Woven Histories, Dancing Lives Richard Davis,2004 Woven Histories Dancing Lives is a collection of essays that communicates the unique histories and cultures of Torres Strait Islanders to a broad audience Not only have Islanders long absorbed the cultural influences from two surrounding landmasses and more recently negotiated the development of two nations in the region their lives have been transformed by 150 years of immigration and new economic and political conditions In this collection readers will discover the remarkable cultural diversity that has emerged from this history The contributors offer new reflections on inter ethnic relationships identity concerns gender relations and the political struggles of Islanders BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Colonized Through Art Marinella Lentis,2017 Colonized through Art explores how the federal government used art education for American Indian children as an instrument for the colonization of consciousness hoping to instill the values and ideals of Western society while simultaneously maintaining a political social economic and racial hierarchy Focusing on the Albuquerque Indian School in New Mexico the Sherman Institute in Riverside California and the world s fairs and local community exhibitions Marinella Lentis examines how the U S government s solution to the Indian problem at the end of the nineteenth century emphasized education and assimilation Educational theories at the time viewed art as the foundation of morality and as a way to promote virtues and personal improvement These theories made the subject of art a natural tool for policy makers and educators to use in achieving their assimilationist goals of turning student savages into civilized men and women Despite such educational regimes for students however indigenous ideas about art oftentimes emerged from below particularly from well known art teachers such as Arizona Swayney and Angel DeCora Colonized through Art explores how American Indian schools taught children to abandon their cultural heritage and produce artificially native crafts that were exhibited at local and international fairs The purchase of these crafts by the general public turned students work into commodities and schools into factories Arts and Activities ,1987 Engaging First Peoples in Arts-Based Service Learning Brydie-Leigh Bartleet,Dawn Bennett,Anne Power,Naomi Sunderland,2015-11-11 This volume offers educators higher education institutions communities and organizations critical understandings and resources that can underpin respectful reciprocal and transformative educative relationships with First Peoples internationally With a focus on service learning each chapter provides concrete examples of how arts based community led projects can enhance and support the quality and sustainability of First Peoples cultural content in higher education In partnership with communities across Australia Aotearoa New Zealand Canada and the United States contributors reflect on diverse projects and activities offer rich and engaging first hand accounts of student community and staff experiences share recommendations for arts based service learning projects and outline future directions in the field Sparkles 5' 2005 Ed. , Teacher's Manual, Pt. 1-6, for The Prang Elementary Course in Art Instruction, Books 1[-12] Third[-eighth] Year John Spencer Clark,Mrs. Mary Dana Hicks,Walter Scott Perry,1896 Art Themes Marjorie Cohee Manifold,2017-11-20 Flexible in approach and full of colorful examples this textbook provides a basic introduction to what art is and can be in the lives of people who do not necessarily think of themselves as artists You will be taught about a variety of art themes genres materials and processes that appeal to novice art makers The lessons are organized by themes of general subject matter or media Options are available for work in mixed media crafts photography and digital media as well as in traditional drawing or painting media After picking a theme of particular interest to you look next at the four strands of lessons presented in that thematic unit Moving from left to right select one lesson from each consecutive strand and complete that lesson Because each lesson builds upon previously presented knowledge and developed skill as you progress through four lessons one from each strand you should grow in your understanding of art concepts meanings and processes while also improving your art making skills Completing this course will help you develop a new appreciation for the power and possibilities of art learning by understanding better the art others create as well as making it yourself Art Teaching George Szekely,Julie Alsip Bucknam,2013-06-17 Art Teaching speaks to a new generation of art teachers in a changing society and fresh art world Comprehensive and up to date it presents fundamental theories principles creative approaches and resources for art teaching in elementary through middle school Key sections focus on how children make art why they make art the unique qualities of children's art and how artistic development can be encouraged in school and at home. Important aspects of curriculum development, integration, evaluation, art room management, and professional development are covered. A wide range of art media with sample art activities is included. Taking the reader to the heart of the classroom, this practical guide describes the realities, challenges, and joys of teaching art, discusses the art room as a zone for creativity, and illustrates how to navigate in a school setting in order to create rich art experiences for students. Many textbooks provide information; this book also provides inspiration. Future and practicing teachers are challenged to think about every aspect of art teaching and to begin formulating independent views and opinions.

Willow Working Lynn Huggins-Cooper, 2021-05-06. A guide to the history of basketry and willow weaving from ancient times to today, plus photos and information for crafters. The story begins in prehistory when people first wove plant fibers together to create containers, shelters, and fences. This book explores the ways in which basketry and willow weaving has continued to be important throughout human history in artistic, economic, and functional terms. It brings us up to date via interviews with modern basketry and willow weaving artisans who generously allowed the author a window into their studios and discussed the way they use and adapt traditional methods, techniques, and tools for the twenty-first century. Photos of their work and their working environments offer a unique view into the world of this ancient craft. Finally, in case you're inspired to try your hand, the book also has a resources section that includes a valuable list of suppliers of plant fibers, plants, and tools, as well as information about training courses, useful websites, and more.

Object Lessons, 2001. By clearly articulating the ways that their work is constructed, the artists in this book instill their unique pieces with a very particular kind of aesthetic, each with its own history and set of associations.

Teaching Off the Wall Jodi Hoch, Dawn Renee Weary, 2002. Children's ministry can be fun and meaningful when you use these incredibly creative resources from Godprints: The Most Creative Children's Ministry Resource Ever. Every activity helps kids learn what God is like and how to become more like Him. That's why we say these are Resources That Leave a Godprint.

Miniature Crafts and Their Makers Katrin Flechsig, 2022-07-12. Picture a throng of tiny devils and angels or a marching band so small it can fit in the palm of your hand. In a Mixtec town in the Mexican state of Puebla, craftspeople have been weaving palm since before the Spanish Conquest, but over the past forty years, that art has become more finely tuned and has won national acceptance in a market nostalgic for an authentic Indian past. In this book, Katrin Flechsig offers the first in-depth ethnographic and historical examination of the miniature palm craft industry, taking readers behind the scenes of craft production in order to explain how and why these folk arts have undergone miniaturization over the past several decades. In describing this Lilliputization of Mexico, she discusses the appeal of miniaturization, revealing how such factors as tourism and the construction of national identity have contributed to an ongoing demand for the tiny creations. She also contrasts the playfulness of the crafts with the often harsh economic and political realities of life in the community. Flechsig places the crafts of Chigmecatitlán within the contexts of manufacturing, local history, religion, design and technique and selling She tells how innovation is introduced into the craft such as through the modification of foreign designs in response to market demands She also offers insights into capitalist penetration of folk traditions the marketing of folk arts and economic changes in modern Mexico And despite the fact that the designations folk and Indian help create a romantic fiction surrounding the craft Flechsig dispels common misperceptions of the simplicity of this folk art by revealing the complexities involved in its creation More than thirty illustrations depict not only finished miniatures but also the artists and their milieu Today miniatures serve not only the tourist market middle class Mexicans also collect miniatures to such an extent that it has been termed a national pastime Flechsig's work opens up this miniature world and shows us the extent to which it has become a lasting and important facet of contemporary Mexican culture African Indigenous Knowledge and the Disciplines Gloria Emeagwali, George J Sefa Dei, 2014-11-26 This text explores the multidisciplinary context of African Indigenous Knowledge Systems from scholars and scholar activists committed to the interrogation production articulation dissemination and general development of endogenous and indigenous modes of intellectual activity and praxis The work reinforces the demand for the decolonization of the academy and makes the case for a paradigmatic shift in content subject matter and curriculum in institutions in Africa and elsewhere with a view to challenging and rejecting disinformation and intellectual servitude Indigenous intellectual discourses related to diverse disciplines take center stage in this volume with a focus on education mathematics medicine chemistry and engineering in their historical and contemporary context
