Charting the Afrofuturist Imaginary in African American Art Elizabeth Carmel Hamilton, 2022-08-12 This book examines Afrofuturism in African American art focusing specifically on images of black women and how those images expand the discourse of representation in visual culture of the United States This volume defines a visual language of Afrofuturism that includes materiality temporality and black liberation Elizabeth Hamilton discusses the visual progenitors of Afrofuturism In the artworks of Pierre Bennu Sanford Biggers Alison Saar Mequitta Ahuja Robert Pruitt Renee Cox Dawolu Jabari Anderson Alma Thomas and Harriet Powers the fantastic narratives of Afrofuturism are uncovered through in depth case studies These case studies engage with Afrofuturism as a black feminist visual theory that helps to unburden the images of black women from the stereotypical visual scripts that are so common in contemporary visual culture of the United States The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual studies American literature gender studies popular culture and African American studies

Beyond Multicultural Art Education Rachel Mason, Doug Boughton, 1999 Multiculturalism is a term that has been much used in educational texts in recent years Its usage is frequently taken for granted in the rhetoric of curriculum literature However it has recently become clear that there are significant variations of interpretations of multiculturalism in different world regions This book takes a new and deeper look at the notion of multiculturalism through the lens of art education In educational terms art is a unique tool for the investigation of cultural values because it transcends the barrier of language and provides visceral and tacit insights into cultural change In order to address the educational interpretations and methods of implementing multiculturalism in different regions of the world this book contains discussion and analysis of perspectives on art education theory and practice from thirteen countries The authors of each chapter are respected multicultural experts in their geographic locations who are well equipped to provide unique insights into the particular issues of multiculturalism viewed from the perspective of art in educational contexts The book as a whole provides tools for the conceptual analysis of contemporary notions linked with multiculturalism such as interculturalism internationalism and globalisation It also provides strategies for art teaching in relation to these ideas While the term multicultural education is problematic this book presents conceptual frameworks that should assist educators to examine their own teaching on issues of equity and diversity that are central to the multicultural education debate Pens and Needles Susan Frye, 2011-11-29 The Renaissance woman whether privileged or of the artisan or the middle class was trained in the expressive arts of needlework and painting which were often given precedence over writing Pens and Needles is the first book to examine all these forms as interrelated products of self fashioning and communication Because early modern people saw verbal and visual texts as closely related Susan Frye discusses the connections between the many forms of women's textualities including notes in samplers alphabets both stitched and penned initials ciphers and extensive texts like needlework pictures self portraits poetry and pamphlets as well as commissioned artwork architecture and interior design She examines works on paper and cloth by such famous figures as Elizabeth I Mary Queen of Scots and Bess of Hardwick as well as the output of journeywomen needleworkers and miniaturists Levina Teerlinc and Esther Inglis and their lesser known sisters in the English colonies of the New World Frye shows how traditional women's work was a way for women to communicate with one another and to shape their own identities within familial intellectual religious and historical traditions Pens and Needles offers insights into women's lives and into such literary texts as Shakespeare's Othello and Cymbeline and Mary Sidney Wroth's Urania Creating Their Own Image Lisa E. Farrington, 2005 Creating Their Own

Image marks the first comprehensive history of African American women artists from slavery to the present day Using an analysis of stereotypes of Africans and African Americans in western art and culture as a springboard Lisa E Farrington here richly details hundreds of important works many of which deliberately challenge these same identity myths of the carnal Jezebel the asexual Mammy the imperious Matriarch in crafting a portrait of artistic creativity unprecedented in its scope and ambition In these lavishly illustrated pages some of which feature images never before published we learn of the efforts of Elizabeth Keckley fashion designer to Mary Todd Lincoln the acclaimed sculptor Edmonia Lewis internationally renowned for her neoclassical works in marble and the artist Nancy Elizabeth Prophet and her innovative teaching techniques We meet Laura Wheeler Waring who portrayed women of color as members of a socially elite class in stark contrast to the prevalent images of compliant maids impoverished malcontents and exotics others that proliferated in the inter war period We read of the painter Barbara Jones Hugu s collaboration on the famed Wall of Respect even as we view a rare photograph of Hugu in the process of painting the mural Farrington expertly guides us through the fertile period of the Harlem Renaissance and the New Negro Movement which produced an entirely new crop of artists who consciously imbued their work with a social and political agenda and through the tumultuous explosive years of the civil rights movement Drawing on revealing interviews with numerous contemporary artists such as Betye Saar Faith Ringgold Nanette Carter Camille Billops Xenobia Bailey and many others the second half of Creating Their Own Image probes more recent stylistic developments such as abstraction conceptualism and post modernism never losing sight of the struggles and challenges that have consistently influenced this body of work Weaving together an expansive collection of artists styles and periods Farrington argues that for centuries African American women artists have created an alternative vision of how women of color can are and might be represented in American culture From utilitarian objects such as quilts and baskets to a wide array of fine arts Creating Their Own Image serves up compelling evidence of the fundamental human need to convey one s life one s emotions one s experiences on a canvas of one s own making

Queer Lens Paul Martineau, Ryan Linkof, 2025-06-24 Copiously illustrated Queer Lens explores the transformative role of photography in LGBTQ communities from the nineteenth century to the present day Photography s power to capture a subject representing reality or a close approximation has inherently been linked with the construction and practice of identity Since the camera s invention in 1839 and despite periods of severe homophobia the photographic art form has been used by and for individuals belonging to dynamic LGBTQ communities helping shape and affirm queer culture and identity across its many intersections Queer Lens explores this transformative force of photography which has played a pivotal role in increasing queer visibility Lively essays by scholars and artists explore myriad manifestations of queer culture both celebrating complex interpretations of people and relationships and resisting rigid definitions Featuring a rich selection of images including portraits of queer individuals visual records of queer kinship and documentary photographs of early queer groups and protests this volume investigates the medium s profound role in illuminating the vibrant tapestry of LGBTQ communities This volume is published to accompany an exhibition on view at the J Paul Getty Museum at the Getty Center from June 17 to September 28 2025

Procession David Acton, Norman Lewis, 2015-11-13 This beautifully illustrated catalogue accompanies the first major museum retrospective of the painter Norman Lewis 1909 1979 Lewis was the sole African American artist of his generation who became committed to issues of abstraction at the start of his career and continued to explore them over its entire trajectory His art derived inspiration from music jazz and classical and nature seasonal change plant forms the sea Also central to his work were the dramatic confrontations of the civil rights movement in which he was an active participant among the New York art scene Bridging the Harlem Renaissance Abstract Expressionism and beyond Lewis is a crucial figure in American abstraction whose reinsertion

into the discourse further opens the field for recognition of the contributions of artists of color Bringing much needed attention to Lewis's output and significance in the history of American art Procession is a milestone in Lewis scholarship and a vital resource for future study of the artist and abstraction in his period Published in association with Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts Philadelphia Exhibition dates Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts Philadelphia November 13 2015 April 3 2016 Amon Carter Museum of American Art Fort Worth June 4 August 21 2016 Chicago Cultural Center September 17 2016 January 8 2017 Creativity, Society, and the Role of Socially Engaged Art in Higher Arts Education Kai Lehtikainen, 2025-07-21 This interdisciplinary book explores socially engaged art as a subject of study and its relevance in higher arts education institutions third mission giving back to society and engaging with the community to build a sustainable higher arts education for the future Drawing on data from two large scale EU funded projects supplemented by interviews educational document analysis and secondary data this book explores emerging trends in the arts sector and the role of arts universities in cross sector collaboration innovation and actions towards social and environmental responsibility Chapters posit theoretical analysis case studies and practically orientated examples from countries including the United States Ghana Indonesia and from across Europe to explore the growing demands for the positive societal impact of higher arts education Located at the interface between the sociology of higher arts education and community engagement the book explores a richness of international contexts including activism churches refugee work eldercare gender politics prisons and many others This timely volume responds to the urgent need to investigate the full potential of socially engaged art in higher arts education As such it will appeal foremost to scholars researchers postgraduate students and teachers in higher arts education and the sociology of education Practitioners working in arts curriculum design university society partnerships and those focused on creating inclusive and respectful spaces in higher arts education and research will also find the volume of use The Post-formal Reader Shirley R. Steinberg, Joe L. Kincheloe, Patricia H. Hinchey, 1999 This volume argues that while twentieth century educational psychology has made important advances a time for reassessment has arrived Recent years have seen the rise of neo Vygotskian analysis and situated cognition within the discipline of cognitive psychology The authors of Post Formal Reader have picked up where these theories leave off to more fully develop the specific connections between the social and the psychological dimensions of learning theory and educational psychology Carrie Mae Weems Carrie Mae Weems, 2021 Essays and interviews explore the work of the influential American artist Carrie Mae Weems her invention and originality the formal dimensions of her practice and her importance to the history of photography African American art and contemporary art Since the 1980s Weems b 1953 has challenged the status of the Black female body within the complex social fabric of American society Her photographic work film and performance investigate spaces that range from the American kitchen table to the nineteenth century world of historically Black Hampton University to the ancient landscapes of Rome These texts consider the underpinnings of photographic history in Weems's work focusing on such early works as The

Kitchen Table Series Weems's engagement with photographic archives historical spaces and the conceptual legacy of art history and the relationship between her work and its institutional venues The book makes clear not only the importance of Weems's work but also the necessity for an expanded set of concerns in contemporary art one in which race does not restrict a discussion of aesthetics as it has in the past robbing Black artists of a full consideration of their work From publisher's description Research Design Patricia Leavy, 2017-04-12 This user friendly book provides a step by step guide to using the five major approaches to research design quantitative qualitative mixed methods arts based and community based participatory research Chapters on each approach follow a unique format they present a template for a research proposal and explain in detail how to conceptualize and fill in every section Terminology commonly used within each approach is identified and key moments of ethical decision making are flagged Interdisciplinary research examples draw on current events and social justice topics Unique coverage includes hot topics replication studies and data sharing tailoring proposals to different audiences and more The book also includes a general introduction to social research an in depth practical discussion of ethics and a chapter on how to begin a research study from planning a topic to developing a research question via a literature review Pedagogical Features Multiple Review Stops in each chapter quick quizzes with answer keys End of chapter writing exercises research activities and suggested resources Bold face key terms and an end of book glossary Boxed tips from experts in the respective approaches Supplemental PowerPoint slides for instructors using the book in a class

The Art of Whitfield Lovell Whitfield Lovell, 2003 A graduate of Cooper Union in New York Whitfield Lovell has been widely exhibited worldwide His work is in such museums as the Metropolitan Museum of Art the Whitney Museum of American Art the National Museum of American Art and the Seattle Art Museum Inspired by his own background global travels and research and large collections of found objects and photographs of African Americans Lovell creates tableaux and full scale site specific installations melding two dimensional charcoal drawings with the three dimensional objects His works reveal African American spirituality and recall the memories and the heritage that define who African Americans are Primitive Art in Civilized Places Sally Price, 2001 What is so primitive about primitive art And how do we dare to use our standards to judge Drawing on a mixture of sources this text explores the cultural arrogance implicit in Westerners appropriation of non Western art Booker T. Washington and the Art of Self-representation Michael Bieze, 2008 This series explores the history of schools and schooling in the United States and other countries The series will examine the historical development of schools and educational processes with special emphasis on issues of educational policy curriculum and pedagogy as well as issues relating to race class gender and ethnicity Special emphasis will be placed on the lessons to be learned from the past for contemporary educational reform and policy Although the series will publish books related to education in the broadest societal and cultural context it especially seeks books on the history of specific schools and on the lives of educational leaders and school founders Studio Art Therapy Catherine Hyland Moon, 2001-10-01 This book presents a model of art therapy where the processes of art constitute the core of the model. It addresses how an arts based approach can inform the therapist in all aspects of practice from the conception of the work and the attempt to understand client needs to interacting with clients and communicating with others about art therapy.

Art as an Agent for Social Change Hala Mreiwed, Mindy R. Carter, Claudia Mitchell, 2020-10-12 The chapters in Art as an Agent for Social Change presented as snapshots focus on exploring the power of drama dance visual arts media music poetry and film as educative artistic imaginative embodied and relational art forms that are agents of personal and societal change. A range of methods and ontological views are used by the authors in this unique contribution to scholarship illustrating the comprehensive methodologies and theories that ground arts based research in Canada the US Norway India Hong Kong and South Africa. Weaving together a series of chapters snapshots under the themes of community building collaboration and teaching and pedagogy this book offers examples of how Art as an Agent for Social Change is of particular relevance for many different and often overlapping groups including community artists K university instructors teachers students and arts based educational researchers interested in using the arts to explore social justice in educative ways. This book provokes us to think critically and creatively about what really matters.

Curating at the Edge Kate Bonansinga, 2014-01-06 Located less than a mile from Ju rez the Stanlee and Gerald Rubin Center for Visual Arts at the University of Texas at El Paso is a non collecting institution that serves the Paso del Norte region. In Curating at the Edge Kate Bonansinga brings to life her experiences as the Rubin s founding director giving voice to a curatorial approach that reaches far beyond the limited scope of border art or Chicano art. Instead Bonansinga captures the creative climate of 2004 2011 when contemporary art addressed broad notions of destruction and transformation irony and subversion gender and identity and the impact of location on politics. The Rubin s location in the Chihuahuan desert on the U S Mexican border is meaningful and intriguing to many artists and consequently Curating at the Edge describes the multiple artistic perspectives conveyed in the place based exhibitions Bonansinga oversaw. Exciting mid career artists featured in this collection of case studies include Margarita Cabrera Liz Cohen Marcos Ram rez ERRE and many others. Recalling her experiences in vivid first person scenes Bonansinga reveals the processes a contemporary art curator undertakes and the challenges she faces by describing a few of the more than sixty exhibitions that she organized during her tenure at the Rubin. She also explores the artists working methods and the relationship between their work and their personal and professional histories some are Mexican citizens some are U S citizens of Mexican descent and some have ancestral ties to Europe. Timely and illuminating Curating at the Edge sheds light on the work of the interlocutors who connect artists and their audiences.
