Chinua Achebe's Legacy James Ogude, 2015-12-01 Chinua Achebe's novels and essays have always drawn our attention to issues of memory the story history and our own obligation to history as Africans Achebe constantly goes back to the authority of narrative the story and as the subsequent generations of African writers like Chimamanda Adichie keep returning to to celebrate Africa's many stories its moments of failure and triumph Achebe more than any other writer on this continent has inspired many and hopefully the African story tellers of the coming centuries irrespective of their location will continue to be inspired by him This collection of essays is an enduring tribute to this rich legacy of Achebe A Short History of Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart Terri Ochiagha, 2018-11-12 The publication of Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart 1958 is heralded as the inaugural moment of modern African fiction and the book remains the most widely read African novel of all time Translated into dozens of languages it has sold more than twelve million copies and has become a canonical reading in schools the world over While Things Fall Apart is neither the first African novel to be published in the West nor necessarily the most critically valued its iconic status has surpassed even that of its author Until now in the sixtieth anniversary year of its publication there has not been an updated history that moves beyond the book's commonly discussed contexts and themes In the accessible and concise A Short History of Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart Terri Ochiagha provides that history asking new questions and bringing to wider attention unfamiliar but crucial elements of the Things Fall Apart story These include new insights into questions of canonicity and into literary historiographical and precolonial aesthetic influences She also assesses adaptations and appropriations not just in films but in theater hip hop and popular literary genres such as Onitsha Market Literature NIGERIA - GIANT OF AFRICA Wale Owoeye, 2025-02-20 NIGERIA GIANT OF AFRICA pays homage to the greatness of the most popular nation on the black continent Capturing in ten chapters what makes Nigeria a great nation of achievers explore the origins politics structure special places stellar personalities and important milestones of Nigeria as it has evolved in the last 60 years A special dedication to all Nigerian youths worldwide who believes in the future greatness of Nigeria be inspired to discover and celebrate the giant in you The ^ANovel and the Globalization of Culture Michael Valdez Moses, 1995-05-25 Bringing together canonical European authors with authors from the Third World this book analyzes the emergence of the modern global novel and the way it mirrors the underlying process of cultural globalization Through detailed readings of Stendhal Hardy Conrad Achebe and Vargas Llosa this study reveals how the spread of Western modernity materially and culturally has been shadowed by the destruction of traditional societies These novels focus on the individual tragedies of those who represent pre modern ways of life in the process offering a corrective to Hegel's abstruse philosophy of history From rural Victorian England to the Malay Archipelago and from the Igbo heartland in Africa to the backlands of Brazil a global narrative unfolds one where the forces of modernization clash with the defenders of traditional society Moses contributes to the ongoing debate on Alexandre Kojve

and the end of history while at the same time moving beyond sterile oppositions canonical versus non canonical works formal literary criticism versus political historical critique With its new conceptualization of modernity and globalization this book will interest the literary scholar cultural critic social scientist and political theorist Black African Literature in English, 1997-1999 Bernth Lindfors, 2003 This volume lists the work produced on anglophone black African literature between 1997 and 1999 This bibliographic work is a continuation of the highly acclaimed earlier volumes compiled by Bernth Lindfors Containing about 10 000 entries some of which are annotated to identify the authors discussed it covers books periodical articles papers in edited collections and selective coverage of other relevant sources Critiquing the Postcolonial Construct in Chinua Achebe's Novels Ranjana Das Sarkhel, 2018-11-21 Chinua Achebe's novels have always been read as texts from an erstwhile colonised African nation interpreted within the parameters suggested by postcolonial theorists The confines of postcolonial readings have raised questions about when the postcolonial period would end so that writers would no longer need to write back to the empire or rewrite their histories This work explores how Achebe's novels articulate his knowledge of his own people and the manner in which he participates in the politics of representation He critiques the postcolonial methodology and seeks out recovers and provides an alternative narrative of the postcolonial experience and its aftermath even as he seems to be moving beyond it Achebe's narratives do not conform to the postcolonial constructs of history as telling rather than recalling and of nations in terms of states rather than people Achebe combines the techniques available to historians documentation with those of novelists the imaginative re creation of events for his fictional evocation of the past He emphasises both the African artists role in helping to create a more egalitarian society and that of the act of storytelling as a shaping force in people's lives As he negotiates between his narrative form and realistic subject matter Achebe puts forward a powerful critique of colonisation and its aftermath Achebe represents a canonical voice in the emerging discourse of writers struggling to break free from the clichéd world of anti imperialism and decolonisation

Colonial and Postcolonial Rewritings of "Heart of Darkness" Regelind Farn, 2005 Joseph Conrad's novella Heart of Darkness 1899 is taught and read all over the world Everywhere novelists and travel writers respond to it in their own creative work I discuss 30 responses or rewritings from Africa India the Caribbean Australia Europe and the US Their perspectives include those of groups who identify with Conrad's Europeans and groups who feel close to his Africans and increasingly those of groups who situate themselves between these two extremes in various ways I identify world wide developments as well as themes strategies and paradigm shifts that correlate with different geopolitical situations Rewriters address the contribution Conrad has made to the identities of his very different readers and the patterns he has suggested for encounters In ever more intense dialogues people from all backgrounds work through images of themselves and of each other However like Conrad's narrator they also become aware of limits of language and communication Rewriters act as rereaders of the many layers of meaning in Heart of Darkness and thus imply that the reader's experience is as important as the author s This approach is increasingly developing into a use of discourse analytical methods in non theoretical texts Rewritings can bring Heart of Darkness close to the readers lives Rewriters champion processes of highly personal learning and unlearning as well as political and social approaches and can thus help readers rework their own cultural backgrounds Accordingly I both use close reading methods and take into account political and didactic intentions In conclusion I recommend reading Heart of Darkness together with one or more of its rewritings and outline some ideas for teaching such combinations After comprehensive introductions to Heart of Darkness and to the theory of rewritings I discuss works by the following authors in a convenient handbook format Ford Madox Ford Hueffer Leonard Woolf W Somerset Maugham Andre Gide Louis Ferdinand Celine Graham Greene Charlotte Jay Patrick White Chinua Achebe Wilson Harris Ngugi wa Thiong o Tayeb Salih Arun Joshi J M Coetzee V S Naipaul Robert Silverberg Caryl Phillips David Dabydeen Marlene NourbeSe Philip David Malouf Mineke Schipper Abdulrazak Gurnah Urs Widmer Redmond O Hanlon Arundhati Roy Barbara Kingsolver and Jeffrey Tayler

African Literatures in English Gareth Griffiths, 2014-09-19 Here is an introduction to the history of English writing from East and West Africa drawing on a range of texts from the slave diaspora to the post war upsurge in African English language and literature from these regions

Between Truth and Trust Svend Erik Larsen, 2024-11-05 Radical wrongdoing can have devastating effects for entire communities beyond individual trauma Across cultures different coping strategies that help victims to get on with their lives range from individual therapy to collective rituals and ceremonies This new book distances itself from the predominantly individual take on forgiveness and concentrates on its collective and cultural dimensions in a broad historical religious and cultural context By developing forgiveness as a particular speech act based on a precarious mutual acceptance between victims and perpetrators the book suggests a new approach to forgiveness Framed by this challenging reciprocity forgiveness becomes an ongoing experiment in mutual understanding which to be successful requires the imagination of a shared future Literature as a creative and imaginary medium of expression is integrated throughout the book as a vehicle to explore a deeper understanding of the cultural practice of forgiveness The book draws on literary texts from different cultures and religions across the globe from antiquity and early Christianity to the present In looking at forgiveness through this lens the book offers a broader and more comprehensive approach than most of the existing scholarly literature and debates on forgiveness

Understanding Things Fall Apart Solomon Ogbede Iyasere, 1998 Critical essays on Chinua Achebe s novel Things fall apart

The Discarded Brick Volume 1 Emmanuel N. Mukanga, 2021-05-14 The discarded brick a three season trilogy in two volumes is set in Africa Europe and North America It is about the travels and experiences of Emmanuel N Mukanga who even in childhood would be moved to a different location every three to five years Born in the British Protectorate of Uganda the changing political and economic fortunes of his post independence homeland and region led to thousands of his country people to flee and go look for greener pastures all over the world This desire for a better and safer world is a human desire and in Europe and North America Emmanuel found people from other countries in pursuit of happiness Back home not everyone was happy to co exist with him Fears and intrigue led to a family split legal battles and irreconcilable differences He and his siblings became a pariah to be avoided like the pest The discarded Brick Born in 1953 near the shores of Lake Victoria in Eastern Uganda Emmanuel N Mukanga was plucked from his parents at the age of three and taken to the Ugandan capital Kampala At age six he was taken to a primary school near Mbale in Eastern Uganda and at age nine transferred to Entebbe former seat of the British Protectorate Government At thirteen he joined a prestigious boarding secondary school after which he went to University to study the Arts One of the reasons Idi Amin gave for expelling the 80 000 strong Indian Community from Uganda in 1972 was that they were milking the cow without feeding it which was not entirely true He who had no cow to milk did not know that he too would have to leave his country of birth He worked at Uganda Television but in 1976 he fled Idi Amin s Uganda starting an odyssey that would take him to over 26 countries in Africa Europe and North America He interacted with many cultures however when it came to a denigration of his culture at home then a clash was inevitable This awakened in him the question who are you where do you come from and what do you stand for Cultural clashes intrigue and legal battles follow He has included an epilogue reflecting on his life and existence and tracing his origins among the Samia Luhya astride Kenya and Uganda He started compiling this book in May 2009 and completed it in October 2020 during the great Covid 19 pandemic and after George Floyd said twelve times in less than 9 minutes Mama I Can t Breathe

Economics and Literature François Bourguignon, Avinash K Dixit, Luc Leruth, Jean-Philippe Platteau, 2025-06-06 Economics and fiction often pursue parallel objectives Economists analyze human decisions and interactions in markets and other institutions Fiction writers also provide keen insights into individual minds and motives examining how their characters respond to conflict and tensions in varied situations This book explores the insights to be gained from developing this parallel In each chapter economists discuss classic or contemporary literary creations exploring economic incentives that motivate the characters the economic mechanisms that tie them together and or the economic context in which they live and develop Exploring the synergy across economics and literature offers new understandings of themes including capitalism and colonialism marriage and markets gender norms inheritance and estates and the political economy of poverty The broad and deep range of literary works includes writers from Shakespeare and Goethe through Chekov and Steinbeck to recent Nobelists Abdulrazak Gurnah and Han Kang By offering new understandings of both economics and literature readers will gain deeper insights into people's thought processes choices and consequences This book will captivate readers in economics social sciences and the humanities and open their minds to the viewing of economic ideas and concepts through the prism of great works of literature

Chinua Achebe and the Igbo-African World Chima J. Korieh,Ijeoma C. Nwajiaku,2022-04-12 Chinua Achebe and the Igbo African World Between Fiction Fact and Historical Representation explores Chinua Achebe's literary works and how they communicated the Igbo African world to readers Engaging in the politics of representation Achebe sought to demystify deterministic views of race and cultural ethnocentrism While his books and commentaries have been very influential in shaping a unique and multifaceted view of the African world some scholars have challenged Achebe's representations of historical reality Through in depth analyses of his writing contributors examine the interpretations Achebe imposed on African culture and history in his texts The chapters cover Achebe's engagement with critical issues like historical representation gender relations and indigenous political institutions in a changing society Throughout contributors present new ways for understanding Achebe's literary works and show how his work draws from African historical reality and identity while challenging Western epistemological hegemony

What Is Fiction For? Bernard Harrison,2014-12-29 Harrison's marriage of philosophy and literary criticism does genuine and novel work Journal of Aesthetics and Art Criticism How can literature which consists of nothing more than the description of imaginary events and situations offer any insight into the human condition Can mere words illuminate something that we call reality Bernard Harrison answers these questions in this profoundly original work that seeks to re-enfranchise reality in the realms of art and discourse In an ambitious account of the relationship between literature and cognition he seeks to show how literary fiction by deploying words against a background of imagined circumstances allows us to focus on the roots in social practice of the meanings by which we represent our world and ourselves Engaging with philosophers and theorists as diverse as Wittgenstein Sartre Merleau Ponty Foucault Derrida F R Leavis Cleanth Brooks and Stanley Fish and illustrating his ideas through readings of works by Swift Woolf Appelfeld and Dickens among others this book presents a systematic defense of humanism in literary studies and of the study of the humanities more generally by a distinguished scholar

Oral Tradition in African Literature Ce, Chin,Smith, Charles,2015-09-04 This study of oral tradition in African literature is borne from the awareness that African verbal arts still survive in works of discerning writers and in the conscious exploration of its tropes perspectives philosophy and consciousness its complementary realism and ontology for the delineation of authentic African response to memory history and other possible comparisons with modern existence such as witnessed in recent developments of the African novel In this series we have strived to adopt innovative and multilayered perspectives on orality or indigeneity and its manifestations on contemporary African and new literatures These studies use multi-faceted theories of orality which discuss and deconstruct notions of history truth claims and identity making not excluding gender and genealogy cultural and biological studies in African contexts      The Pan-African Pantheon Adekeye Adebajo, 2021-03-29 With forty accessible essays on the key intellectual contributions to Pan Africanism this volume offers readers a fascinating insight into the intellectual thinking and contributions to Pan Africanism The book explores the history of Pan Africanism and quest for reparations early pioneers of Pan Africanism as well as key activists and politicians and Pan African philosophy and literati Diverse and key figures of Pan Africanism from Africa the Caribbean and America are covered by these chapters including Edward Blyden W E B Du Bois Marcus Garvey Amy Ashwood Garvey George Padmore Kwame Nkrumah Franz Fanon Amilcar Cabral Arthur Lewis Maya Angelou C L R James Ruth First Ali Mazrui Wangari Maathai Thabo Mbeki Wole Soyinka Derek Walcott and Chimamanda Adichie While acknowledging the contributions of these figures to Pan Africanism these essays are not just celebratory offering valuable criticism in areas where their subjects may have fallen short of their ideals      Fictions at Work Mary M. Talbot, 2014-09-19 In this book Mary Talbot shows how fiction works in the constitution and reproduction of social life She discusses both high and low fiction combining discussion of social context with language analysis Examples are taken from children s tales romance horror and science in her language analysis      Sequels Janet G.
