The Small House at Allington: Anthony Trollope (the Small House at Allington) Anthony Trollope Novel Chronicles of Barsetshire Literary) [Annotated] Anthony Trollope, 2021-12-27

The Small House at Allington is the fifth novel in Anthony Trollope's series known as the Chronicles of Barsetshire, first published in 1864. It concerns the Dale family who live in the Small House, a dower house intended for the widowed mother Dowager of the owner of the estate. There are two houses at Allington: The Great House is the residence of Squire Christopher Dale, an unmarried plain seemingly dour man whose ancestors were squires at Allington for generations. In the Small House nearby lives his sister-in-law Mrs Dale and her two daughters, Bell and Lily. Mrs Dale is the widow of the squire's youngest brother who died young and left his family in modest circumstances. When the squire offered his brother's widow the Small House rent-free, she immediately accepted his offer not so much for her own sake as for that of her daughters. The Dales are not the chief family of the neighborhood. Near the town of Guestwick stands Guestwick Manor, the home of Lord de Guest and his sister Lady Julia. Although not intimate, the families have a tie by marriage. Years before, another of the squire's brothers, Colonel Orlando Dale, eloped with the earl's sister Lady Fanny. The colonel did not make a career for himself and now lives with his wife in semiretirement at Torquay. Bernard Dale, their only son and a captain in the Engineers, is the squire's heir.
