A Muslim Sage Among Peers John D. Barton,2017-10-01 This volume puts Fethullah Gulen and the Hizmet movement in dialogue with Christian theologians philosophers and organizations concerning areas of shared interest The Christian voices represented in these constructed dialogues are diverse contemporary and historical Catholic and Protestant theological and pragmatic While all of the essays explore overlaps and similarities between Gulen and these dialogue partners they also bring to the surface differences and critical assessments The result is a multi faceted conversation that invites us all into deeper levels of historical and theological imagination self reflection and collaborative service Flying with Two Wings Virginia Garrard-Burnett, Yetkin Yildirim, 2011-07-12 Many people are of the opinion that our world faces a crisis a clash of civilizations from which we are unlikely to recover However Turkish born educator scholar and advocate for peace Fethullah G len believes that through education tolerance and dialogue peace can be achieved G len has spoken of what he calls peace islands in an analogy describing his non violent cooperative ideas about conflict resolution The perceived clash of civilizations may come in waves of violence and anger throughout the world but once these waves reach these peace islands they will retreat with the tide leaving the islands unscathed G len ideals provide the blueprint for these islands This collection as a whole attempts what each individual paper proposes a dialogue rooted in tolerance that accounts for the unique histories and assumptions of each member involved Proper interfaith dialogue requires first an encounter between two or more individuals then a willingness rooted in tolerance of each individual to engage with the other This definition of interfaith dialogue is central to G len s writings and indeed to the focus of this collection of papers Each author relates to G len s ideas in a unique way offering a diversity of perspectives that gives true dialogue its vibrant energy The House of Service David Tittensor, 2014 David Tittensor offers a groundbreaking new perspective on the G len movement a Turkish Muslim educational activist network that emerged in the 1960s and has grown into a global empire with an estimated worth of 25 billion Named after its leader Fethullah G len the movement has established more than 1 000 secular educational institutions in over 140 countries aiming to provide holistic education that incorporates both spirituality and the secular sciences Despite the movement s success little is known about how its schools are run or how Islam is operationalized Drawing on thirteen months of ethnographic fieldwork in Turkey Tittensor explores the movement s ideo theology and how it is practiced in the schools His interviews with both teachers and graduates from Africa Indonesia Central Asia and Turkey show that the movement is a missionary organization but of a singular kind its goal is not simply widespread religious conversion but a quest to recoup those Muslims who have apparently lost their way and to show non Muslims that Muslims can embrace modernity and integrate into the wider community Tittensor also examines the movement s operational side and shows how the schools represent an example of Mohammad Yunus s social business model a business with a social cause at its heart The House of Service is an insightful exploration of one of the world s largest transnational Muslim associations and will be invaluable for those seeking to understand how Islam will be perceived and practiced in the future The Gulen Hizmet Movement and Its Transnational Activities Sophia Pandya, Nancy Gallagher, 2012 This volume of essays on the Gulen or Hizmet service movement a Turkish Sufi Muslim and humanitarian civil society group looks at the recent activities of its followers to practice their form of Islam and carry out collective interfaith projects at the international level It adds to the newly burgeoning discourse by focusing on the ways in which participants challenge ideological and sectarian boundaries Included are essays which discuss how the movement is organized structured and institutionalized in many parts of the world explore Turkey s global influence evaluate criticisms of the movement and suggest directions for further research While most previous scholarly attention has focused on the theological and philosophical ideas of Fethullah Gulen the movement s inspirational figure less attention has been paid to the ways in which participants have interpreted and carried out Gulen s messages in the contemporary world

On the Path of the Prophet Mustafa Erdil,2023-09-05 Fethullah G len a contemporary scholar of Islam and activist with a large worldwide following has spent his entire life studying and teaching the Sunnah the tradition of the Prophet Muhammad pbuh This book explores his holistic approach to the vast knowledge of hadith and how he puts his focus on practical interpretations of the Sunnah Dr Erdil shows through the example of Gulen that it is possible to provide solutions to the problems at the individual familial and social levels today if the way of the Prophet is studied in detail and interpreted within the context of the current era

European and Turkish Voices in Favour and Against Turkish Accession to the European Union Christiane Timmerman,Dirk Roelants,Sara Mels,2008 In 2005 the European Commission and the Turkish government started their investigation of the adaptation of Turkish legislation to European law But public opinion remains sceptical and a thorough discussion among European and Turkish proponents is still needed Apart from the many beliefs ideals and prognoses that circulate about the past and future of Europe as well as Turkey the negotiations continue and different scenarios and time frames are being developed In the end it is the question of the otherness of Turkey to Europe that constitutes the core of the discussion and may offer the start of an answer To put forward the arguments for and against Turkish accession to the European Union the University Centre Saint Ignatius Antwerp organised a two day academic workshop held in June 2006 in Antwerp This publication gathers together the opinions of Turkish and European scholars and diplomats about the socio economic cultural religious and political arguments being used in the discussion

Educating Globally Erkan Acar,2014-12-07 The purpose of this case study is to describe the characteristics of a Gulen inspired School GIS in the United States The study identifies the dynamics of a US based GIS in terms of the school s curriculum history educational success hiring practices admission processes and networking In order to understand its unique meaning and significance interviews and observations were conducted in one GIS located in the northeast region of the United States Gulen inspired schools are those founded around the world by the volunteers of the Gulen or Hizmet Movement Gulen inspired schools provide all levels of education K 12 and college levels in different educational systems These schools are inspired by the educational philosophy of Fethullah Gulen a Turkish Muslim scholar living in the United States and numbered around 1 000 in more than 150 countries throughout the world

Making Peace In and With the World Heon Kim,John Raines,2011-12-08 Making Peace In and With the World The G len Movement and Eco Justice is a representative study and working analysis of contemporary Islamic thought on eco justice It cuts through problems facing humanity today ranging from inequality and violence in the smaller globalized world to the end death of nature as signaled by various environmental and ecological crises Addressing these problems this volume sheds light on two dimensions of peace in the earth community making peace between differing human communities and making peace between humanity and nature The phrase Eco Justice in this volume signifies this dual reality thereby offering a unique and insightful view that justice in the world must go hand in hand with ecological justice if peace is to be made With its dual foci of peace this volume contributes to multi disciplinary academic areas It adds to a burgeoning field of religious ecology by exploring the dynamics at play in the interaction between religion human communities and nature and by providing natural scientific works with considerable theoretical philosophical and ethical implications This volume also corresponds to studies in the interdisciplinary field of war and peace Since it deals centrally with the question of religion and eco justice this volume challenges assumptions of exclusivist religion religion oriented violence and the religion based Clash of Civilizations The contributors of this volume from diverse academic backgrounds take G len and the G len movement as the case study Muhammed Fethullah G len is one of the most significant Islamic theologians in the contemporary world and his inspired G len movement is the fastest growing Islamic civic movement worldwide This volume provides a key reference to studies in G len and his movement for new discussions and criticisms And by taking this figure and his movement as a case it reveals a new dimension of peace among differing human communities and between humanity and nature Cross-cultural Dialogue on the Virtues Trudy D. Conway, 2014-07-10 This book explores the development of the influential worldwide Hizmet movement inspired by the Turkish scholar Fethullah G len known for his moderate Islamic emphasis on peaceful relations among diverse people It provides a detailed study of G len s account of the virtues and argues that they provide the key to understanding this thinker and the movement he inspired from its initial establishment of hospitality houses through the growth of worldwide schools hospitals media outlets charitable associations and dialogue centers The book analyzes the distinctive virtues that shaped the Hizmet movement s ethos as well as continue to sustain its expansive energy from the core virtues of tolerance hospitality compassion and charity to a host of related virtues including wisdom humility mildness patience mercy integrity and hope It also examines the Islamic and Sufi roots of G len s understanding of the virtues as well as presents a comparative study of G len s account of the virtues in dialogue with prominent thinkers of the Western philosophical tradition and the religious traditions of Christianity Judaism and Buddhism The Hizmet movement provides living witness to the power and efficacy of tolerance dialogue and peaceful relations among diverse people This book offers an insightful portrait of the core virtues of this movement and the scholar who fully explored them within his writing It will appeal to readers interested in virtue ethics character education cross cultural studies interfaith dialogue and the role of moderate Islam today
