

TO WRITE LOVE ON HER ARMS

WHAT IS TO WRITE LOVE ON HER ARMS?

- To Write Love on Her Arms is a non-profit organization created in 2007 that helps provide resources for those struggling with mental illness. The organization strives to find resources, funding, and encouragement to individuals needing assistance with their mental health journey. People can browse the visit twloha.com to find mental health resources in their area. Additionally, merchandise can be purchased on the website. The funds raised are used to help fund treatment for those who are unable to afford it.
- The organization was founded by Jamie Tworkowski who set out to help a friend struggling with addiction, depression, and self-harm. Jamie sold t-shirts with the goal of helping his friend pay for the costs of treatment. Later, his friend's story went viral on Myspace and thousands of people shared their stories and challenges with mental illness.
- TWLOH also takes donations, participates in fundraising, and sponsors events to help raise money for those unable to afford mental health treatment.

"You are not alone, and this is not the end of your story."

RESOURCES

- Click the find help tab on the website's main page to see a list of mental health conditions. Choose the condition you are seeking help for and enter your zip code. This will take you to a list of mental health providers, therapists, housing, and social resources that can further assist you. Additionally, scholarships are available to individuals seeking treatment at rehabilitation facilities.
- Call 988 or view a list of crisis hotlines and chats.
- The events page can help you find upcoming mental health walks, groups, festivals, and other activities near you.
- Read stories about hope and success from others who have struggled with mental illness.
