Portrait of the Artist as a Young Adult Lois Thomas Stover, Connie S. Zitlow, 2013-10-30 Young adults often struggle with confusion or guilt because they perceive themselves as different from others especially their peers For some of these individuals the arts can help them cope with adolescent turmoil allowing them to express their emotions in poems stories painting songs and other creative outlets Sensitive teachers and parents know how important it is for young people to realize that they are not alone in their quest for self knowledge and finding their way in the world It can make a difference when readers find something in a book that helps them understand more about who they are and helps them understand others In Portrait of the Artist as a Young Adult The Arts in Young Adult Literature Lois Thomas Stover and Connie S Zitlow examine books in which the coming of age for young adults is influenced by the arts Stover and Zitlow consider the connection between the arts and a young person s developing sense of self the use of art to cope with loss and grief and how young adults can use art to foster catharsis and healing The young people in these books either identify as artists or use the arts in intentional ways to explore their identities They often have artistic gifts that make them stand outside the norms of teenage life yet those gifts also help them find a sense of community Artists considered in this book include painters photographers sculptors actors directors choreographers dancers composers musicians graffiti artists and others The books discussed also explore the ways adults can nurture the artist s development and understand the way young people sometimes use the arts to form their unique identity Included is an annotated bibliography organized by art discipline as well as an appendix about using the arts pedagogically making Portrait of the Artist as a Young Adult a valuable resource for educators parents librarians and young adults
