses as well as scholars and practitioners in policy related fields
