

The image shows the interior of a large, ornate church. In the foreground, rows of white wooden pews with dark wood tops are arranged on either side of a central aisle. The pews have red carpeting. In the background, a large, multi-tiered organ with white and gold pipes is mounted on a raised platform. The organ is flanked by statues. Above the organ, there are large arched windows. The ceiling is white with gold-colored sunburst decorations. The overall atmosphere is bright and formal.

Historic Preservation in the USA Karolin Frank, 2013-03-09 Since the 1960s public attention has been drawn increasingly towards the thematic link between historic preservation and urban planning Nowadays the organized historic preservation movement in the USA is more than a mere yearning for history it represents an active and integral part of urban planning in US cities In order to approach these planning economic and social issues in the field of historic preservation this book analyzes a variety of interdisciplinary methods focusing on four selected historic districts within the central business districts of Philadelphia and Boston in the north and Charleston and Savannah in the south United States of Medievalism Tison

Pugh, Susan Aronstein, 2021-08-20 This fascinating collection explores America's appropriations and fabrications of the Middle Ages revealing the nation's complicated love affair with a past it never had but has created from history and imagination

Religion Out Loud Isaac Weiner, 2023-11-21 For six months in 2004 controversy raged in Hamtramck Michigan as residents debated a proposed amendment that would exempt the adhan or Islamic call to prayer from the city's anti noise ordinance The call to prayer functioned as a flashpoint in disputes about the integration of Muslims into this historically Polish Catholic community No one openly contested Muslims' right to worship in their mosques but many neighbors framed their resistance around what they regarded as the inappropriate public pronouncement of Islamic presence an announcement that audibly intruded upon their public space Throughout U S history complaints about religion as noise have proven useful both for restraining religious dissent and for circumscribing religion s boundaries more generally At the same time religious individuals and groups rarely have kept quiet They have insisted on their right to practice religion out loud implicitly advancing alternative understandings of religion and its place in the modern world In Religion Out Loud Isaac Weiner takes such sonic disputes seriously Weaving the story of religious noise through multiple historical eras and diverse religious communities he convincingly demonstrates that religious pluralism has never been solely a matter of competing values truth claims or moral doctrines but of different styles of public practice of fundamentally different ways of using body and space and that these differences ultimately have expressed very different conceptions of religion itself Weiner s innovative work encourages scholars to pay much greater attention to the publicly contested sensory cultures of American religious life

An Architecture of Immanence Mark A. Torgerson, 2007-01-22 Torgerson begins by discussing God s transcendence and immanence and showing how church architecture has traditionally interpreted these key concepts He then traces the theological roots of immanence s priority from liberal theology and liturgical innovation to modern architecture Next Torgerson illustrates this new architecture of immanence through particular practitioners focusing especially on the work of theologically savvy architect Edward Anders S vik Finally he addresses the future of church architecture as congregations are buffeted by the twin forces of liturgical change and postmodernism

Goodbye Religion Ryan T.

Cragun, Jesse M. Smith, 2024-10-08 Through careful analysis of the best empirical data this book helps make sense of one of the most important questions regarding social change in the United States in recent decades how and why are so many people leaving religion and what does and will this mean for American society

Gone for Good? Mark Elsdon, 2024-01-09 Is your church facing the difficult decision to sell property Consider using church buildings and land to further the gospel mission Mark Elsdon author of We Aren't Broke: Uncovering Hidden Resources for Mission and Ministry revisits questions of church resources with a team of pastors scholars developers and urban planners This collection of essays sheds light on how church communities can transform their properties to serve their neighborhoods Essays explore spiritual sociological and practical aspects of church property transition including assessing the impacts of churches on their neighborhoods and the gaps they will leave behind developing church property into affordable housing transforming ministry in rural churches partnering with Indigenous peoples to return land fostering cooperation between congregations developers and city planners navigating zoning laws working with foundations and funders Thousands of church properties worth billions of dollars are being sold or repurposed each year Nothing can stop the currents of change But congregations and cities can take steps now to ensure a legacy directed toward communal good rather than private interests Gone for Good will be an invaluable guide in navigating these radical shifts in church life and ministry Contributors Jennie Birkholz David Bowers Philip Burns Mark D Constantine Joseph W Daniels Jr Patrick Duggan Mark Elsdon Ashley Goff Jim Bear Jacobs A Robert Jaeger Willie James Jennings Tyler Krupp Qureshi Eileen Lindner Elizabeth Lynn Nadia Mian Kurt Paulsen Jill Shook Cot Soerens Rochelle A Stackhouse Keith Starkenburg Andre White

Honoring Ancestors in Sacred Space Grace Turner, 2023-10-10 The Anglican Church established St Matthew's Parish on the eastern side of Nassau to accommodate a population increase after British Loyalists migrated to the Bahamas in the 1780s The parish had three separate cemeteries the churchyard cemetery and Centre Burial Ground were for whites but the Northern Burial Ground was officially consecrated for nonwhites in 1826 by the Bishop of Jamaica In Honoring Ancestors in Sacred Space Grace Turner posits that the African Bahamian community intentionally established this separate cemetery in order to observe non European burial customs Analyzing the landscape and artifacts found at the site Turner shows how the community used this space to maintain a sense of social and cultural belonging despite the power of white planters and the colonial government Although the Northern Burial Ground was covered by storm surges in the 1920s and later a sidewalk was built through the site Turner's fieldwork reveals a wealth of material culture She points to the cemetery's location near water trees planted at the heads of graves personal items left with the dead and remnants of food offerings as evidence of mortuary practices originating in West and Central Africa According to Turner these African influenced ways of memorializing the dead illustrate W E B Du Bois's idea of double consciousness the experience of existing in two irreconcilable cultures at the same time Comparing the burial ground with others in Great Britain and the American colonies Turner demonstrates how Africans in the Atlantic diaspora did not always adopt European customs but often created a separate parallel world for themselves A volume in the Florida Museum of Natural History Ripley P Bullen Series A Richer Heritage Robert E. Stipe,2003 Surveying the past present and future of historic preservation in America this text features 15 essays by some of the most eminent voices in the field essays which highlight the principle ideas and events that have shaped and continue to shape the movement Sacred Space for the Missional Church William R. McAlpine,2011-02-14 Sacred Space for the Missional Church examines the strong link between the theology and mission of the Church and the spaces in which and from which that theology and mission are lived out The author demonstrates that the built environment is not incidental or even subservient to mission Rather it is a key player in the fulfillment and the communication of that mission The book begins with a working definition of the missional church underscoring the connection between God s mission missio Dei and the Church s mission The reader is presented with historical and theological frameworks for sacred space and reminded of the pivotal role of the built environment in the fulfillment of the mission of the Church The design and construction of sacred spaces are shown to be fundamentally a theological exercise and not solely a matter of function pragmatics and fiscal astuteness The author questions the uncritical application of blanket statements such form must follow function and challenges the conviction that it does not matter where worship occurs only that it occurs The book addresses genuine concerns such as legitimizing the cost of church buildings and concludes with practical suggestions and essential questions that must be considered in posturing the built environment within the missional praxis of the Church Beaches Environmental Assessment, Closure, and Health Act of 1990 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries. Subcommittee on Oceanography and the Great Lakes,1990 Place and Native American Indian History and Culture Joy Porter,2007 In this volume prominent scholars from across the United States and Europe examine the central significance of place within Native American history and life They shed new light on this foundational concept within Native American Studies at a time when the idea of place is under fundamental reassessment across disciplines The studies focus on understanding the American self within each of the varied landscapes of the United States and on recognising the true place of American Indian peoples within American history The contributions to this volume are selected from the conference on Place and Native American Indian History Literature and Culture held on 29 31 March 2006 at the University of Wales Swansea U K Over one hundred and twenty delegates from across the globe congregated including the largest gathering of Native American intellectuals yet seen in Europe As Long as Grass Grows Dina Gilio-Whitaker,2019-04-02 The story of Native peoples resistance to environmental injustice and land incursions and a call for environmentalists to learn from the Indigenous community s rich history of activism Through the unique lens of Indigenized environmental justice Indigenous researcher and activist Dina Gilio Whitaker explores the fraught history of treaty violations struggles for food and water security and protection of sacred sites while highlighting the important leadership of Indigenous women in this centuries long struggle As Long As Grass Grows gives readers an accessible history of Indigenous resistance to government and corporate incursions on their lands and offers new approaches to environmental justice activism and policy Throughout 2016 the Standing Rock protest put a national spotlight on Indigenous activists but it also underscored how little Americans know about the longtime historical tensions between Native peoples and the mainstream environmental movement Ultimately she argues modern environmentalists must look to the history of Indigenous resistance for wisdom and inspiration in our common fight for a just and sustainable future

American Sacred Space David Chidester, Edward T. Linenthal, 1995-11-22 In a series of pioneering studies this book examines the creation and the conflict behind the creation of sacred space in America The essays in this volume visit places in America where economic political and social forces clash over the sacred and the profane from wilderness areas in the American West to the Mall in Washington D C and they investigate visions of America as sacred space at home and abroad Here are the beginnings of a new American religious history told as the story of the contested spaces it has inhabited The contributors are David Chidester Matthew Glass Edward T Linenthal Colleen McDannell Robert S Michaelsen Rowland A Sherrill and Bron Taylor
