<Name>'s art work is created with pride and confidence - <he> takes the time to ensure <his> pieces are finished to the best of <his> ability.

<he> often chooses art as an activity to pursue during choice time and enjoys taking out art instruction books from the library.

<Name> is beginning to show more interest in Art activities and is starting to ask for feedback from peers on the art <he> has created.

<Name>'s art work is created and presented with pride and confidence - <he> pays a great deal of attention to detail and can always offer positive feedback on the artwork of others.

<Name> sometimes sacrifices quality in <his> artwork in favour of speed- <he> needs to slow down and enjoy the process of art making.

When viewing other student's works of Art <Name> needs to remember to only offer positive feedback.

<Name> is often hesitant to create art- <he> is very focused on doing it the "right" way versus enjoying creating art for the sake of enjoyment.

<Name> is learning to be more of a risk taker as it is by taking personal risks, and trying new skills and techniques that <he> will grow as an artist.

Art Report Comments For Children:

Teaching the Primary Curriculum for Constructive Learning Michael Little, Laura Huxford, 2013-10-23 First Published in 1998 There is a current preoccupation with educational standards with claims that overall standards of achievement have fallen The purpose of this book therefore is to address the question of how children learn across the primary National Curriculum subjects with implications for effective teaching approaches The book emphasises a constructivist view of learning which acknowledges that children have views and attitudes which are formed as a result of experiences in and out of school and that these must be taken into account if meaningful and transferable learning is to be achieved

Inspiring School Change Christine Hall, Pat Thomson, 2017-04-28 Recognising performance and accountability pressures on schools Inspiring School Change shows how a commitment to the arts in education can meet core school agendas of pupil and parent engagement attainment improved teaching and inclusion Schools are under pressure to develop their students creativity and to improve their cultural education This book fills a gap by marshalling the arguments and evidence for a form of education in through and with the arts that moves beyond individual projects to become central to teaching learning and school reform When the arts are taken seriously schools become different and better places Using research evidence to promote greater awareness of the capacity of the arts to promote educational change this text captures four key themes that run through all of the chapters Inspiration sharing experiences and the way they happened documenting inspiring pedagogy by understanding the reason it was done the factors and the people involved in making it work School change the need for schools to better prepare young people for the lives they will live in the twenty first century to engage young people more effectively and so educate them better and the recognition that in an unequal society schools can contribute to making things fairer Creative arts demonstrates through international research how the arts can facilitate whole school learning meet core agendas such as attainment inclusion and promote lifelong learning Transforming education marshals the arguments and evidence for a form of education in through and with the arts that moves beyond individual projects to become central to teaching learning and school reform Tackling the hot topics of parent and pupil engagement standards and accountability in a fresh way Inspiring School Change offers those engaged in the research and practice of improving teaching and learning with insight into the educational value and possibilities of arts based teaching and an arts rich curriculum and anthropology Geography childhood studies gender studies and citizenship studies Participation education and health Juvenile justice and alternative care Violence against children and female genital mutilation Child labour working children and child poverty Migration indigenous children and resource exploitation The specially commissioned chapters have been written by renowned scholars and researchers and come together to provide a critical and invaluable guide to the challenges and dilemmas currently facing children s rights

Gender, Nutrition, and the Human Right to Adequate Food Anne C. Bellows, Flavio L.S. Valente, Stefanie Lemke, María Daniela Núñez Burbano de Lara, 2015-12-07 This book introduces the human right to adequate food and nutrition as evolving concept and identifies two structural disconnects fueling food insecurity for a billion people and disproportionately affecting women children and rural food producers the separation of women s rights from their right to adequate food and nutrition and the fragmented attention to food as commodity and the medicalization of nutritional health Three conditions arising from these disconnects are discussed structural violence and discrimination frustrating the realization of women s human rights as well as their private and public contributions to food and nutrition security for all many women s experience of their and their children s simultaneously independent and intertwined subjectivities during pregnancy and breastfeeding being poorly understood in human rights law and abused by poorly regulated food and nutrition industry marketing practices and the neoliberal economic system s interference both with the autonomy and self determination of women and their communities and with the strengthening of sustainable diets based on democratically governed local food systems The book calls for a social movement led reconceptualization of the right to adequate food toward incorporating gender women s rights and nutrition based on the food sovereignty framework

Congressional-Executive Commission on China Annual Report 2015 , Research in Education ,1970 The art journal London ,1879 Religion and Social Development in Post-apartheid South Africa Ignatius Swart, Hermann Rocher, Sulina Green, Johannes Erasmus, 2010-10-01 It reflects original research and contributes to new developments in the field of theology and religion with regard to its developmental role within a transformation context The book may easily stand out in future as seminal in the way that it promoted the social development debate of the church and its organisational structures from an interdisciplinary focus Prof Antoinette Lombard Department of Social Work and Criminology University of Pretoria

Survey of British and Commonwealth Affairs ,1970 Making Religion and Human Rights at the United Nations Helge Årsheim, 2018-07-23 This volume examines the different and sometimes contradictory approaches of four UN human rights committees to the concept of religion Drawing on critical perspectives from religious studies the book combines a genealogical assessment of the role of religion in international law with a detailed textual study of the reporting practice of the committees monitoring racial discrimination civil and political rights women s rights and children s rights Årsheim argues that the role of religion within the rights traditions monitored by the committees varies to the extent that their recommendations risk contradicting one another thereby undermining their credibility and potential to bring about real change on the ground Where some committees view religion singularly as a core individual right others see religion partly as an inherent threat to the realization of other rights but also as a potent social force to be reckoned with In order to remedy this situation rsheim proposes the publication of a joint general comment by all the committees spelling out their approach to the role of religion in the implementation of human rights Continuous-progress Education Maurie Hillson, Joseph Bongo,1971 Senate Journal Wisconsin. Legislature. Senate,2007 The Challenge of Child Labour in International Law Franziska Humbert,2009-08-27 Franziska Humbert analyses how the prohibition of child labour is protected under international law and proposes an agenda for reform
