Unless By Carol Shields:

Unless Carol Shields, 2010-08-19 Dazzling novel from Carol Shields author of The Stone Diaries winner of the Pulitzer Prize and Larry's Party winner of the Orange Prize Unless by Carol Shields Kevin Brophy, 2002 Unless -Lib Carol Shields, 2006-01-01 Novelist Reta Winter's idyllic life is shattered when her eldest daughter abandons her life to sit on a gritty street corner with a sign reading GOODNESS around her neck a situation that prompts Reta to uncover what drove her daughter to her new existence Relating Carol Shields's Essays and Fiction Nora Foster Stovel, 2023-01-01 This collection of essays explores celebrated Canadian author Carol Shields's experimentation with the essay genre in relation to her fiction Shields's essays clarify her iconoclastic approach to rules of narrative and illuminate her revisionist policies elucidating the development of her fiction both novels and stories as her writing gradually becomes more explicitly feminist as well as more daringly postmodernist The dozen essays by the eminent Canadianists included in this edition throw fresh light on Shields's writing inviting us to read it with new eyes by revealing how her essays reflect and refract the brilliance of her fiction These essays read Shields's fiction through the lens of her essays including those contained in the recent Giardini edition wherein the author explains the creative methodologies involved in her fiction and also offers specific advice to writers of fiction

Unless Carol Shields, 2017-08-15 Written with sadness and honesty Unless is a bittersweet reflection on women and their place in world real and literary Reta Winters has spent her 44 years in quiet contentment Enjoying her moderate success as an author working as a translator for Danielle Westerman and satisfied by the other small pleasures of her life Reta has no cause for complaint That is until her oldest daughter Norah drops out of university and parks herself on a street corner wearing a sign around her neck that reads Goodness Confused and angry Reta is forced out of her contentment and into restless reflection As she tries to understand the meaning of her daughter's decision she turns to writing to provide solace for her anger As she pens her rage into unsent letters Reta confronts her thoughts on women in the world in writing and as writers Canadian Cultural Exchange / Échanges culturels au Canada Norman Cheadle, Lucien Pelletier, 2011-04-07 The essays in Canadian Cultural Exchange / Échanges culturels au Canada provide a nuanced view of Canadian transcultural experience Rather than considering Canada as a bicultural dichotomy of colonizer colonized this book examines a field of many cultures and the creative interactions among them This study discusses from various perspectives Canadian cultural space as being in process of continual translation of both the other and oneself Les articles réunis dans Canadian Cultural Exchange / Échanges culturels au Canada donnent de l'expérience transculturelle canadienne une image nuancée Plutôt que dans les termes d'une dichotomie biculturelle entre colonisateur et colonisé le Canada y est vu comme champ où plusieurs cultures interagissent de manière créative Cette étude présente sous de multiples aspects le processus continu de traduction d'autrui et de soi-même auquel l'espace culturel canadien sert de théâtre The Worlds of Carol Shields David Staines, 2014-12-02 Carol was a very fine writer and a remarkable human being a wonderful person whose work I closely followed for more than 20 years I interviewed her frequently over those years with virtually every work she produced novel radio drama play book of stories So I had a good sense of the span of her work and also her evolution as a stylist But the key reason I wanted to make a book focusing on her life and work is that we were friends Eleanor Wachtel This book strikes the right balance between intimate accounts and literary analysis It opens with reminiscences by close friend Eleanor Wachtel which are followed by a study of Shields poetry by her daughter and grandson then by various aspects of her fiction including a detailed examination of her plays It closes with reminiscences by four close friends Jane Urquhart Joan Clark Wayson Choy and Martin Levin The 23 contributors offer new insights new theories and new perspectives about Shields illuminating career Only one piece her obituary written by Margaret Atwood has been previously published

New York and Toronto Novels after Postmodernism Caroline Rosenthal, 2011 Cities are material and symbolic spaces through which nations define their cultural identities The great cities that have arisen on the North American continent have stimulated the imaginations of the United States and Canada in very different ways This first comparative study of North American urban fiction starts out by delineating the sociohistorical and literary contexts in which cities grew into diverging symbolic spaces in American and Canadian culture After an overview of recent developments in the cultural conception of urban space the book takes New York and Toronto fiction as exemplary for exploring representations of the urban after postmodernism It analyzes four twenty first century novels two set in New York Siri Hustvedt's What I Loved and Paule Marshall's The Fisher King and two set in Toronto Carol Shields's Unless and Dionne Brand's What We All Long For While these texts continue to echo the specific traditions of nation building and canon formation in the United States and Canada they also share certain features All of them investigate the affective crossroads of the city while returning to a more realistic mode of representation Caroline Rosenthal is Professor of American Literature at the Friedrich Schiller University in Jena Germany

Rider of the Clouds Diane Sims, 2007-11

Margaret Atwood Fiona Tolan, 2007-01-01 Margaret Atwood Feminism and Fiction takes a new look at the complex relationship between Margaret Atwood's fiction and feminist politics Examining in detail the concerns and choices of an author who has frequently been termed feminist but has famously rejected the label on many occasions this book traces the influences of feminism in Atwood's work and simultaneously plots moments of dissent or debate Fiona Tolan presents a clear and detailed study of the first eleven novels of one of Canada's most prominent authors Each chapter can be read as an individual textual analysis whilst the chronological structure provides a fascinating insight into the shifting concerns of a popular and influential author over a period of nearly thirty five years

Representing Minorities Soumia Boutkhil, Larbi Touaf, 2009-01-14 The papers in this volume include not only the traditional view of what constitutes a minority but also any individual or group recalcitrant and reluctant not to say resistant to the generalized lobotomy operated by the rampant uniformisation of cultures around the world For in the ruins of the end of history and its context of violence and Manichean politics any opposition to the general consensus could be dismissed as anti historical and atavistic The objective of the book is precisely to counter such rhetoric and underscore the necessity of cultural diversity and the right to difference This book contains what can amount to a critical response to the current context of confusion surrounding the postmodern condition that arguably dominates most societies It stresses the issue of ethics not only in world politics but also in literature and criticism which are the main focus here In fact the interest in minority issues is in itself an ethical concern that contributes to give substance to the idea that postmodernity opens the gates for the long suppressed identities and sensibilities to emerge and demand recognition This volume intends therefore to contribute to the recent ethical turn that seems to take place in scholarship worldwide Operated mainly by what is referred to as postcolonial studies this shift turned literary criticism and cultural studies into the site where a sense of literature can be envisioned that is not at all universalist or reflecting the hegemonic temptations of the new world order It seeks to present a patchwork of minor literatures in the sense that besides the major literatures languages there are myriads of minor voices that express dissimilarity oftentimes under the umbrella of those major languages and literatures themselves

Inspiring Women Gail Youngberg, Mona Holmlund, Saskatoon Women's Calendar Collective, 2003 The history of women in Canada is one of starting out struggling to feed and clothe their families and ending up writing the great Canadian novel Inspiring Women charts women's course from subsistence to cultural production

Culture Wars in British Literature Tracy J. Prince, 2012-09-21 The past century's culture wars that Britain has been consumed by but that few North Americans seem aware of have resulted in revised notions of Britishness and British literature Yet literary anthologies remain anchored to an archaic Anglo English interpretation of British literature Conflicts have been played out over specific national vs British identity some residents prefer to describe themselves as being from Scotland England Wales or Northern Ireland instead of Britain in debates over immigration race ethnicity class and gender and in arguments over British literature These debates are strikingly detailed in such chapters as The Difficulty Defining Black British British Jewish Writers and Xenophobia and the Booker Prize Connections are also drawn between civil rights movements in the U S and UK This generalist cultural study is a lively read and a fascinating glimpse into Britain's changing identity as reflected in 20th and 21st century British literature

The Power and Vulnerability of Love Elizabeth O'Donnell Gandolfo, 2015 Gandolfo constructs a theological anthropology that begins with the condition of human vulnerability as a site to answer why human beings experience and inflict terrible suffering This volume argues that vulnerability is a dimension of human existence that causes us great anxiety which forms the basis for violence but also affords the possibility Prizing Literature Gillian Roberts, 2011-01-01 When Canadian authors win prestigious literary prizes from the Governor General's Literary Award to the Man Booker Prize they are celebrated not only for their achievements but also for contributing to this country's cultural capital Discussions about culture national identity and citizenship are particularly complicated when the honorees are immigrants like Michael Ondaatje Carol Shields or Rohinton Mistry Then there is the case of Yann Martel who is identified both as Canadian and as rootlessly cosmopolitan How have these writers' identities been recalibrated in order to claim them as representative Canadians Prizing Literature is the first extended study of contemporary award winning Canadian literature and the ways in which we celebrate its authors Gillian Roberts uses theories of hospitality to examine how prize winning authors are variously received and honoured depending on their citizenship and the extent to which they represent Canadianness Prizing Literature sheds light on popular and media understandings of what it means to be part of a multicultural nation The Literary Review , 2004
