Global Anti-Money Laundering Regulation

Nkechikwu Azinge-Egbiri,Nicholas Ryder,Ehi Eric Esoimeme,2024-11-25 This book explores the politics of money laundering and terrorist financing ML TF regulation in several countries across Africa and the Small Island States Developed countries created the Financial Action Task Force FATF to combat ML TF globally Expectedly the FATF s standards mirror existing banking regulations within the G7 countries Yet the standards apply to all countries irrespective of the limited ML TF risks they pose to the global economy their weak pre conditions for effective regulation and their non involvement in the FATF s framing Still such countries mainly within the Global South have worked hard to amplify their compliance with the regime due to fears of the repercussions of their non compliance This collection demonstrates how the global ML TF regulation is treated as an implicitly superior legal regime where the Global South must comply irrespective of their perception of the FATF s legitimacy challenges It shows that beyond exogenous factors such as neo colonialism endogenous factors such as weak institutions and corruption undermine the compliance trajectory of the Global South Furthermore it analyses the unintended consequences of transplanting FATF standards into diverse legal and cultural contexts The volume contributes to our understanding of the challenges of transplantation from the Global North and how the Global South is steering within the constraints created by the FATF It advocates for a comprehensive understanding of the nuanced compliance challenges of developing countries It further proposes practical solutions to address them emphasizing the importance of risk based understanding accountability capacity building and coordination in achieving effective anti money laundering and counter terrorist financing measures The collection will be essential reading for researchers academics and policy makers working in financial crime regulation and international economic law

Accountability in education: meeting our commitments UNESCO, 2017-10-30 The second edition of the Global Education Monitoring Report GEM Report presents the latest evidence on global progress towards the education targets of the UN Sustainable Development Goals With hundreds of millions of people still not going to school and many not achieving minimum skills at school it is clear education systems are off track to achieve global goals The marginalized currently bear the most consequences but also stand to benefit the most if policy makers pay sufficient attention to their needs Faced with these challenges along with tight budgets and increased emphasis on results oriented value for money countries are searching for solutions Increased accountability often tops the list The 2017 8 GEM Report shows the entire array of approaches to accountability in education It ranges from countries unused to the concept where violations of the right to education go unchallenged to countries where accountability has become an end in itself instead of a means to inclusive equitable and high quality education and lifelong learning for all The report emphasizes that education is a shared responsibility While governments have primary responsibility all actors schools teachers parents students international organizations private sector providers civil society and the media 0 3 have a role in improving education systems The report emphasized the importance of transparency and availability of information but urges caution in how data are used It makes the case for avoiding accountability systems with a disproportionate focus on narrowly defined results and punitive sanctions In an era of multiple accountability tools the report provides clear evidence on those that are working and those that are not Back cover
