writers from Proust to George Orwell who have been inspired or outraged by the restaurant's secrets. As this dazzlingly entertaining eye-opening book shows, the restaurant is where performance, fashion, commerce, ritual, class, work, and desire all come together. Through its windows, we can glimpse the world. Christoph Ribbat, b. 1968, has taught in Bochum, Boston, and Basel, and is now Professor of American Studies at the University of Paderborn.

Marketing In Creative Industries
Gabriele Troilo, 2017-09-16. This vibrant textbook addresses the specific challenges of marketing in the creative industries whilst applying marketing theory to a wide range of international examples. It combines a comprehensive and innovative perspective on customer value theory with practical marketing strategies and detailed case studies. The text looks at a range of creative industries, analysing their similarities and identifying and recommending a suitable managerial model for effective marketing. Based around three key concepts of creativity, customer experience, and customer value, this model provides students with the analytical and decisional tools necessary to succeed in creative industries. Written by an author with a depth of teaching and consulting experience in the field, Marketing in Creative Industries offers invaluable insight into creative and cultural industry marketing. It is an ideal textbook for undergraduate and postgraduate students taking modules in marketing.

Multisensory Human-Food Interaction
Carlos Velasco, Anton Nijholt, Kasun Karunanayaka, 2018-07-26. Our food experiences can be significantly influenced by both intrinsic and extrinsic multisensory information. Therefore, it is crucial to understand and apply the principles that govern the systematic connections that exist between the senses in the context of Human Food Interaction (HFI). In our Research Topic, namely Multisensory Human Food Interaction (MHFI), several studies that consider such connections in the context of HFI are presented. We also have contributions that focus on multisensory technologies that can be used to share and reproduce specific HFIs. This eBook, which resulted from the Research Topic, presents some of the most recent developments in the field of MHFI. In particular, it consists of two main sections and corresponding articles. The eBook begins with the Editorial, which provides an overview of MHFI. Then, it includes six articles that relate to principles in MHFI and three on technologies in MHFI. We hope that the different contributions featured here will support future developments in MHFI research.
