Abstract: While various researchers have acknowledged the importance of the relationship with the local community of a company, few studies have examined the impact of this relationship on the company's performance. This study examines the impact of the relationship with the local community on the company's performance, using data from 100 companies in the manufacturing sector. The results show that the relationship with the local community has a positive impact on the company's performance, and that this impact is stronger for companies that are more socially responsible.

Abstract 2 Effect of the psychological stress associated with the COVID-19 pandemic on the psychological well-being of the population. The aim of this study was to determine the psychological well-being of the population during the COVID-19 pandemic. A sample of 500 people was selected. The results show that the psychological well-being of the population is significantly lower during the COVID-19 pandemic compared to the pre-pandemic period. The results also show that the psychological well-being of the population is significantly lower in people who are more stressed and less socially supported. The results suggest that the psychological well-being of the population is significantly lower in people who are more stressed and less socially supported.

Muslim Contributions to World Civilization M. Basheer Ahmed, MD and Ambassador Syed A. Ahsani and Dilnawaz A. Siddiqui, PhD,2005-01-01 Islam s brilliant contributions to science art and culture are a timeless and precious heritage which should be historically preserved for future generations The great achievements of Muslim scholars are rarely if at all acknowledged in formal education and today their identity origins and impact remain largely obscure This collection of papers aims to give readers a brief introduction to the intellectual history of Muslims and the contributions that eminent Muslim scholars have made in certain specific fields of knowledge including basic and applied physical and biological sciences medicine legal and political theories and practices economic and financial concepts models and institutions etc The preservation of civilization necessitates a better understanding sharing and recognition of our common human heritage Given today s widespread negative stereotyping and falsely generated misunderstanding of Islam and Muslims the publication of these papers on Muslim Contributions to World Civilization is vital to help repair the wrong that is being perpetrated and restore the historical truth which is being distorted History of the Muslim Discovery of the World

Dzavid Haveric, 2012 For centuries Islam as a universal religion was among the world's greatest enlightened and most creative cultural forces as well as a powerful and splendid civilisation. In his thoughtful and comprehensive book Dzavid Haveric explores the rise and further development of the Islamic civilisation. Using a multidisciplinary approach especially historical and historiographical the author includes a wide range of sources with his focal point on Islamic civilisation. This cultural history surveys the magnificent discoveries and achievements of the Muslims from the 7th to the 15th centuries. The book demonstrates that the Muslim discoveries of various parts of the globe particularly during the Golden Age of Islamic civilisation played an important part in history. By exploring Islamic civilisation within the plurality of civilisations this work puts forward a very distinct point of view. The author presents a balanced look at the cultural religious diversity and interaction of civilisations. It outlines the interaction of Islamic civilisation with various ancient civilisations and other civilisations that also emerged or flourished. In his observations the author illuminates the Islamic contribution to world history and also it includes many values and the riches of different civilisations' beliefs and cultures of the world. This work is a treasure of fascinating facts and a source of important information. It is also a blend of scholarship and dedication and a timely contribution to Islamic cultural history, comparative civilisations, multi-faith relations and cosmopolitanism. Islamic Civilization

S. M. Ghazanfar, 2006-03-30 Review Islamic Civilization History Contributions and Influence. A Compendium of Literature is a window to literature pertaining to Islamic history and Islam's contributions to knowledge and its influence in medieval Europe. The book is unique in that it presents more than mere annotations; it is a collection of literature briefs, detailed and focused descriptions of each of the more than six hundred books and articles covered. In the post 9/11 environment there has been a surge of interest regarding all things Islamic. While much of the new literature is refreshingly positive, some works demonstrate a revival of centuries-old misconceptions about the Islamic world. Islamic Civilization examines that dichotomy through literature that the author has accumulated over the past twenty years in connection with other research endeavors concerning early Islamic social thought. Thus, most references have a social science/humanities orientation. Students, researchers, scholars and professionals will find this bibliography full of useful resources and a stimulus for further reading. BOOK JACKET Muslims History and Civilization Vol 1 Ehsanul

Karim, 2012-02-01 The Muslims History and Civilization provides a modern perspective of the religion, culture and history of the Islamic world at a time when that world is undergoing considerable change and is a focus of international study and debate. Most perceptions of Islam have often tended to be dominated by selective focus on few parts of Islamic history by biased media interpretations of events. Many people are unaware of the depth and variety of Islamic history and civilization and had no opportunity to have a look at the bigger picture with all parts of the puzzle before their eyes. At the same time many who have had a formal training in Islamic studies have tended to concentrate on the traditional to the exclusion of modern overview The Muslims History and Civilization covers the full range of Islamic history and thought in historical depth but it also provides substantial coverage of contemporary trends across the Muslim world It doesn't speak only from the mouth of select few It presents views of all great thinkers historians scholars and writers irrespective of their religious affiliations With well over a thousand entries on Islamic theology history arts scientific achievements Muslim leaders law and institutions crusades Caliphate and coverage of Islam in various places around the world and short historical backgrounds of all Muslim countries the Muslims History and Civilization provides an extremely rich resource for students and researchers in religious studies and Middle Eastern studies This book underlines and deepens the Muslim identity amidst fast changing concepts and ideologies This book is a wide ranging and general introduction to Islamic civilization from its origins to the present day Writing in clear and non technical language Ehsanul Karim seek answers to broad and important questions It begins with the history of the Prophet Muhammad P and provides a compilation of all the contributions achievements and major events of every Muslim region that has made a significant impact on Muslim history and civilization continues with an historical r sum of the Islamic period and moves on to the core chapters on the religious philosophical and legal foundations of Islamic society and its contributions to world civilization in the fields of literature art science and medicine

Dr. Muhammad Hedayetullah,2012-10-04 Islam is one of the Semitic Religions thus one of the greatest religions of the world and it is not easy to present a complete description of this religion in a Compact Survey as this book is It is also not easy to understand the practical life of the Muslims without some knowledge of their religious social life For that one needs to have a complete understanding of the principal institution of Islam A compact exposition of Muslim institutions covers at least important aspects of Arab Muslim life Keeping in mind these facts I have tried to deal with the origin background and the rise of Islam the dogmas and the superstitions of the faith the sources and practice of Muslim law the family life and Sufism It packs an immense amount of information even though there are still other aspect to be dealt with Concerning the life of the Prophet it is well known that Muhammad b Abdullah was born about 570 C E in Mecca al Makkah the son of a Korashite family Orphaned early he grew up under the care of his nearest relatives His father had already died so he was brought up by his nearest relativeshis grandfather aand his uncle He was a shepherd during his boyhood age It is also reported that unlike other boys Muhammad was thoughtful rather than playful At the age of about twenty five he became the business adviser of a famed widow named Khadija who was fifteen years his senior Eventually he became her third husband We do not know much about his early religious life He seems however to have begun early to meditate on the values of life and to have had an unusually nervous high strung constitution At the age of forty he started receiving the divine
