The Publishers Weekly, 2000 Covert Capital Andrew Friedman, 2013-08-03 The capital of the U.S. Empire after World War II was not a city. It was an American suburb. In this innovative and timely history, Andrew Friedman chronicles how the CIA and other national security institutions created a U.S. imperial home front in the suburbs of Northern Virginia. In this covert capital, the suburban landscape provided a cover for the workings of U.S. imperial power, which shaped domestic suburban life. The Pentagon and the CIA built two of the largest office buildings in the country there during and after the war, that anchored a new imperial culture and social world. As the U.S. expanded its power abroad by developing roads, embassies, and villages, its subjects also arrived in the covert capital as real estate agents, homeowners, builders, and landscapers who constructed spaces and living monuments that both nurtured and critiqued postwar U.S. foreign policy. Tracing the relationships among American agents and the migrants from Vietnam, El Salvador, Iran, and elsewhere who settled in the southwestern suburbs of D.C., Friedman tells the story of a place that recasts ideas about U.S. immigration, citizenship, nationalism, global interconnection, and ethical responsibility from the post-WW2 period to the present. Opening a new window onto the intertwined history of the American suburbs and U.S. foreign policy, Covert Capital will also give readers a broad interdisciplinary and often surprising understanding of how U S domestic and global histories intersect in many contexts and at many scales American Crossroads 37 Retirement Is For Sissies Keith Barton,2007-04 You ve got the 401k the back porch overlooking a pond stocked with bass the grandkids the wife sunrises and sunsets so what do you do now The only constant you need worry about is time No more eight am meetings traffic gridlock stained white shirts from leaky pens spam emails and cute greeting cards reminding you that you re a year older You sit on the back porch with your wife of forty years sippin on Starbucks dark roasted Columbia blend as the sun casts an orange hue over the pond rippling with large mouth bass enjoying the morning cool air in the Sandia Mountains Route 66 and Albuquerque can be seen in the distance as the purple shadows grow shorter and the morning dew evaporates from the Yaupon on your five acre spread First Family David Baldacci,2009-04-21 In this 1 New York Times bestseller a child is kidnapped at a presidential retreat and two former Secret Service agents must become private investigators in a desperate search that might destroy them both A daring kidnapping turns a children s birthday party at Camp David the presidential retreat into a national security nightmare Former Secret Service agents turned private investigators Sean King and Michelle Maxwell don t want to get involved But years ago Sean saved the First Lady s husband then a senator from political disaster Now the president s wife presses Sean and Michelle into a desperate search to rescue a kidnapped child With Michelle still battling her own demons the two are pushed to the limit with forces aligned on all sides against them and the line between friend and foe impossible to define or defend Hell's Corner David Baldacci,2010-11-09 Before he can lead a covert mission on the orders of the President a former CIA assassin must track down the source of a terrorist attack and navigate a shadowy world of betrayal and political secrets in this 1 New York Times bestselling thriller John Carr aka Oliver Stone once the most skilled assassin his country ever had stands in Lafayette Park in front of the White House Inside the British prime minister is being honored at a state dinner Then just as the prime minister s motorcade leaves a bomb explodes in the park and in the chaotic aftermath Stone is given an urgent assignment find those responsible British MI 6 agent Mary Chapman becomes his partner in the search for the unknown attackers But their opponents are elusive skilled and increasingly lethal Worst of all the park bombing may have been only the opening salvo in their plan With nowhere else to turn Stone enlists the help of the only people he knows he can trust the Camel Club Simple Genius David Baldacci,2007-04-24 Two ex Secret Service agents must face a dark world of violence codes and spies at a secret CIA training camp in this 1 New York Times bestseller about a mystery that could destroy the nation Near Washington D C there are two clandestine institutions the world s most unusual laboratory and a secret CIA training camp Drawn to these sites by a murder ex Secret Service agent Sean King encounters a dark world of mathematicians codes and spies His search for answers soon leads him to more shocking violence and an autistic girl with an extraordinary genius Now only by working with his partner Michelle Maxwell who is battling her own personal demons can he catch a killer and stop a national threat Bullseye David Baldacci,2014-02-04 In this all new short story from 1 New
