Girl In A Red Tunic:

Girl in a Red Tunic Alys Clare, 2009 Girl in a Red Tunic Alys Clare, 2006 Abbess Helewise is struggling to keep the Abbey going through a brutal winter and in the midst of this hardship her son returns after 20 years in desperate need of help. Then a man is found strangled and the next day her son flees Helewise and Josse d'Acquin must now investigate the past to a time before Helewise took the veil. Were her handsome husband and her enigmatic father-in-law all that they seemed? And can she prevent another terrible murder or will the sins of the fathers be laid upon her innocent son? The Girl in the Bog Keith Donohue, 2024-08-13 Ancient heroes from Irish mythology and folklore come to life in the modern world in this dark atmospheric story. At once a thrilling chase novel and a wry reimagining of Ireland's oldest epic, it is sure to enthrall readers of Neil Gaiman and Cassandra Khaw. Everybody is after the girl in the bog. One morning in a field in Connemara a farmer unearths the body of a young woman two thousand years old, preserved under layers of peat. Later that evening she awakens in unfamiliar modern Ireland, ripping a hole through space and time and setting awirl old animosities and long-held grudges. Shadowy figures follow her from the pagan past and each emerges with a claim on the girl from the bog. With help from a trio of wannabe teenage witches she goes on the run. Joining in the chase is an American archaeologist who wants to keep the discovery for herself and two befuddled farmers trapped in the plot. Hosts of fairies out for the night work their magic and mischief and in the blue hour before sunrise the saga unfolds in a battle for the ages. Part fantasy, part mystery, part thriller, part send-up, this comic and poignant love song to Irish literature and the gift of gab does not merely bend genres; it braids them into Celtic knots. Midnight Webs George Manville Fenn, 1872 Revisiting the Codex Bezae Cantabrigiae Tristan E. Franklins, Henry Hope, 2020 Enables the less well-known aspects of the Codex Bezae Cantabrigiae to receive greater scrutiny and bring new perspectives to bear on the more thoroughly explored parts of the manuscript. Making accessible existing discourse and encouraging fresh debates on the codex, the essays advocate fresh modes of engagement with its contents, contexts, and composition. Ancient Faces Susan Walker, 2020-03-25 From the first major discoveries a century ago, the painted portraits of Roman Egypt were a revelation to scholars and the public alike, and the recent finding of a new cache of these gilded images, which made national headlines, have only heightened their mystery and appeal. Published to coincide with a new major exhibition of these portraits, Ancient Faces is the most comprehensive up-to-date survey of these astonishing works of art. Dating from the later period of Roman rule in Egypt, shortly before the birth of Christ, the painted mummy portraits are among the most remarkable products of the ancient world, a fusion of the traditions of pharaonic Egypt and the Classical world. They are historical and cultural objects of outstanding importance and beauty, superb works of art that represent some of the earliest known examples of life-like portraiture. Though the subjects of the portraits believed in the traditional Egyptian cults, which offered them a firm prospect of life after death, they also wished to be commemorated in the Roman manner, with their fashion of dress and adornment signaling their status in life. Despite their ancient history, these portraits speak to the modern

eye with a beauty and intensity that would be lost to portraiture until the Renaissance Third Girl from the Left a memoir Christine Barker, 2023-03-14 As a middle child in a large military family Christine just wants to dance Her parents support her dreams even if they seem beyond their comprehension At 20 determined and talented Christine heads across the country from Santa Fe to New York City and in a made for Hollywood story is chosen for the London cast of A Chorus Line While unwilling to fully cut ties with the traditional life her parents envision for her she finds a new family with the dancers and more fluid open characters that fill the theater world in London and later New York in the 70s 80s Christine learns that one member of her family is equally at home in her new world Laughlin her older brother divorced a father ex military and a corporate lawyer also makes his way to New York City where he meets and begins to build a life with rising fashion star Perry Ellis The two men enjoy a partnership and a financial success that Christine both admires and envies She spends much of her free time in their Upper West Side brownstone and Water Island retreat Soon everyone is talking about a mysterious new disease As deaths of dancers theater folk and eventually friends start to mount Christine realizes she is in the middle of an epidemic that neither her traditional family nor the public at large is ready to reckon with As the AIDS crisis cuts closer and closer eventually impacting those she loves most Christine does what she has always done she strikes her own path This memoir is an emotional honest examination of what it takes to succeed in the competitive world of New York theater how hard won dreams can be quickly lost what it means to redefine family and the devastating toll AIDS exacted on a generation of artists
