Redefining the Subject Charlotte Sturges, 2021-09-20 This volume takes up the challenge of Canadian women's writing in its diversity in order to examine the terms on which subjectivity in its social political and literary dimensions emerges as discourse Work from writers as diverse as Dionne Brand Hiromi Goto and Margaret Atwood among others are studied both in their specific dimensions and through the collective focus of cultural and textual revision which characterizes Canadian writing in the feminine Current theorizing on the postcolonial imaginary is brought to bear in the interests of forging or unpacking those links which tie the Self to culture As such Redefining the Subject sets out to discover the limits of the aesthetic in its encounter with the political the figures and designs which envisage textual reimaginings as statements of a contemporary Canadian reality

Cinematic Howling Hoi Cheu, 2010-10-01 Cinematic Howling presents a refreshingly unorthodox framework for feminist film studies Instead of criticizing mainstream movies from feminist perspectives Hoi Cheu focuses on women's filmmaking itself Integrating systems theory and feminist aesthetics in his close readings of films and screenplays by women he considers how women engage the process of storytelling in cinema The importance of these films he argues is not merely that they reflect women's perceptions but that they have the power to reframe experiences and consequently to transform life A major contribution to feminist scholarship that will appeal to scholars of both gender and film Cinematic Howling is written in an approachable and inviting style full of vivid examples and attention to detail which will suit both undergraduate and graduate courses in gender film and cultural studies
