M. Berger, 2011-04-30 They are Americans and they are mujahideen Hundreds of men from every imaginable background have walked away from the traditional American dream to volunteer for battle in the name of Islam Some have taken part in foreign wars that aligned with U S interests while others have carried out violence against Western interests abroad fought against the U S military and even plotted terrorist attacks on American soil This story plays out over decades and continents from the Americans who took part in the siege of Mecca in 1979 through conflicts in Lebanon Afghanistan and Bosnia and continuing today in

Afghanistan and Somalia Investigative journalist J M Berger profiles numerous fighters including some who joined al Qaeda and others who chose a different path In these pages he portrays among others Abdullah Rashid who fought the Soviets in Afghanistan Mohammed Loay Bayazid who was present at the founding of al Qaeda Ismail Royer who fought in Bosnia and Kashmir then returned to run training camps in the United States Adam Gadahn a California Jew who is now al Qaeda s chief spokesman and Anwar Awlaki the Yemeni American imam with links to 9 11 who is now considered one of the biggest threats to America s security

Transnational Film and the US Wars in Iraq & Afghanistan Marzena Sokołowska-Paryż, Marek Paryż, 2025-01-15 This book offers insights into diverse non American national perspectives on the US led military interventions in Afghanistan and Iraq within the generic frames of the war film While the best known films about the post 9 11 wars in the Middle East are American productions various other national cinematographies have responded to these conflicts which is not surprising given the fact that international coalitions were formed to support the US military effort However non American war films about these US instigated interventions have received little attention outside their own national contexts This volume fills in the gap in the existing war film criticism by offering insights into how the Afghanistan War 2001 2021 and the Iraq War 2003 2011 have been represented in popular and documentary filmic productions in Iraq Afghanistan Great Britain Germany Denmark Poland Spain and Australia The contributions prove the need for transnationalism as an eye opening perspective on the war film genre by underscoring nationally specific social political and aesthetic differences alongside important correspondences between cultural productions across nations Transnational film and the US wars in Iraq and Afghanistan will be a key resource for scholars and researchers of film studies media and cultural studies film history war studies literary criticism and sociology It was originally published as a special issue of Journal of War Culture Studies
