The Illustrated London News ,1862 Poetry and the Cromwellian Protectorate Edward

Holberton,2008-08-07 The Cromwellian Protectorate was a period of innovation in poetry and drama as well as constitutional debate This new account of the period focuses on key cultural institutions Parliament an embassy to Sweden Oxford University Cromwell s state funeral to examine this poetry s relationship with a culture in transformation and crisis Edward Holberton shows that the Protectorate s instabilities helped to generate lively and innovative poetry Protectorate verse explores the fault lines of a culture which ceaselessly contested the authority of its own institutions including the office of Protector itself Poetry by Andrew Marvell Edmund Waller William Davenant and John Dryden contributed to a vibrant poetic culture which embraced diverse forms and occasions masques for the weddings of Cromwell s daughters diplomatic poems to Queen Christina of Sweden naval victories civic pageants and university anthologies in celebration of a peace treaty Many of these texts prove difficult to align with established ideas of the political and cultural contests of the age because they become entangled with cultural institutions which could no longer be taken for granted and were in many cases transforming rapidly with far reaching historical consequences Poetry and the Cromwellian Protectorate asks how poetry confronted questions that were complicated by institutional practices how poets tried to square their wider cultural sympathies with their interests in a particular parliamentary or university crisis and how changes in institutions afforded poets critical insights into their society s problems and its place in the world The readings of this book challenge previous representations of Protectorate culture as a phase of conservative backsliding or pragmatic compromise under a quasi monarchical order Protectorate verse emerges as nuanced and vital writing which looks beyond the personality of Oliver Cromwell to the tensions that shaped his power Poetry and the Cromwellian Protectorate argues that it is precisely through being contingent and compromised that these poems achieve their vitality and become so revealing

Look Away Silence Edward C. Patterson, 2009-07 Martin Powers wanted an ironing board for Christmas Instead he got Matthew Kieler a non returnable gift but a gift that kept on giving Chance encounters are sometimes the ones that most change our lives He sold Matt a tie but got more in the bargain more than most people would want and more than anyone deserved Although these lovers may not have had the pink American dream they had it better than most even as they faced a crisis that would change us all Look Away Silence is a romance set in the time of AIDS when ignorance could spell trouble and often did It encompasses the author s experiences in volunteer community service and personal friendships during a tragic period in American history The novel is dedicated to the Hyacinth AIDS Foundation the NAMES Project and to the author s own fallen angels Mothers do not shun your children because you never know how long you have to revel in them

Vincent Grainger is on the brink of a creative life It s 1910 in Coney Island Brooklyn and Vin is an imaginative actor at Dreamland Park s Congress of Oddities But life in the Irish immigrant community can be as harsh as it can be sweet Off season there s the daily challenge of bringing in pocket change to keep aspirations afloat Still there s always opportunities mucking out livery stalls or posing for artists or waiting tables and dancing for dimes It s a time to sparkle for those with the right attitude and little Vin has quite the spark to get him through the best and worst of it Little Vin at Dreamland will transport you to the dazzling world of Coney Island at its height and introduce you to the world of Brooklyn society in 1910 1911 both the posh and the seedy From the thousand lights of Dreamland Luna and Steeplechase Parks to the early days of the silent film industry at Fort Lee NJ you will savor an America that paved the way to greatness a heart still beating today in the descendants of those who came here to stake a claim For most of us it begins here at the base of Dreamland Tower For those who carry imagination s spark it begins in the rhythm of little Vin s jig
