(Re)presenting Brunei Darussalam Lian Kwen Fee,Paul J. Carnegie,Noor Hasharina Hassan,2023-04-06 This thoughtful and wide ranging open access volume explores the forces and issues shaping and defining contemporary identities and everyday life in Brunei Darussalam It is a subject that until now has received comparatively limited attention from mainstream social scientists working on Southeast Asian societies The volume helps remedy that deficit by detailing the ways in which religion gender place ethnicity nation state formation migration and economic activity work their way into and reflect in the lives of ordinary Bruneians In a first of its kind all the lead authors of the chapter contributions are local Bruneian scholars and the editors skilfully bring the study of Brunei into the fold of the sociology of everyday life from multiple disciplinary directions By engaging local scholars to document everyday concerns that matter to them the volume presents a collage of distinct but interrelated case studies that have been previously undocumented or relatively underappreciated These interior portrayals render new angles of vision scale and nuance to our understandings of Brunei often overlooked by mainstream inquiry Each in its own way speaks to how structures and institutions express themselves through complex processes to influence the lives of inhabitants Academic scholars university students and others interested in the study of contemporary Brunei Darussalam will find this volume an invaluable resource for unravelling its diversity and textures At the same time it hopefully stimulates critical reflection on positionality hierarchies of knowledge production cultural diversity and the ways in which we approach the social science study of Brunei I wish to commend the editors for bringing this volume to fruition It is an important book in the context of Southeast Asian sociology and even more important for the development of our social geographical cultural and historical knowledge of Brunei Victor T King University of Leeds

Gender and Self in Islam Etin Anwar,2006-09-27 Using philosophical analysis this book explores the construction of gender in Muslim societies and its implication to the constitution of the self The root of the existing discourse of the hierarchical principle is examined as is the extent to which the process of human reproduction especially the role of women in conception contributes to an anti egalitarian theory of gender The author analyzes the theological cultural and political apparatus of the masculine conception of femininity and seeks to unfold the process of the alienation of the self from a woman s sense of individuality agency and autonomy Incorporating traditional Islamic sources Western feminist texts and Christian texts Gender and Self in Islam seeks to restructure the contradictory claims of gender hierarchy and egalitarianism and elaborate an alternative set of interpretations that is friendly and inclusive of women Globalisation, Education, and Reform in Brunei Darussalam Le Ha Phan,Asiyah Kumpoh,Keith Wood,Rosmawijah Jawawi,Hardimah Said,2021-09-13 This book focuses on the intertwined relationships between globalisation nation building education and reform as manifested throughout the modern history of Brunei Darussalam an Islamic monarchy located on the island of Borneo in Southeast Asia It is the first book dedicated to the examination of Brunei s education system schooling teacher education and society in close connection with the national philosophy Melayu Islam Beraja MIB or Malay Islamic Monarchy The authors provide a historical understanding of the country s education and tell Brunei s story of educational reform and change in its own language narratives accounts and unique standpoints Interdisciplinary chapters draw on significant historical and textual sources in three languages namely Arabic English and Malay to contribute to scholarship on education studies international and comparative education and international and development education Coastal Wetlands: Alteration and Remediation Charles W. Finkl,Christopher Makowski,2017-07-18 This book delves into human induced and natural impacts on coastal wetlands intended or otherwise through a series of vignettes that elucidate the environmental insults and efforts at amelioration and remediation The alteration and subsequent restoration of wetland habitats remain key issues among coastal scientists These topics are introduced through case studies and pilot programs that are designed to better understand the best practices of trying to save what is left of these fragile ecosystems Local approaches as well as national and international efforts to restore the functionality of marsh systems are summarily approached and evaluated by their efficacy in producing resilient reclamations in terms of climate smart habitat conservation The outlook of this work is global in extent and local by intent Included here in summarized form are professional opinions of experts in the field that investigate the crux of the matter which proves to be human pressure on coastal wetland environments Even though conservation and preservation of these delicate environmental systems may be coming at a later date many multi pronged approaches show promise through advances in education litigation and engineering to achieve sustainable coastal systems The examples in this book are not only of interest to those working exclusively with coastal wetlands but also to those working to protect the surrounding coastal areas of all types      Political Handbook of the World 2015 Tom Lansford,2015-03-24 The Political Handbook of the World provides timely thorough and accurate political information with more in depth coverage of current political controversies than any other reference guide The updated 2015 edition will continue to be the most authoritative source for finding complete facts and analysis on each country s governmental and political makeup Compiling in one place more than 200 entries on countries and territories throughout the world this volume is renowned for its extensive coverage of all major and minor political parties and groups in each political system It also provides names of key ambassadors and international memberships of each country plus detailed profiles of more than 30 intergovernmental organizations and UN agencies And this annual update includes coverage of current events issues crises and controversies from the course of this year      Seeking Forgiveness ,2001      Atlas Al-sirah Al-Nabawiyah ,2004 Reviews the biography of the Prophet pbuh and tracks the places honored by his visits the battles he fought and the expeditions and envoys he directed This atlas gives the Seerah in a brief form and includes maps diagrams and photographs to show the places and directions of various events that took place in the life of Prophet degree S      Sexual Ethics and Islam Kecia Ali,2016-01-07 Whether exploring the thorny issues of wives sexual duties divorce homosexuality or sex outside marriage discussions of sexual ethics and Islam often spark heated conflict rather than reasoned argument In this updated and expanded edition of her ground breaking work feminist Muslim scholar Dr Kecia Ali asks how one can determine what makes sex lawful and ethical in the sight of God Drawing on both revealed and interpretative Muslim texts Ali critiques medieval and contemporary commentators alike to produce a balanced and comprehensive study of a subject both sensitive and urgent making this an invaluable resource for students scholars and interested readers      Worldwide Government Directory with Intergovernmental Organizations 2013 CQ Press,2013-05-10 Published for more than 24 years there is no substitute for the Worldwide Government Directory which allows users to identify and reach 32 000 elected and appointed officials in 201 countries plus the European Union Extensive coverage that includes over 1 800 pages of executive legislative and political branches heads of state ministers deputies secretaries and spokespersons as well as state agencies diplomats and senior level defense officials It also covers the leadership of more than 100 international organizations World Government contact information that includes phone numbers and email Listings include Name addresses telephone and fax numbers email and web addresses Titles Hierarchical arrangements defining state structures      Political Handbook of the World 2012 Tom Lansford,Tom Muller,2012-04-02 For this edition the Handbook editors have attempted to cover national elections for all of 2011 This information is incorporated within the regular text wherever possible or in headnotes at the beginning of the country entries for elections that occurred in the latter part of the year Each entry begins with information on a country's political status, area, population, major urban centers, languages, currency, and head of state and chief executive. Demographic and economic information is presented in the section titled The Country, while political background, constitution, and government, foreign relations, and current issues are examined in Government and Politics. Political Parties and Groups provides an extensive analysis of formal parties, political groupings, and any antigovernment or illegal formations. Each entry ends with an overview of the nation's legislature, a current cabinet list, and a brief intergovernment representation section including a membership list of intergovernment organizations for the respective country.

Historical Dictionary of Brunei Darussalam Jatswan S. Sidhu, 2016-12-20. After being a British protectorate for about 96 years since the 1888 Treaty of Protection, the modern state of Negara Brunei Darussalam Abode of Peace eventually obtained its independence from Great Britain on 1 January 1984. Run by a royal family that established a kingdom in Brunei some 650 years ago, the first sultan, Muhammad Shah Alak Betatar, was installed in c. 1363. Sultan Hassanal Bolkiah, the current ruler, is the 29th sultan of the lineage and is one of the richest men in the world. In spite of being called a mini state, Brunei is well known around the world because its population enjoys one of the highest gross national income per capita in the world at an average of US$39,943 in 2015.

This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Brunei Darussalam contains a chronology, an introduction, appendixes, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 300 cross-referenced entries on important personalities, politics, economy, foreign relations, religion, and culture. This book is an excellent access point for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about the Brunei Darussalam.

Brunei Marie-Sybille de Vienne, 2015-03-09. Now an energy-rich sultanate for centuries, a important trading port in the South China Sea, Brunei has taken a different direction than its Persian Gulf peers. Immigration is restricted, and Brunei's hydrocarbon wealth is invested conservatively, mostly outside the country. Today home to some 393,000 inhabitants and comprising 5,765 square kilometers in area, Brunei first appears in the historical record at the end of the 10th century. After the Spanish attack of 1578, Brunei struggled to regain and expand its control on coastal West Borneo and to remain within the trading networks of the South China Sea. It later fell under British sway, and a residency was established in 1906, but it took the discovery of oil in Seria in 1929 before the colonial power began to establish the bases of a modern state. Governed by an absolute monarchy, Bruneians today nonetheless enjoy a high level of social protection and rule of law. Ranking second after Singapore in Southeast Asia in terms of standards of living, the sultanate is implementing an Islamic penal code for the first time in its history. Focusing on Brunei's political, economy, history, and geography, this book aims to understand the forces behind Brunei's to and fro of tradition and modernisation.
