Amidst Dark Satanic Mills:

Visualising Britain's Holy Land in the Nineteenth Century Amanda M. Burritt, 2020-04-11 This book demonstrates the complexity of nineteenth century Britain's engagement with Palestine and its surrounds through the conceptual framing of the region as the Holy Land. British engagement with the region of the Near East in the nineteenth century was multi-faceted and part of its complexity was exemplified in the powerful relationship between developing and diverse Protestant theologies, visual culture and imperial identity. Britain's Holy Land was visualised through pictorial representation which helped Christians to imagine the land in which familiar Bible stories took place. This book explores ways in which the geopolitical Holy Land was understood as embodying biblical land, biblical history and biblical typology. Through case studies of three British artists, David Roberts, David Wilkie and William Holman Hunt, this book provides a nuanced interpretation of some of the motivations, religious perspectives, attitudes and behaviours of British Protestants in their relationship with the Near East at the time.

68 Knots: A Novel Michael Robert Evans, 2011-09-08 After the sailing camp owner's suicide, eight teens find they have a boat to themselves. The 68 days of summer remaining are full of memorable events, encounters with wildlife and people, yacht races, pirate raids, a near-fatal hunt for treasure, onboard parties, romance and a call to heroism. Underlying the tale of adventures, however, is a subtle yet powerful story of awakening of teens on the cusp of adulthood. They get to know that gap between who they are and who they want to be by experiencing tests of physical, emotional and mental limits. A stirring debut, this novel examines issues of late adolescence with authenticity that will speak to YA readers.

Rethinking the Power of Maps Denis Wood, 2010-04-16 A contemporary follow-up to the groundbreaking Power of Maps, this book takes a fresh look at what maps do, whose interests they serve and how they can be used in surprising, creative and radical ways. Denis Wood describes how cartography facilitated the rise of the modern state and how maps continue to embody and project the interests of their creators. He demystifies the hidden assumptions of map-making and explores the promises and limitations of diverse counter-mapping practices today. Thought-provoking illustrations include U.S. Geological Survey maps, electoral and transportation maps and numerous examples of critical cartography, participatory GIS and map art. The book will be important reading for geographers and others interested in maps and their political uses. It will also serve as a supplemental text in advanced undergraduate and graduate level courses such as Cartography, GIS, Geographic Thought and History of Geography.

Shaping the Church Martyn Percy, 2016-04-01 This book seeks to dynamically alter the way that theologians, ecclesiologists, students of religion and ministers look at the church. Taking the ideas of composition, formation and vocation as basic ecclesial categories, Martyn Percy explores how apparently innocent and incidental material is in fact highly significant for the shaping of theological and ecclesiological horizons. The Introduction sets the tone with a meditation on how the apparently ordinary scent of a country church can be redolent with meaning, setting the tone of expectation in relation to subsequent worship. This book is not, however, simply about reading meanings into events, ideas, conversations and contexts Rather it sets out to faithfully interpret much of the material that surrounds us yet is often taken for granted or more usually unnoticed The book is an invitation to involve the scholar or minister paying close and patient attention to beliefs language artefacts rituals practices and other material all of which are constitutive for ecclesial life and theological identity Bulwarks of Unbelief Joseph Minich,2023-04-12 How modernity creates atheists and what the church must do about it Millions of people in the West identify as atheists Christians often respond to this reality with proofs of God s existence as though rational arguments for atheism were the root cause of unbelief In Bulwarks of Unbelief Joseph Minich argues that a felt absence of God as experienced by the modern individual offers a better explanation for the rise in atheism Recent technological and cultural shifts in the modern West have produced a perceived challenge to God s existence As modern technoculture reshapes our awareness of reality and belief in the invisible it in turn amplifies God s apparent silence In this new context atheism is a natural result And absent of meaning from without we have turned within Christians cannot escape this aspect of modern life Minich argues that we must consciously and actively return to reality If we reattune ourselves to God s story reintegrate the whole person and reinhabit the world faith can thrive in this age of unbelief The British Economy Since 1700: A Macroeconomic Perspective C. H. Lee,1986-12-18 This book provides a comprehensive study on the development of the British economy from early eighteenth century onwards Medicine, Mythology, and Spirituality Ralph Twentyman,2004 In his discussion of the art of healing Ralph Twentyman places the problems of modern medicine in the context of the evolution of consciousness and the modern crisis of selfhood and community He relates this to today s all too common experience of loneliness in relation to the experience of individuality By contrast Twentyman points to the dawning vision of humankind as a true being it itself a living organism The illnesses that characterize our time are looked at within the context of these birth pangs of a new era of evolution and consciousness Jerusalem Jason Whittaker,2022 A reception history of William Blake s Jerusalem that traces the hymn s increasing associations with national identity and explores how different social and political factions both left and right have sought to impose their own meaning on building Jerusalem Labour Co-partnership ,1899 The New Dawn ,1963 The Economic Review ,1899 Encyclopedia of Toxicology Bruce Anderson,Ann de Peyster,Shayne C.
