Ismail Kadare Peter Morgan, 2017-07-05 Ismail Kadare has experienced a life of controversy In his own country and internationally he has been both acclaimed as a writer and condemned as a lackey of the Albanian socialist dictatorship Coming of age after occupation and war Kadare b 1936 belonged to the first generation of new Albanians In a land where writers were routinely imprisoned Kadare produced the most brilliant and subversive works to emerge from socialist Eastern Europe His work brings to an end the century whose literary beginnings were marked by the terror to which Kafka gave his name The inaugural award of the International Man Booker Prize for Literature in 2005 marked an important milestone in the global recognition of Kadare Ironical multi-layered and imaginative Kadare's writing is profoundly opposed to ideology Through critical analysis of a representative selection of Kadare's works Peter Morgan explains for a wide audience how Kadare survived and wrote in the repressive Albanian Stalinist environment Peter Morgan is Professor of European Studies at the University of Western Australia

The World of Theatre Ian Herbert, Nicole Leclercq, 2000 The World of Theatre is an on the spot account of current theatre activity across six continents The year 2000 edition covers the three seasons from 1996-97 to 1998-99 in over sixty countries more than ever before The content of the book is as varied as the theatre scene it describes from magisterial round ups by leading critics in Europe Peter Hepple of The Stage and North America Jim O Quinn of American Theatre to what are sometimes literally war torn countries such as Iran or Sierra Leone Living in the End Times Slavoj Žižek,2011-04-18 Economics Encyclopedia of the World Novel, 1900 to the Present Michael David Sollars,Arbolina Llamas Jennings,2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition a useful and engaging reference to the vast world of the novel in world literature Technique and Technology Adrian Armstrong,2000 Literary studies cannot neglect the study of books the physical objects through which literary texts are transmitted Book form is especially relevant to the literature of the late fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries which saw the crucial shift from manuscript to print in Western Europe This book examines manuscripts and printed editions of three major French writers of this key period Jean Molinet Jean Lemaire de Belges and Jean Bouchet Presentational features which influence the reading of poems such as layout illustration anthologization and paratext are analysed The development of these features reflects a gradual change in the ways in which literary self consciousness is manifested In earlier texts produced within an essentially manuscript culture poets creative investment in their work is exhibited primarily as formal virtuosity As printing becomes dominant such virtuosity tends to be rejected in favour of self commentary and an apparently more personal discourse Albania Gillian Gloyer,2008 Written by an insider and Albania enthusiast the Bradt guide to Albania takes a fresh look at how and where to explore the heritage of this hidden corner of eastern Europe Re-Entering Old Spaces Aleksandra Nikcevic-Batricevic,2016-05-11 This book is a product of the XI International Conference on English Language and Literary Studies held in Montenegro in 2014 The old spaces were taken as a metaphorical tool for reintroducing a wide range of established topics with new approaches Space was thus understood as physical mechanical continuous linear as measurable and symbolic as subjective and relational and as aesthetic It was found on maps in architecture on theatre stages in books in hearts in one s identity in time and in theses and theories from the Aristotelian topos to Einstein s construct of space time Therefore the means of travel to these spaces and the forms the journeys take are also multifarious However so are the discursive strategies and their limitations when it comes to presenting the journeys and their destinations The contributors to this volume represent a range of nationalities and present research that either follows in the footsteps of other authors in a literal or secondary literary journey to real geographical places or observes the universal literary and old theoretical issues through new critical lenses Indeed they are often on both roads witnessing how inextricable human efforts are to finding identifying and aestheticising oneself in relation to a particular space Their contributions to this book expose how spaces were created and recreated through writing and symbolical representations in general They also show how the images of these spaces have been changing in consent to the intentions of their visitors and reveal that persistent and obstinate moment in a space that despite or in spite of changing perspectives itself refuses to be changed The book will encourage for further contributions to this expanding field in the humanities In their numerous and distinct ways the contributions to this particular book maintain that understanding how spaces are conceived and conceptualised is of pronounced importance in the globalized world in which cultures are gradually losing authenticities while their spaces geographical tourist spiritual literary aesthetic are as reflective of the visitors as they are of the hosts

The Triumph of the Slippers Pascal Bruckner, 2024-04-09 Since the beginning of the 21st century global warming terrorism the pandemic and now the war in Ukraine have created a widespread feeling that the world is an increasingly dangerous place In response to this situation it is understandable that many people are inclined to retreat to the safety of their home the last refuge and safeguard against the savagery of the outside world But the home is not just a shelter it is a space that supplants and replaces the world a wired cocoon that gradually renders any journey to the outside world superfluous From our couch we can enjoy remotely the pleasures once offered by the cinema the theatre and the caf Everything from food to love to art can be delivered to your door Armed with a smartphone and a Netflix account why would anyone risk life and limb to venture out to the cinema Compulsory confinement the nightmare of the pandemic years seems to have been replaced by voluntary self confinement Fleeing from the cities working remotely relinquishing travel and tourism we risk becoming reclusive creatures that cower at the slightest tremor In this witty and spirited book Pascal Bruckner takes aim at today's voluntary seclusionism and the self inflicted atrophy that comes with it tracing its philosophical contours and historical roots It is no longer the tyranny of lockdowns that threatens us but rather the tyranny of the sofa will the slipper and the dressing gown be the new symbols of tomorrow's world
