Transit By Anna Seghers:

Transit, 1890 Anna Seghers' Transit Visa Luna Luna, 1998 Passages Elizabeth Kovach, Jens Kugele, Ansgar Nünning, 2022-11-07

The study of literature and culture is marked by various distinct understandings of passages both as phenomena and critical concepts. These include the anthropological notion of rites of passage, the shopping arcades, Passagen theorized by Walter Benjamin, the Middle Passage of the Atlantic slave trade, present day forms of migration and resettlement and understandings of translation and adaptation. Whether structural, semiotic, spatial, geographic, temporal, existential, societal or institutional, passages refer to processes of status change. They enable entrances and exits, arrivals and departures while they also foster moments of liminality and suspension. They connect and thereby engender difference. Passages is an exploration of passages as contexts and processes within which liminal experiences and encounters are situated. It aims to foster a concept-based interdisciplinary dialogue on how to approach and theorize such a term. Based on the premise that concepts travel through times, contexts and discursive settings, a conceptual approach to passages provides the authors of this volume with the analytical tools to re-focus their research questions and create a meaningful exchange across disciplinary, national and linguistic boundaries. Contributions from senior scholars and early career researchers whose work focuses on areas such as cultural memory, performativity, space, media, cultural translation, ecocriticism, gender and race, utilize specific understandings of passages and liminality, reflecting on their value and limits for their research.

Exile and Gender I, 2016-04-08

This new volume in the series Yearbook of the Research Centre for German and Austrian Exile Studies entitled Exile and Gender: Literature and the Press edited by Charmian Brinson and Andrea Hammel focuses on the work of exiled women writers and journalists as well as on gendered representations in the writing of both male and female exiled writers. The contributions are in English or German. The seventeen contributions set out to both celebrate and critically examine the concepts of gender and sexuality in exile in a wide range of texts by well-known and lesser-known authors and throw light on many different aspects of gendered authorship and gendered relations. Our volume also looks at two bibliographic rarities: exile newspapers intended for and directed at a female readership. Die Beiträge sind entweder in deutscher oder englischer Sprache. Die siebzehn Beiträge haben zum Ziel, die Erfolge dieser SchriftstellerInnen zu feiern und die Gender- und Sexualitätskonzepte in den Werken von bekannten und weniger bekannten Schreibenden kritisch zu untersuchen. Weitere Themen sind das weibliche Schreiben und die Beziehungen der Geschlechter im Exil. Kafkaesque Cinema Angelos Koutsourakis, 2024-05-31 For all its familiarity as a widely used term e Kafkaesque cinemae remains an often baffling concept that is poorly understood by film scholars Taking a cue from Jorge Luis Borges point that Kafka has modified our conception of past and future artists and Andre Bazin s suggestion that literary concepts and styles can exceed authors and e novels from which they emanatee this monograph proposes a comprehensive examination of Kafkaesque Cinema in order to understand it as part of a transnational cinematic tradition rooted in Kafka s critique of modernity which however extends beyond the Bohemian author s work and his historical experiences Drawing on a range of disciplines in the Humanities including film literary and theatre studies critical theory and history Kafkaesque Cinema will be the first full length study of the subject and will be a useful resource for scholars and students interested in film theory World Cinema World Literature and politics and representation
