Alison Calder,Robert Wardhaugh,2005-05-16 The Canadian Prairie has long been represented as a timeless and unchanging location defined by settlement and landscape Now a new generation of writers and historians challenge that perception and argue instead that it is a region with an evolving culture and history In a collection of ten essays History Literature and the Writing of the Canadian Prairies explores a more contemporary prairie identity and reconfigures the prairie as a construct that is non linear and diverse responding to the impact of geographical historical and political currents These writers explore the connections between document and imagination between history and culture and between geography and time The subjects of the essays range widely the non linear structure of Carol Shield s The Stone Diaries the impact of Aberhart s Social Credit Marshall McLuhan and Mesopotamian myth on Robert Kroetsch s prairie postmodernism the role of document in long prairie poems the connection between cultural tourism and heritage the theme of regeneration in Margaret Laurence s Manawaka writing the influence of imagination on geography in Thomas Wharton s Icefields and the effects on an alpine climber of pre WWII ideological concepts of time and individualism The Death of Cuyler Goodwill ,1996 The Cambridge Companion to Canadian Literature Eva-Marie Kröller,2004-02-05 This book offers a comprehensive and engaging introduction to major writers genres and topics in Canadian literature Contributors pay attention to the social political and economic developments that have informed literary events Broad surveys of fiction drama and poetry are complemented by chapters on Aboriginal writing francophone writing autobiography literary criticism writing by women and the emergence of urban writing in a country traditionally defined by its regions Also discussed are genres that have a special place in Canadian literature such as nature writing exploration and travel writing and short fiction RE: Reading the Postmodern Robert David Stacey,2011-01-14 It would be difficult to exaggerate the worldwide impact of postmodernism on the fields of cultural production and the social sciences over the last quarter century even if the concept has been understood in various even contradictory ways An interest in postmodernism and postmodernity has been especially strong in Canada in part thanks to the country s non monolithic approach to history and its multicultural understanding of nationalism which seems to align with the decentralized plural and open ended pursuit of truth as a multiple possibility as outlined by Jean Fran ois Lyotard In fact long before Lyotard published his influential work The Postmodern Condition in 1979 Canadian writers and critics were employing the term to describe a new kind of writing RE Reading the Postmodern marks a first cautious step toward a history of Canadian postmodernism exploring the development of the idea of the postmodern and debates about its meaning and its applicability to various genres of Canadian writing and charting its decline in recent years as a favoured critical trope Published in English NOVELS FOR STUDENTS CENGAGE LEARNING. GALE,2016 Relating Carol Shields's Essays and Fiction Nora Foster Stovel,2023-01-01 This collection of essays explores celebrated Canadian author Carol Shields s experimentation with the essay genre in relation to her fiction Shields s essays clarify her iconoclastic approach to rules of narrative and illuminate her revisionist policies elucidating the development of her fiction both novels and stories as her writing gradually becomes more explicitly feminist as well as more daringly postmodernist The dozen essays by the eminent Canadianists included in this edition throw fresh light on Shields s writing inviting us to read it with new eyes by revealing how her essays reflect and refract the brilliance of her fiction These essays read Shields s fiction through the lens of her essays including those contained in the recent Giardini edition wherein the author explains the creative methodologies involved in her fiction and also offers specific advice to writers of fiction The Palgrave Handbook of Animals and Literature Susan McHugh,Robert McKay,John Miller,2020-11-25 This volume is the first comprehensive guide to current research on animals animality and human animal relations in literature To reflect the history of literary animal studies to date its primary focus is literary prose and poetry in English while also accommodating emergent discussions of the full range of media and contexts with which literary studies engages especially film and critical theory User friendly language references even suggestions for further readings are included to help newcomers to the field understand how it has taken shape primarily through recent decades To further aid teachers sections are organized by conventions of periodization and chapters address a range of canonical and popular texts Bookended by sections devoted to the field s conceptual foundations and new directions the volume is designed to set an agenda for literary animal studies for decades to come New York Magazine ,1994-03-07 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea When Words Deny the World Stephen Henighan,2002 It s the liveliest most cogently argued most provocative and most infuriatingly self satisfied work of literary criticism to be published in this country in at least the last decade

Feminist Spaces Malashri Lal,1997 Prizing Literature Gillian Roberts,2011-01-01 When Canadian authors win prestigious literary prizes from the Governor General s Literary Award to the Man Booker Prize they are celebrated not only for their achievements but also for contributing to this country s cultural capital Discussions about culture national identity and citizenship are particularly complicated when the honorees are immigrants like Michael Ondaatje Carol Shields or Rohinton Mistry Then there is the case of Yann Martel who is identified both as Canadian and as rootlessly cosmopolitan How have these writers identities been recalibrated in order to claim them as representative Canadians Prizing Literature is the first extended study of contemporary award winning Canadian literature and the ways in which we celebrate its authors Gillian Roberts uses theories of hospitality to examine how prize winning authors are variously received and honoured depending on their citizenship and the extent to which they represent Canadianness Prizing Literature sheds light on popular and media understandings of what it means to be part of a multicultural nation Re-writing Pioneer Women in Anglo-Canadian Literature Conny Steenman-Marcusse,Cornelia Janneke Steenman-Marcusse,2001 This study investigates the connections between nineteenth century pioneer women in Canada and their putative twentieth century biographers in Anglo Canadian women s fiction by Carol Shields Small Ceremonies 1976 Daphne Marlatt Ana Historic 1988 and Susan Swan The Biggest Modern Woman of the World 1983 These three texts reveal definite problems in the formation of Canadian female identities but they also revalorise the traditionally underprivileged halves of binary structures such as female male other self body intellect subjectivity objectivity and Canada imperial centres
