Unsettling Colonial Modernity in Islamicate Contexts Kara Adbolmaleki,Roxana Akhbari,Siavash Saffari,2017-05-11 By focusing on colonial histories and legacies this edited volume breaks new ground in studying modernity in Islamicate contexts From a range of disciplinary perspectives the authors probe colonial modernity as a condition whose introduction into Islamicate contexts was facilitated historically by European encroachment into South Asia the Middle East and Northern Africa They also analyze the various modes through which in Europe itself and in North America by extension people from Islamicate contexts have been and continue to be otherized in the constitution and advancement of the project of modernity The book further brings to light a multiplicity of social political cultural and aesthetic modes of resistance aimed at subverting and unsettling colonial modernity in both Muslim majority and diasporic contexts

Postcolonial Memoir in the Middle East Norbert Bugeja,2012-11-27 This book reconsiders the notion of liminality in postcolonial critical discourse today By visiting Mashriqi writers of memoir Bugeja offers a unique intervention in the understanding of in between and threshold states in present day postcolonialist thought His analysis situates liminal space as a fraught form of consciousness that mediates between conditions of historical contingency and the memorializing present Within the present Mashriqi memoir form liminal spaces may be read as articulations of representational spaces narrative spaces that based as they are within the histories of local communities are nonetheless redolent with memorial and imaginary elements Liminal consciousness today Bugeja argues is a direct consequence of the impact of volatile present day memories on the re conception of the open wounds of history Incisive readings of life writings by Mourid Barghouti Amin Maalouf Orhan Pamuk Amos Oz and Wadad Makdisi Cortas demonstrate the double edged representational chasm that opens up when present acts of memorializing are brought to bear upon the elusive histories of the early twentieth century Mashriq Sifting through the wide ranging theoretical literature on liminality and challenging received views of the concept this book proposes a nuanced materialist and original rethinking of the liminal as a more vigilant outlook onto the political literary and historical predicaments of the contemporary Middle East

Transnational Spaces and Identities in the Francophone World Hafid Gafaiti,2009-07-01 The dissolution of the French Empire and the ensuing rush of immigration have led to the formation of diasporas and immigrant cultures that have transformed French society and the immigrants themselves Transnational Spaces and Identities in the Francophone World examines the impact of this postcolonial immigration on identity in France and in the Francophone world which has encompassed parts of Africa the Middle East Southeast Asia and the Americas Immigrants bear cultural traditions within themselves transform host communities and are in turn transformed These migrations necessarily complicate ideals of national literature culture and history forcing a reexamination and a rearticulation of these ideals Exploring a variety of texts informed by these transnational conceptions of identity and space the contributors to this volume reveal the vitality of Francophone studies within a broad range of disciplines periods and settings They remind us that the idea and reality of Francophonie is not a late twentieth century phenomenon but something that grows out of long term interactions between colonizer and colonized and between peoples of different nationalities ethnicities and religions Truly interdisciplinary this collection engages conceptions of identity with respect to their physical geographic ethnic and imagined realities The Way of the Emigrants Louis Farshee, 2010 A newly married teenage couple emigrates from Mount Lebanon in 1890 to begin a new life in the US Told against the events of the time the 1890s the Great War the Roaring Twenties and the Great Depression they and other immigrants struggle to join main stream America The Smartest Book in the World Greg Proops, 2015-05-05 Greg Proops is a comedian best known for starring on the hit improv comedy show Whose Line Is It Anyway and for his popular podcast The Smartest Man in the World But he is also a fountain of historical knowledge a spring of pop culture non sequiturs and a generally charming know it all The Smartest Book in the World based on his podcast is a rollicking reference guide to the most essential areas of knowledge in the Proopsonian universe from the noteworthy names of the ancient world and baseball to the movies you must see and the albums you must spin From publisher description

The Ghosts of Martyrs Square Michael Young, 2010-04-13 Not since Thomas Friedman's From Beirut to Jerusalem in 1989 has a journalist offered such a poignant and passionate portrait of Lebanon a uniquely pluralist Arab country struggling to defend its viability in a turbulent and treacherous Middle East Michael Young who was taken to Lebanon at age seven by his Lebanese mother after the death of his American father and who has worked most of his career as a journalist there for American publications brings to life a country in the crossfire of invasions war domestic division incessant sectarian scheming and often living in fear of its neighbors Young knows or has known many of the players politicians writers and religious leaders A country riven by domestic tensions that have often resulted in assassinations under the considerable sway of Hezbollah in alliance with Iran and Syria frequently set upon by Israel and Syria nearly destroyed by civil war Lebanon remains an exception among Arab countries because it is a place where liberal instincts and tolerance struggle to stay alive An important and enduring symbol Lebanon was once the outstanding example of an almost democratic society in an inhospitable dangerous region a laboratory both for modernity and violence as a Lebanese intellectual who was later assassinated once put it Young relates the growing tension between a domineering Syria and a Lebanese opposition in which charismatic leader and politician Rafiq al Hariri was assassinated and the Independence Intifada the Cedar Revolution broke out His searing account of his country's confrontation with its domestic and regional demons is one of hope found and possibly lost In this stunning narrative Young tells us what might have been his country s history and what it may yet be
