The Pine Barrens By John McPhee:

The Pine Barrens John McPhee, 2018 The John McPhee Reader John McPhee, 2011-04-01 The John McPhee Reader first published in 1976 is comprised of selections from the author's first twelve books. In 1965 John McPhee published his first book A Sense of Where You Are; a decade later he had published eleven others. His fertility, his precision and grace as a stylist, his wit and uncanny brilliance in choosing subject matter, his crack storytelling skills have made him into one of our best writers, a journalist whom L. E. Sissman ranked with Liebling and Mencken, who Geoffrey Wolff said is bringing his work to levels that have no measurable limit, who has been called a master craftsman so many times that it is pointless to number them. The Pinelands Scenic Study Ricki L. McKenzie, 1985 A Sanctuary of Trees Gene Logsdon, 2012 Whether as an adolescent studying at a seminary or as a journalist living just outside Philadelphia's city limits, Gene has always lived and worked close to the woods, and his curiosity and keen sense of observation have taught him valuable lessons about a wide variety of trees, their distinct characteristics and the multiple benefits and uses they have. In addition to imparting many fascinating practical details of woods wisdom, A Sanctuary of Trees is infused with a philosophy and descriptive lyricism that is born from the author's passionate and lifelong relationship with nature. There is a point at which the tree shudders before it begins its descent. Then slowly it tips, picks up speed, often with a kind of wailing death cry from rending wood fibers, and hits the ground with a whump that literally shakes the earth underfoot. The air in the aftermath seems to shimmy and shiver as if saturated with static electricity. The Pine Barrens John McPhee, Bill Curtsinger, 1981 McPhee's vivid account of the serene landscape, people and folklore of southern New Jersey's immense Pine Barrens is complimented by the photography of Bill Curtsinger. Love and Death in the Pines Mary Casella, 2011-01-05 New Jersey Folk Revival Music: History & Tradition Michael C. Gabriele, 2016 New Jersey shaped folk revival music into an art form. The saga began with the bawdy tunes sung in colonial era taverns and continued with the folk songs that echoed through the Pine Barrens. Guitar Mania became a phenomenon in the 1800s, and twentieth century studio recordings in Camden were monumental. Performances by legendary artists like Woody Guthrie, Pete Seeger, Joan Baez, and Bob Dylan spotlighted the state's folk revival movement and led to a flourishing community of folk organizations, festivals, and open mic nights at village coffeehouses. Author Michael Gabriele traces the evolution and living history of folk revival music in the Garden State and how it has changed the lives of people on stage and in the audience. Whispers in the Pines Joanna Burger, 2006 In this book, naturalist Joanna Burger takes us on a series of delightful trips through the Pine Barrens. From the Albany Pine Bush, the Long Island Barrens, and the New Jersey Pine Barrens in the Northeast to the pinelands of South Carolina and Florida, Burger describes in lively detail how these habitats have come to harbor such a unique assemblage of species. She introduces us to amphibians and reptiles, neotropical migrants, and other birds, and a range of common and unusual mammals. Burger also traces the region's historic and geologic backgrounds and the impact of human occupation from the time of the Paleo Indians to the present. She revisits

the tension between development and preservation reminding us that a healthy pine barren region requires uninterrupted land and rejuvenating fires both of which are increasingly jeopardized Whispers in the Pines is essential reading for everyone concerned with the history and preservation of these unique landscapes and their wildlife Encyclopedia of the Environment in American Literature Geoff Hamilton, Brian Jones, 2014-01-10 This encyclopedia introduces readers to American poetry fiction and nonfiction with a focus on the environment broadly defined as humanity's natural surroundings from the discovery of America through the present The work includes biographical and literary entries on material from early explorers and colonists such as Columbus Bartolome de Las Casas and Thomas Harriot Native American creation myths canonical 18th and 19th century works of Jefferson Emerson Thoreau Whitman Hawthorne Twain Dickinson and others to more recent figures such as Jack London Ernest Hemingway Norman Mailer Stanley Cavell Rachel Carson Jon Krakauer and Al Gore It is meant to provide a synoptic appreciation of how the very concept of the environment has changed over the past five centuries offering both a general introduction to the topic and a valuable resource for high school and university courses focused on environmental issues Looking for a Story Noel Rubinton, 2025-05-13 An annotated bibliography that documents the work of the longtime New Yorker writer journalist Pulitzer Prize winner and Princeton professor John McPhee
