Artists With Phds On The New Doctoral Degree In Studio Art:

Artists with PhDs James Elkins, 2009 This book is the second extended edition of the first of its kind It is a resource to help people artists teachers administrators and students assess and compare programs for a new PhD in Studio Art

Transatlantic Reflections on the Practice-Based PhD in Fine Art Jessica Schwarzenbach, Paul Hackett, 2015-08-11 Once the US was the only country in the world to offer a doctorate for studio artists however the PhD in fine art disappeared after pressures established the MFA as the terminal degree for visual artists Subsequently the PhD in fine art emerged in the UK and is now offered by approximately 40 universities Today the doctorate is offered in most English speaking nations much of the EU and countries such as China and Brazil Using historical political and social frameworks this book investigates the evolution of the fine art doctorate in the UK what the concept of a PhD means to practicing artists from the US and why this degree disappeared in the US when it is so vigorously embraced in the UK and other countries Data collected through in depth interviews examine the perspectives of professional artists in the US who teach graduate level fine art These interviews disclose conflicting attitudes toward this advanced degree and reveal the possibilities and challenges of developing a potential doctorate in studio art in the US

Art History and Visual Studies in Europe, 2012-06-22 Reflection on the history and practice of art history has long been a major topic of research and scholarship and this volume builds on this tradition by offering a critical survey of many of the major developments in the contemporary discipline such as the impact of digital technologies the rise of visual studies or new initiatives in conservation theory and practice Alongside these methodological issues this book addresses the mostly neglected question of the impact of national contexts on the development of the discipline Taking a wide range of case studies this book examines the impact of the specific national political institutional and ideological demands on the practice of art history The result is an account that both draws out common features and also highlights the differences and the plurality of practices that together constitute art history as a discipline

Doctoral Research in Art David Forrest, 2018-02-02 Practice as Research in the Arts Robin Nelson, 2013-03-03 At the performance turn this book takes a fresh how to approach to Practice as Research arguing that old prejudices should be abandoned and a PaR methodology fully accepted in the academy Nelson and his contributors address the questions students professional practitioner researchers regulators and examiners have posed in this domain

Art, Research, Philosophy Clive Cazeaux, 2017-04-11 Art Research Philosophy explores the emergent field of artistic research art produced as a contribution to knowledge As a new subject it raises several questions What is art as research Don t the requirements of research amount to an imposition on the artistic process that dilutes the power of art How can something subjective become objective What is the relationship between art and writing Doesn t description always miss the particularity of the artwork This is the first book length study to show how ideas in philosophy can be applied to artistic research to answer its questions and to make proposals for its future Clive Cazeaux argues that artistic research is an exciting development in the historical debate between aesthetics and the theory of knowledge The book draws upon Kant phenomenology and critical theory to show how the immediacies of art and experience are enmeshed in the structures that create knowledge The power of art to act on these structures is illustrated through a series of studies that look closely at a number of contemporary artworks This book will be ideal for postgraduate students and scholars of the visual and creative arts aesthetics and art theory The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorandfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial No Derivatives 4.0 license <https://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/9781315764610> Reclaiming Artistic Research Katayoun Arian, Lawrence Abu Hamdan, Carolyn

Handbook of Arts-Based Research Patricia Leavy, 2019-02-27 The handbook is heavy on methods chapters in different genres There are chapters on actual methods that include methodological instruction and examples There is also ample attention given to practical issues including evaluation writing ethics and publishing With respect to writing style contributors have made their chapters reader friendly by limiting their use of jargon providing methodological instruction when appropriate and offering robust research examples from their own work and or others

Design as Research Gesche Joost,Katharina Bredies,Michelle Christensen,Florian Conradi,Andreas Unteidig,2016-04-25 Are there differences between design practice and the practice of design research What alliances between text and artefact are possible in the search for new knowledge How does design research translate and transform theories and methods from other disciplines Is design research moving towards becoming a formal discipline and if so would this really be an advantage 16 international authors address these four different aspects in the form of personal statements and 19 researchers share their reflections based on their experience of having carried out a practice based PhD This book investigates the status quo of things in the multi faceted and constantly evolving field of design research and outlines the elementary issues faced by researchers The compendium is a survey of a fast growing field and at the same time provides pointers for personal orientation With statements from Uta Brandes Rachel Cooper Clive Dilnot Michael Erlhoff Alain Findeli Bill Gaver Ranulph Glanville Matthias Held Wolfgang Jonas Klaus Krippendorff Claudia Mareis Mike Press Elizabeth B N Sanders Arne Scheuermann Cameron Tonkinwise Brigitte Wolf

The Bodies We Are (Not) Antje Velsing,2024-02-05 In Western neo liberal society the human body is increasingly used as an identity project and designable object Antje Velsing investigates these specific roles of the body and develops choreographic strategies for becoming unfamiliar to the own self and play as two means for emancipating the body from the neo liberal imperative of optimization and control Theoretical and practical artistic perspectives are in constant dialogue throughout this study It uses the choreographic field as a gray area between theory and practice to imagine propose and rehearse an alternative approach to the body

Practice as Research in the Arts (and Beyond) Robin Nelson,2022-05-19 This project addresses the contexts of Practice as Research and how to undertake it This second iteration updates thinking and practices but sustains a direct and clear approach on how to become a practitioner researcher New features include an extension of range beyond the arts and a case for intra disciplinarity in Practice Research as an influence in the formation of the future university A comparison is made between Artistic Research and Practice Research recognizing that research through practices with being doing knowing is central to both Acknowledging the current crisis in legitimation a broad view is taken of how things might be known by an onto epistemology for the twenty first century foregrounding the bodymind but sustaining rationality and community by way of Other other dialogic exchange Perspectives from around the world in Part II offset the more Eurocentric emphasis in Part I

Artistic Cartography and Design Explorations Towards the Pluriverse Satu Miettinen,Enni Mikkonen,Maria Cecilia Loschiavo dos Santos,Melanie Sarantou,2022-12-19 This edited volume uses an interdisciplinary approach to art and design that not only reframes but also repositions agendas and actions to address fragmented global systems Contributors explore the pluriverse of art and design through epistemological and methodological considerations What kinds of sustainable ways are there for knowledge transfer supporting plural agendas finding novel ways for unsettling conversations unlearning and learning and challenging power structures with marginalised groups and contexts through art and design The main themes of the book are art and design methods epistemologies and practices that provide critical interdisciplinary pluriversal and decolonial considerations The book challenges the domination of the white logic of art and design and shifts away from the Anglo European one world system towards the pluriverse The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual studies arts based research and design studies The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Design School: After Boundaries and Disciplines Paul A. Rodgers, Craig Bremner, 2019-07-15 By examining the contemporary situation of the Design School from a global perspective this book explores how the structure of design learning and teaching research and practice is being transformed by a number of internal external and contextual factors and the implications of these factors for future iterations of the Design School Exploring contemporary design education this book asks whether Design Schools are shaping a new type of designer or if tomorrow's designers will emerge from other professions such as business health care education and computing where design thinking is now regularly applied The book is proposed at a time when governments and markets across the world are reshaping education In a time of rapid and intensive change it looks internationally at the shape of the Design School of the future The book has been developed from a series of summits that explored the future of the contemporary Design School informed by international perspectives from high level invited speakers from design education culture and industry who were asked How can a Design School in the age of the Anthropocene best prepare future designers for this complex world How can the Design School maximize the potential opportunities suggested by this future uncertain world at a time of rapid and intensive change Having changed the planet how should the Design School react to the planet changing us The three summits reflect three significant turns in the contemporary Design School The first focused on the current issues surrounding the Design School from the academic perspective The second summit examined the increasingly intensive relationship between industry and Design Schools The third summit focused on the increasingly close relationship between the Design School and the Cultural Sector The book includes essays from the expanding landscape of the Design School including educational providers the design museum sector the international design festival circuit and influential practitioners engaged in design education The essays in this book provide a valuable comprehensive examination of the future of the Design School and render a unique forecast of its probable trajectory
